ENJOINED BY LAW

A Sweeping Injunction Issued Against the Striking Miners.

CANNOT MARCH NEAR MINES.

Must Not Induce or Compel Any Employe to Leave His Work.

DOLAN EXPRESSES DEFIANCE.

Says That Nothing Can Prevent the Carrying Out of the Campaign.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

PITTSBURG Aug 12—The much talked of bill for an injunction against the United Mine Workers that was to have been filed in the United States Court was filed in the County Court about noon by counsel for the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company The defendants named are the United Mine Workers of America Patrick Dolan president Edward McKay vice president Wm Warner secretary and treasurer and others

The plaintiff company sets forth that it is a corporation under the laws of Pennsylvania with a capital of a million dollars Invested in coal lands of Pennsylvania Three of their mines employing 1 200 men are Plum Creek Turtle Creek and Sandy Creek The bill then recites the conditions prevailing at their mines since the strike began and allege that the strikers have paid no attention to the sheriff's warnings and that the lives of the miners and the property of the company are in danger

Judge Collier granted a temporary injunction restraining the defendants from mass meeting marching or encamping in proximity to the mines and homes of the miners for the purpose by intimidation threats and violence or by words of preventing the miners of the plaintiff from working

It further restrains the defendants from inducing or compelling any employe to quit work

A hearing was fixed for August 16th

The injunction is regarded as the most sweeping yet issued

President Dolan expressed surprise when informed that it had been granted and added It will in the end influence to us We will not break camp and will go right along as usual and the matter is tested in the courts We will stay there regardless of any injunction All sheriffs and any body else right to arrest the injunction they will have to build more jails to accommodate the men

STRIKERS DECIDE TO TEST THE INJUNCTION.

Will March as Usual to the Mines and Will Thus Invite Arrest

By Associated Press to The Tribune

PITTSBURG Pa Aug 12—The strike miners at their meeting have determined to force the injunction issued restraining the daily marches and meetings in the right direction of the Mc Government and Constable Mine Inspector Wilder of Judge McDowell of Washington Paddling men's on the public roads leading to the mines

The party is to give the men arrested in order to test the legality of the injunction Patrick Dolan says that they have determined to keep up the marches and if first in one group is arrested another will take its place until there will be so many of them in jail that the supreme court will be aroused on the question of the right form of injunction In this movement the support of all the leading trade unions of the country is said to have been pledged at a secret meeting in Columbus during the last three days presided over by Samuel Gompers

Information has been received by the Pittsburg operators that the miners of the Bell Lewis and Yates Company have struck in Reynolds and the rest of the mines of the company are idle The company is one of the heaviest tonnage producers in the north in field About 8 000 men are employed No information has been received from the Punxsutawney and Clearfield districts but it was reported that the mines at several points in those districts are out the reinforcements being of a local nature and independent of the national strike

The usual march of the miners was made at Turtle Creek at 4 o clock this morning but more men went into the pit today than yesterday Deputy Sheriff Richards was in charge of some men going to work at Unity this morning and the strikers ran ahead hooting and jeering them Sheriff Richards ordered the strikers to move but they refused He then called on his other deputies to assist him and the strikers seeing that it meant trouble moved off still hooting the men going to work When a report of the trouble was made at camp many threats were made but the excitement quieted down on the arrival of the leaders There are now 122 deputies at Plum Creek an increase of 52

When T. B. De Armitt heard of the threatened trouble he drove over from Turtle Creek and spent all morning going from house to house to induce the men to go to work At noon there were 103 in the mine a decrease of fourteen This is due to the tactics of the strikers in guarding the miners houses

A new move is to be made by the companies A number of the miners who are working will file a bill of equity asking that the strikers be restrained from marching past their houses They say that the continued noise and excitement is endangering their health as well as jeopardizing the lives of members of their families who are sick

At Sandy Creek there are twelve drivers eight boys and twenty two day men at work This is an increase of eleven

Items from all sections of the Union are coming to the rescue of the strikers A coal company at Akron Ohio sent a dispatch offering to donate two tons of coal at cost The offer was accepted and the coal will be distributed among the homes of the miners

The Fishermen's Protective Association of Astoria Oregon has stored away in its cellar 100 cases of canned salmon for the miners

There is no change in the price of coal from the figures of the last two days The supply is said to have increased and the West Virginians are selling down to prices which approach those in effect before the strike began

BRITISH NEWSPAPER'S IDEAS OF SHERMAN.

Would Be a Pity for Him to Rob Hanna of His Justly-Earned Honors.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug 12 — The Westminster Gazette this afternoon publishes a long leading article in which the opinion is expressed that if Secretary Sherman should be forced to retire from the Cabinet he will make Ohio too hot for Senator Hanna reading 'It is awful to contemplate the results of Mr Hanna being done out of price for making McKinley President

'Some innocents may object that if Sherman is too senile to hold office he must be too senile for the Senate, but as a matter of fact no one has yet estimated how incompetent a man must be before the Senate is closed to him In this he shares the advantage of the House of Lords

"We are rather sorry if Secretary Sherman is to be superseded, as in his own rough way he expresses a phase of American feeling which it is important for us to know."

Market Reports From the Leading Commercial Cities of the Country.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO Aug 12—The exciting scenes of 1831 were renewed on the Board of Trade today The alarm among shorts which caused yesterday's 8-cent bulge was redoubled and the former speculators were prominent figures on the floor of the Chamber and about the commission houses

The foreign markets responded only in a half hearted manner to the advance yesterday Liverpool and Paris advanced just half to 2½ cents each although the former continued to the difference

September wheat closed yesterday with sellers at 81¼ First trades were made this morning from 81 to 81⅝ After a few moments hesitation pandemonium broke loose in the pit and the bears fell over each other in their rush to cover When September reached 84 cents, long stuff came out freely and the market sagged to 82⅝

After some hesitation another advance set in which carried the price to the highest point for September reached in years, 84½ Sellers again turned the tide and a reaction followed to 83¼ at the close

Next to wheat oats showed the best advance and closed ⅜ and ⅞ of a cent higher on September Corn lagged and closed ⅛ of a cent higher for September

NEW YORK Aug 12—The stock market opened with clear show of strength, especially in the Granger and high priced industrials The international stocks were helped by higher prices in London Tobacco moved up 1¼ Burlington and Northern Pacific about one point Union Pacific opened with sales of 5 000 shares from 13 to 13⅜ against 12 last night and closed sale of 8 000 shares quickly followed at price from 13⅝ to 14¼

The advance received considerable impetus after the initial dealings owing to the execution of an accumulation of commission house orders over night which included all of the leading properties and a sprinkling of the inactive specialties in which two pairs were especially noteworthy The low priced shares were heavily dealt in with Union Pacific the feature. The Gould shares generally were particularly strong with Western Union and Missouri Pacific in evidence on buying demand

AMERICAN BISHOPS.

They Are Well Received and Treated by English Brethren.

AUTONOMY FOR THE CHURCH.

This Country Must Manage Its Own National Affairs.

NONCONFORMIST JOHN BUNYAN

A Memorial of Him Will Be Put in St. Saviors Church.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The Rt. Rev. Henry B. Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota, who has been one of the most prominent among the Bishops in attendance upon the Lambeth conference at the request of the Associated Press, has written the following views of the conference:

"The conference manifested a decided unanimity of feeling on all questions connected with work for missions and the social problems which at this time have so much interest for all thoughtful men. One of the most remarkable speeches of the conference was made by the Bishop of Washington, Dr. Satterlee, on the social problems connected with the employer and employed, the keynote of which was that men do not need barbarity, but that they need what the gospel of Christ gives them, brotherhood as the children of one father. The Bishop of Albany occupied the foremost position in the conference, as one who always expressed himself with terse simplicity. Bishop Potter always has a hearing in England as well as at home for his wise and loving thoughtfulness.

"I think the American Bishops won the respect and love of their English brethren. There was a strong unanimity of feeling with all the American Bishops that while in fraternal love and brotherly sympathy our hearts are with the Church in England and the colonies, in defense of the faith and in the work of our Saviour, yet they stand and always will stand on the rights of the national church with its peculiar responsibilities to God and his children.

"The American Bishops have always maintained from the very first Lambeth conference that the American church must always stand upon its rights and maintain its autonomy as a national church and their English and colonial brethren all recognize that this is their position.

"They know that the American church does not desire to have any voice in internal affairs of the management of the missions of the church in England, nor does it desire to assume any of the responsibilities thereof. Neither does it (the English church) expect to take any share of the government or the burdens of the American church.

"There were signs throughout the conference that a power above men will be drawing Christians together. There was very much to cheer us in the story of the church's triumphs in mission fields, such as Uganda, where fifteen years ago there were five Christians and today there are 400 churches, 27,000 worshippers and 60,000 who can read the gospel.

"We have seldom been privileged to witness such gatherings as the missionary meetings held in connection with this conference. At Salisbury Cathedral 7,000 people celebrated the anniversary of the baptism of Ethelbert 1300 years ago. Ten thousand were present at a missionary meeting at Saint Saviour's Church and the Cathedrals of Southwell and Lichfield never had greater congregations than were drawn to the meetings there.

"It has been a pleasure to the Americans to meet some of the foremost men among the non-conformists who have shown the deepest interest in our deliberations. We were informed at a missionary gathering at the Church of St. Saviours that it is proposed to place in this beautiful church, one of the oldest in London and excelled in grandeur only by Westminster Abbey, a memorial to the non-conformist, John Bunyan. In St. Saviours John Rogers and other priests of the Church of England were condemned by their own kinsmen in Christ to die as martyrs, and that such memorial should be placed in this church is a marvelous sign of the times.

"The American Bishops take to their homes delightful memories of the open-hearted hospitality on every hand. But what impressed the American Bishops most was the new life which is stirring the Church of England to great ventures for God at home and abroad."

ELLSWORTH SCORES A DEFENDANT.

No Doubt That the Intention Was to Defraud the Plaintiff.

Judge Ellsworth non-suited the case of J. L. Hanley, a real estate agent of Alameda against J. L. Isaacs of Berkeley, and in doing so took occasion to score the defendant in a very lively manner.

Hanley sued to recover $50 which he claimed as commission in the matter of a sale of a piece of property on Park avenue near San Jose avenue, Alameda. He did not make the sale, but he was the instrument in the disposition of the property which was owned by a resident of that city. Isaacs was in love with the property and promised Hanley $50 if he (Hanley) would tell him from whom he could make the purchase. This promise was made in the presence of two witnesses and this testimony was produced on the stand. The none-suit was granted on a technicality.

In rendering his decision, Judge Ellsworth said that he had no doubt that the defendant had tried, and had tried deliberately to cheat the plaintiff out of his fee. While holding to that opinion he said he could not do otherwise than decide in favor of the defendant under the law.

THE CUMBERMERE CUTTING

John Walter Near In Having His Preliminary Hearing Before Judge Allen.

The preliminary hearing of John Walter Near, which was commenced in the Police Court last evening, was resumed this morning. Near was arrested on a charge of assaulting Captain Barnard of the British ship Cumbermere, which was lying at Adams' Wharf. Near was one of the sailors of the vessel.

Deputy District Attorney Green continued the prosecution and Attorney Ned Ayres represented Near.

Captain Barnard was the first witness of the prosecution last night. He testified that he had refused permission to Near to go ashore and that he was going ashore himself when Near stabbed at him. He said Near was scuffling with the first mate and he had ordered Near to be put in irons, when Near grew violent and said he would not submit to being put in irons.

J. M. Thomas, a longshoreman, who had taken part in the affair is entered the knife, which is a regular sailor's knife, with which the captain was cut.

This morning the witnesses were William Stevenson, the mate, John Smith, the ship carpenter, and Henry Jackson, a colored sailor.

Their testimony did not bring out anything new.

DUTY MUST BE PAID ON CANADIAN IMPORTS.

Important Case Decided Today in Regard to a Fortune in Diamonds.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The Attorney-General in an opinion to the Secretary of the Treasury rendered today decisions that goods and productions of a foreign country not contiguous to the United States which are regularly imported into Canada and afterwards exported to the United States are subjected to the discrimination of ten per cent provided for in section twenty-two of the new tariff act, and also that the method of conveyance whether by water, mail or otherwise, is not material.

The question whether goods transported through Canada to the United States under consular seal are subject to duty has not yet been determined. The case in point was that of ninety thousand dollars worth of diamonds, which were delayed at one of the frontier custom houses until this question was decided. The diamonds are subject to the 10 per cent duty.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 11.—Emperor William of Germany has appointed the Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch to the honorary Colonel of the Magdeburg Hussars.

ALMA WAS NEAR CLARA

The Younger Fallmer Was In the Park Hotel When Ladue Fell.

WHY DID SHE GO THERE?

Suspicion That She Knew of Her Sister's Intent to Kill.

THE WARRANT NOT YET READ,

News of Her Lover's Death Still Kept From the Girl.

Strange as it may seem, little Clara Fallmer, the murderess of Charles Ladue in Alameda, and who is now confined under the care of Dr. Fisher in the county jail, is of opinion that she has been removed thither solely because of wounding her lover, for she has not yet learned that her bullet has robbed him of his life, and that the remains of the young man were incinerated in San Francisco this afternoon.

Because of ignorance of these facts, the young woman maintains a remarkable degree of serenity and steadily makes a forward movement toward recovery.

The officers of the law say that they will not formally serve the warrant charging her with murder until the girl grows stronger, and, in this respect they will be guided by the instructions of Dr. Fisher, physician of the girl, who has now by virtue of the girl's change of location, come in charge of the case.

When the patient shall have attained sufficient strength to withstand the effect of a possible relapse which may be occasioned by the reading of the charge, is problematical. Dr. Fisher is as yet in the dark as to when to authorize the reading of the document, having only recently assumed the conduct of the case. He expects that in a day or two it may be necessary for him to perform an operation, the nature of which he does not yet know, for the purpose of accelerating improvement in the patient's condition. If the girl withstands the shock, then the chances are that the formal arrest will not long be delayed.

The ignorance which the girl labors under is maintained, notwithstanding that she is from time to time visited by officers of the jail in the discharge of their duty of nurses of the institution and of the patient's sister, a manicure, who has offices in the Kahn building.

The sister called last night twice. On the first visit, she remained an hour with her sister, and in the second one she remained only a few moments. She was to have called again this morning, but sent a note that she was sick.

EMOTIONS VARY.

There is no doubt entertained by the jail officials that when the news of Ladue's death shall be broached to the girl it will have a decided effect upon her feelings, because her emotions have been varying almost with the days which have passed over her since the murder.

When she was brought to the jail yesterday she was experiencing an elasticity of spirits, occasioned by a report that had reached her to the effect that Charlie Ladue had said that if he recovered from the shooting he would make her his wife.

The transport which the rumor occasioned was the antithesis of the feeling of resentment which only a few days previously she had given expression to with respect to Ladue, on which occasion she said that she then hated him as bitterly as she had tenderly loved him before.

Today there was still another change in the varying scale of the affections, and there was a suggestion of despair in some of her utterances, especially that in which she declared that if Ladue should die, she would certainly commit suicide.

The jail officials are aware of this fact and take no chances of allowing the young woman to escape a trial for her crime.

They never leave her alone, and have placed out of her reach anything with which she might be able to do injury to herself. More than that, they search the few relatives whom they allow to visit her. Thus far her mother has not put in an appearance at the jail, and indeed has not been to see the girl since the tragedy.

There are features in the case which are coming out slowly and which would seem to show more premeditation in the matter than was at first suspected. Certain male friends of the girl in Alameda are keeping shady and the police of that place have them under close surveillance lest they may be away when required to shed some light on the subject. Some people affect to believe that Clara was not alone in the crime and these are interested in knowing who was the accomplise, if there were any.

HER SISTER NEAR.

It has been ascertained that friends of hers were not far distant at the time of the shooting, and the most interesting discovery in this connection is the fact that at that time a younger sister Alma, was in the hall of the Park Hotel, and must have heard the shots of the murderess and would-be suicide. Whether or not Alma knew of the murderous intent of her sister is unknown, but it is certainly worthy of note that the sisters should have been so close together when the deed was done.

This Alma Fallmer, like the wounded girl, has had a varied career. She was the subject of some attention in Judge Greene's court this morning, the court nullifying all action taken by him to afford her the means for reformation guaranteed by the law.

In July of this year Alma was committed for incorrigibility to the Whittier Reform school. A brother of hers, R. H. Fallmer, stepped in and said that he would take the girl to his home and thus save her from a public institution. Judge Greene accordingly set the commitment aside and allowed the girl to go to her brother's home. The brother's wife, however, did not take kindly to the girl and declined to furnish her shelter and food. Accordingly a family named Edelstein on Sixth street agreed to care for the girl, and an order was made in their behalf in that respect. The Edelsteins and Alma became mutually tired of one another and then Green Majors stepped in, got Judge Ellsworth in Judge Greene's absence to set aside the order giving the Edelsteins custody of the girl. That left the girl free. She again went to her parents' home and her conduct was as objectionable as it had been before her commitment.

Today the matter came up before Judge Greene. It was shown that the girl had returned to her home, whereupon the court revoked all former orders in the case and thus the girl was as free as ever to do as she pleased.

The news that she was near by when her sister shot Ladue is being worked on by the police, and it is expected will lead to some interesting developments.

TWO HEARTS MADE ONE.

Miss Libbie Moffitt Becomes the Bride of Ernest Folger.

Father McSweeney Performed the Ceremony This Afternoon.

A pretty but rather quiet wedding took place yesterday at 3 o'clock at 583 Twenty-fourth street, the home of the bride, when Miss Libbie Moffitt and Ernest Folger were married.

Only the immediate relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Father McSweeney of St. Frances de Sales Church.

James Moffitt, an uncle of the bride gave her into the keeping of the groom. Miss Alice Moffitt was maid-of-honor and the groom was attended by his brother, Athearn Folger.

The pretty bride was exquisitely gowned in heavy white silk made very simply. She carried a shower bouquet of Nephetos buds.

Miss Alice Moffitt was gowned in pink organdie and carried a loose cluster of La France roses.

The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion, pink was the prevailing color.

The ceremony was performed in an alcove of the parlor where amaryllis buds nodded against a background of green ferns. La France roses and pink sweet peas gave an exquisite fragrance to the air. The dining room, where a collation was served after the marriage service, was daintily decorated with La France roses.

Among the guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. James Moffitt, Misses Alice and Lucy Moffitt, Mrs. J. A. Folger, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. Snook, Athearn Folger, Dr. Herbert Moffitt, James Moffitt Jr., Miss Beatrice Russell and Miss Marguerite Joliffe.

Miss Lucy Moffitt wore a pretty gown of blue organdie and Miss Marguerite Joliffe was daintily clad in white organdie. Miss Russell wore a charming gown of dimity flowered with roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Folger will leave later on a wedding journey, its destination being kept a secret. On their return, they will reside in this city. Both are prominent and popular in society, here and across the bay. Mr. Folger is the youngest son of Mrs. J. A. Folger, and belongs to one of the wealthiest families in Oakland. The bride is also a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families on this side of the bay.

DEATH IN THE WRECK.

An Engineer Instantly Killed in a Collision at Sacramento.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 11.—At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, in the railroad yard at Marysville, an extra freight train bound for Sacramento crashed into a passenger train inbound for Oroville. Engineer Wm. Geary of the passenger train was killed. He leaves a widow and daughter in Sacramento.

It is said the freight train had no right in the yard at the time the accident occurred. No passengers were injured.

DROWNED IN THE ESTUARY.

There was a fatal accident aboard the British ship Yarana Monday afternoon, and as a result the body of William Stacey, an apprentice of the vessel, is believed to be crushed in the mud of the estuary beneath the Yarana's hull.

The ship arrived in port a month or six weeks ago and discharged a cargo of coal at the bunkers of the Oregon Improvement Company on the Adams wharf. After discharging she was towed over to the other side of the estuary to await a cargo of grain.

Monday the crew was put to work to paint the vessel's hull. A staging was rigged at the stern and a guy rope was attached to draw the staging close under the stern.

While five of the crew were at work Monday afternoon the guy rope broke, the staging swung out and all five were thrown into the water of the estuary.

Four of them swam around till a boat could be lowered and they were picked up but Stacey never rose.

All day yesterday and today the estuary has been dragged, but no trace of the missing body has been found.

The theory is that Stacey struck his head in falling and lodged under the vessel. When the tide went out the vessel settled into the mud driving the body with it. If such is the case it may be some time before it is recovered.

Stacey was a native of Dublin and shipped from Liverpool.

SPANISH ANARCHISTS SHOUT IN FRANCE.

A Refugee Urged That Canovas Be Put Out of the Way.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PARIS, Aug. 11.—A warrant has been issued for the expulsion from France of Tarrida Marmol, the Spanish anarchist, who in a speech which he made on Sunday at a special performance given at the Theater de La Republique in aid of the Spanish refugees in Paris, urged that Senor Canovas del Castillo, the Spanish Premier should be assassinated.

Marmol, who was formerly a prisoner in the Fortress of Montjuice at Barcelona is believed to have started for England yesterday. The French authorities have resolved to expel a number of other anarchists from France.

MOTHER AND SONS BURNED TO DEATH.

Her Husband Ran Out and Could Not Get Back Into the Building

It Is Feared the Fearful Shock Will Rob Him of His Reason.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ARLINGTON, Or., Aug. 11.—The dwelling house of C. A. Shurte burned about midnight and Mrs. Shurte and her two sons perished.

They were overcome by smoke, and when taken out all were dead.

Shurte was awakened by fire in the sitting room, just below his bedroom, and ran down stairs immediately.

He found the flames spreading so rapidly as to cut off his return to the upper story. Heroic efforts were made to save his wife and children, but to no purpose.

Miss France, who was sleeping in the second story, jumped from a window and escaped.

There is great fear that Shurte will lose his reason. It is not known how the fire started.

A NOTED MAN DEAD.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 11.—James Crawford Embry, Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in South Carolina, died today.

During a recent visit to his district in the South he contracted a severe attack of malaria. He returned home, but grew rapidly worse.

Bishop Embry was born in Knox County, Indiana, November 2, 1834. From 1862 until the fall of Vicksburg he served on a supply boat carrying provisions for the army under General Grant. In August 1863, he entered the ministry and in 1876 was elected by the General Conference, Secretary of Education. In 1878 he was appointed secretary of finance and Treasurer of the church fund. He came to this city in 1884 and in May last was elected Bishop of the South Carolina District.

TRUE MERIT.

Successful Sale of Clothing at the Novelty.

Last week Chas. J. Heeseman, the genial proprietor of the Novelty Clothing Store at Broadway and Eleventh street, finding himself overstocked, having bought very heavily of fall goods previous to the passage of the Dingley bill, concluded to unload to make room for new goods arriving daily from Eastern fashion centers. He started a big sacrifice sale, the reductions throughout his stock being big and genuine. He announced this fact in the Tribune. The result was a crowded store filled with delighted bargain seekers, proving conclusively that a genuine reduction sale of first class seasonable goods, properly advertised, always proves successful. This intelligent community know genuine bargains when they are offered to them by a legitimate concern like the Novelty—hence the phenomenal success of their present great sale now running at full blast. The Novelty is the best clothing store in all Oakland to get a square up and up honest 100 cents' worth of merchandise for every dollar.

Chicago Markets.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—September wheat advanced 3 cents today and closed strong at 81½, the highest point touched by September wheat since 1891. Fifty-seven cents was the ruling price one year ago today.

The opening strength in the foreign markets started a scare among shorts, and their covering operations were carried out on an extensive scale throughout the session. Foreigners accepted freely of cash offers at 5 and 10 cents premium over Saturday. They were credited with selling distant futures, and some evidence of this may be found in the fact that the December premium entirely disappeared today.

Crop news from the Northwest and the decline in condition shown by the Government crop report were the chief factors which combined to stir up the shorts.

ARRESTED A MAN AND LET HIM CO.

Now a District Attorney and a Sheriff Are in Trouble.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Jacob N. Sampson, a former assistant District Attorney of Lenawee county, Mich., who was indicted in this county for allowing a prisoner to escape, was arraigned before Judge Fitzgerald in the Court of General Sessions today.

Sampson and Sheriff Ferguson of the same county, came to this city some months ago to get an embezzler named Anton Christiansen, but let him go. For this the two men were indicted.

Ferguson went back to Michigan and Governor Pingree refused to give him up to the New York authorities. Sampson was arrested and gave bail. Today his case was placed on the September calendar.

Will Supply Armor.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The Union Iron Works of San Francisco has telegraphed the Navy Department asking permission to supply the armor for the battleship Wisconsin which they are building just as the Cramps have done in the case of the Alabama.

In reply the firm has been notified that the department will enter into a correspondence with them on the subject. The offer will be accepted if it is made on the same terms of Cramps offer.

Her Pocket Picked.

Mrs. Fisher C. Worley of Colusa county, who is visiting at 548 William street, has reported to the police that her pocket was picked on either Broadway or Washington street yesterday afternoon.

The lady was out shopping, and went to several stores. When she was ready to return to her home, she found that she was minus a purse containing a diamond ring, a tortoise ring, a silver pin, $5 in gold and several dollars in silver.

CLEVELAND THE TOOL OF PLUTOCRACY.

So Declared Before Virginia's State Democratic Convention.

HOT SHOT FOR DINGLEY'S BILL.

It Is Called "Deep Damnation" Which Is Loudly Cheered.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ROANOKE, Va., Aug. 11.—The Democratic State Convention was called to order at noon today. The duty of calling the convention to order devolved upon General George J. Hundley as chairman. Hon. J. Taylor Ellison is a candidate for Governor. Nearly all of the 1,548 delegates were present.

The platform will hardly be submitted today. Its declaration on free silver and other Chicago planks will be unequivocal. A most determined fight will take place over the proposition to adopt a plan for nominating United States Senators by primary. Developments indicate that the most conspicuous party leaders in the State will antagonize it. The best informed leaders predict the defeat of the primary idea.

G. D. Letcher of Lexington, the temporary chairman of the convention, was introduced by General Hundley as the representative of the "Young Democracy" of Virginia. Every reference by the temporary chairman to Bryan and the Chicago platform was heartily cheered.

The speaker made a vigorous and earnest defense of the Chicago platform, especially the planks favoring a Federal income tax and denouncing government by injunction. His arraignment of the "deep damnation" of the Dingley tariff law was received with cheers.

With reference to the plank in the Chicago platform touching the interference of the Federal Government with local affairs, the temporary chairman said this was intended for President Cleveland. If he sent troops to Chicago without the request of the Illinois Governor and simply used the interference with the mails as an excuse, then it applied to him.

"But it is my opinion," said Mr. Letcher, "that Cleveland was the tool of plutocracy in this as in other things, and that the movement of the mails was simply an excuse for the use of troops."

The indications today are that the ticket will be: Tyler for Governor, Edward E. Chois of Staunton for Lieutenant Governor, and for Attorney General either ex-United States Attorney Montague of Danville or ex-United States District Attorney F. R. Lassiter of Petersburg.

At 1 o'clock the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.

THE BRIDGE AT WEBSTER STREET.

There was an informal conference this morning in the District Attorney's office between Mr. Snook and the Board of Supervisors, all the members of which were present.

It was called to determine what steps should be taken to secure plans for the proposed bridge over the harbor at Webster street.

A general discussion took place, but the meeting ended without any conclusion having been arrived at.

Hides Dutiable.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Assistant Secretary Howell has decided that hides of American cattle slaughtered abroad are dutiable on being returned to the United States at the rate of 15 per cent ad valorem, under section 437 of the new tariff.

It is held that taking the hides from cattle, salting and drying them, materially changes and improves their condition as an article of commerce so that the article imported is entirely different from that exported.

Insane From Infancy.

Emma Wildey was taken to the Receiving Hospital this morning violently insane. The woman is a spinster, 30 years of age, and has recently been residing with Mrs. Flood at Fourteenth and West streets. She has been insane ever since she was 7 years of age, and although the physicians warned her relatives that she might become dangerous at any moment, she showed no violent symptoms until a day or two ago, when she attempted to choke Mrs. Flood.

After this frenzy, she was taken to the Gospel Healing Home to be treated, and as she showed no signs of being cured, she was removed to the Receiving Hospital this morning.

A Clerical Error.

County Assessor Dalton received a note this morning apprising him of the fact that the State Board of Equalization had not been able to determine whether certain omissions in the returns made by him to that body were to be charged to personal or real property. He has forwarded a reply setting forth that they comprised both, and that an amended roll would be forwarded to the Board. The omissions are the result of a clerical error.

THURSDAY.....AUGUST 12, 1897.

Chilcoot is an appropriate name for the icy Alaska pass. Everything seems to have a chill connected with it up there.

Co-education is growing. There are 598 female students enrolled at Berkeley this term, the pupils being gathered from all parts of the State.

They are so patriotic at Auburn that even the children there are generally born with Auburn hair, judging by the congratulatory notices in the News of that city.

What a fine opportunity for confidence operators to sell gold bricks from Alaska. With a confederate disguised as a gulleless Chilcoot Indian, the game ought to be an easy one just now.

The Czar of Russia is said to draw a salary of $2,500,000. As he already owns the whole country, it seems useless to be on the pay-roll, for it savors of taking the money from one pocket and putting it in the other.

The Colusa Sun tells its readers how Mr. Vance gives daily entertainment to the guests of Cook Springs by teaching his daughter how to swim. Mr. Vance must be a very poor instructor, otherwise the entertainment would very quickly play out.

Our last opportunity to get the Willmording school has gone. Despite the earnest and well-timed plea of Regent Martin to locate it on this side of the bay, decisive action has been taken, the Regents having selected the Potrero in San Francisco as a site.

Joaquin Miller's Mazatlan sausage is evidently not what he cracked it up to be. The dispatches from the north state that he played out almost in the first lap and had to hire somebody to carry the pack that he had figured he was going to haul on his back to Condyke.

Few will believe it, but it is a fact nevertheless, that a public drinking fountain is being constructed at Louisville, Kentucky. It is to be charged with real water, too, so it looks as if all the traditions and sentiments of the once famous State are being swept away by one one of the whirlwinds of temperance.

Senator McEnerney of Louisiana can well afford to laugh at the Democratic Southern papers that are roasting him for having voted for the tariff bill. The wages of the sugar operators in the State have already been advanced 15 per cent since the passage of the protective measure.

The Alaskan rush has resulted in big orders for almost every California industry. Thousands of sacks of flour have been demanded and the woolen mills are all running at top pressure. In addition to this, all the dry goods and supply stores are doing a big business in furnishing the special outfits required for the north.

We won't have occasion to ship much of our good American gold to Europe this year to pay drafts contracted by us on the other side. Items like the one that recently appeared in the dispatches to the effect that forty steamers were chartered in New York in a single day to carry American wheat to foreign ports mean the turning of the tide in our direction.

The man who stays out all night at Clondyke in the winter time has plenty of opportunity to see the town. On December 21st the day is but three hours and thirty-four minutes in length the sun rising at 10:07 A. M. and setting at 1:41 P. M. By the way, those who are making agreements to work by the day in the mining season had better be a little careful. In June the day is over twenty hours long.

If it be true that Andree's balloon has been seen floating in the Northern Seas then indeed is all hope gone for the professor and his two daring companions. When it was learned that he had started without drag-ropes other aeronauts called attention to the extreme danger thus entailed, for it meant additional hazards in attempting to effect a landing. But where are the pigeons? They surely could have flown safely away.

The State Lunacy Commission has issued an order that will be generally endorsed. It instructs superintendents of State hospitals that they must adhere strictly to the law which provides that State institutions must give preference to goods manufactured or produced in this State when contracting for or purchasing other property. This means the encouragement of home industry and will be another check on the indiscriminate purchase of foreign goods that unfortunately prevails to a large extent in California.

THE VISITING TYPOS.

Oakland extends a hearty welcome to the delegates to the Typographical Convention. The Union includes as fine a set of men as belong to any other labor organization in the country, and that they are above the average in intelligence is proved by the nature of the work they do, and the satisfactory manner in which they accomplish it.

The Typographical Union has for many years past been one of the most powerful unions in the world. It has had the good fortune to be officered by energetic, capable men and as the members of the craft are always loyal to its principles and to one another, they have been able to accomplish practically everything they have started out to do. The system as arranged in the national rules is a perfect one, and there are never any of those internal dissensions that mar the effective work of other trade organizations.

There are many who have an idea that since the introduction of the linotype, the Printers' Union has been tottering. Such is not the case. It is as strong as it ever was, for the operatives of the machines are all members of the Union, and are sure to stick to it for they know it means the protection of their calling. Furthermore, the printers are by no means dependent on the newspapers, for there are innumerable job offices all over the country in which there is a steady demand for good men. The Union, too, prides itself and justly so, on the efficiency of its members. No one can get a card until he has served a long and arduous apprenticeship, during which he is initiated into every branch of the business. When a Union man presents himself for employment, therefore, the latter always knows that if the applicant is closed he is getting a man thoroughly competent to perform all his duties.

Oaklanders will do well to entertain the delegates royally. Their homes are in all parts of the State, and as they have been chosen to represent bodies of intelligent men, it stands to reason they are pre-eminently worthy of consideration. Their newspaper training has made them close observers and good judges of their surroundings, and we want them when they return to their homes to be able to say words of praise for our town and to commend the hospitality and enterprise of our citizens.

PROOFS OF PROSPERITY.

No one can now question the fact that prosperity is fast returning to the country. There are indications on every side, and convincing proof is being daily added by the releases of mortgages and the turning of money into channels that have long been dry. In order to make sure that the improvement in business is not sporadic "The Chicago Grocer," the leading journal in its line, recently sent circular letters all over the country asking for comparisons of business between this year and last and also for comments on the general situation.

The replies show that nearly 50 per cent have an increase in the volume of business for the first half of 1897, as compared with the first half of 1896. Thirty per cent report business about the same and 20 per cent show a decrease. In the West 70 per cent give an increase, 15 per cent no change and 15 per cent a decrease. Seventy per cent of the entire country say that they recognize signs of decided improvement, which is, of course, the most encouraging deduction obtained from the reports. The calamity howlers will therefore have to cease their wails, for the accumulation of business is one of the best indications possible of the restoration of confidence and the circulation of money.

The Ventura Press discourages the intending Cloudykers of its town as follows: "Even the chill snows of the Chilcoot Pass do not cool the brow of the man stricken with Clondyke fever when he hears of them at this distance. However, it may be different when he sinks twelve or fifteen feet into a snowdrift and is hauled out to clasp hands with the icy chill of a wind from the glaciers with a temperature of 70 or 80 degrees below zero."

It has at last been discovered why champion pugilists are such windy talkers. A deaf mute in Iowa in a boxing match received a violent blow on the ear and instantly obtained his hearing, and the power of speech. Now, if being struck on the ear will give a dumb man speech, what must be the effect on those who are already able to talk?

The Visalia Times bursts forth into eulogy as follows: "Visalia has a history. It has a reputation. It is known as the center of an exceedingly rich district. It is known as a producer of fine fruits." We can justly add to the list sentence—"and bandits." Evans and Sontag have not yet passed out of history.

The Schofield tragedy is giving the detective reporters all other fine opportunity to use their wits. The Pacific Coast is remarkably prolific in mysterious murders and the papers don't fail to make lots of capital out of them.

Famine has stationed itself this side of the Chilcoot, and is already waving its bony finger at the gold-crazed treasure hunters and warning them to turn back. The more sensible are, it is pleasing to see, taking the advice.

A gentleman named W. Cooler has just started a paper at San Jacinto and calls it The Sun. He is evidently going to number its days in case they shine too warmly where they are not wanted.

Bryan is going to Mexico. As the silver dollar is only worth 43 cents there, he will have a hard time trying to convince the natives that it is the natural medium of the country.

WHEN WOMAN VOTES.

Hush, my babe, lie still and slumber,
Father's watching at thy bed,
Mother's off election'ring
With a halo round her head.
Soft and easy'll be her cradle
When she's at the Nation's head,
While with kitchen work I wrestle,
Coarse and hard is father's bed.
Hush, my dear, thy food and raiment,
House and home they all provides;
She's a stunner, baby darling;
Gracefully her bike she rides
Hush, my babe, lie still and slumber,
Father wants to go to bed;
Mother won't be home till morning,
Going to make a speech, she said.
So we'll lay us down and slumber,
Slumber sweet till morning breaks,
Father then must be thumping,
Mother wants hot griddle cakes.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

A short puffed sleeve, frills of lace or embroidery are now seen in the long time sleeveless corset cover. The necks are more often cut square than round and finished with bands of needlework and rows of insertion.

The Spanish flounce is a favorite mode for trimming the dress skirt, as well as the silk petticoat. On the latter it forms a foundation for an elaborate garniture and is enhanced by rows of black or shaded velvets set on in clusters of threes and fives, leaving the intervening spaces the depth of the ribbon groups. The flounce is headed with lace or silk quillings.

Women who have discarded kid gloves for the sultry season and still have a tender regard for the whiteness of their hands are wearing silk gloves and silk mitts in black and shades of gray.

A pretty conceit is a new sash of black moire ribbon finished along the ends and lengthwise edges with a double ruffle of black and white lace, the black over the white.

A veil of white tulle almost invisible protects the summer girl's hair from the July breezes encountered on the cable cars.

White parasols are undergoing a midsummer freshening, which is effected by colored coverings of silk tissue. The length required is twice that of the distance around the outside rim of the parasol, shirred close and gathered full in the center. A fluted ruffle of ribbon corresponding in color with the tissue, or double frills of the tissue, make a graceful finish.

A Kansas City woman who owns a handsome cream lace bolero lines it with cloth of gold when she wears it with a black grenadine gown. When her dress is to be something light and fleecy for evening wear, that same bolero is faced over delicate green, pink or lavender with ribbons to match.

The tailor made gown of the fall season is to be of black and white check. In its simplicity of finish and perfection of fit it is all that its name implies. The close jacket, remarkably long waisted, is fastened with inconspicuous buttons. A medium turn down collar rests over the high linen collar and black satin tie. The sleeves are made on the bias of the check, almost molded to the arm with a "held in" fullness at the shoulder, but no visible gathers or pleats. The style is one particularly becoming to a good form.

Monogram fans are engaging the attention of young collegians home for vacation. The fan itself is of paper, in delicate tones, and its decorative feature is the array of monograms cut from letter heads. Many of these are in gold, silver, shades of purple and glowing reds. The letters are cut out, leaving as little of the surrounding paper as possible, the larger ranged in the upper half circle of the fan, where the blades are widest. After the surface is well filled, the fan is enhanced by a coat of transparent picture varnish. As the monograms are those of school friends, the fan becomes, in time, a memory album of special interest.

PEOPLE AND THINGS.

Near Elgin, Oregon, is a young woman who daily hauls to town a load of ties and unloads them herself.

There is a 15-year-old widow at Covington, Ky. The girl was married a year ago to a 19-year-old boy, all the parents consenting. Her husband died a few days ago.

At Shelbyville, Ind., a constable who attempted to eject a woman in default for rent was chased from the premises by the irate female, who threw boiling water at him. The constable was badly crippled with rheumatism, and his rheumatism has left him.

After the three Cornell victories a professor of that institution noticed a tipsy freshman in a horse car. "Been on a drunk?" he inquired. A gleam of fellowship sparkled in the eye of the freshman as he replied, after giving the college yell: "So have I."

In Cowley, Sumner, and other counties in Kansas girls and young women are hiring themselves as regular farm hands. They get $2 and $3 a day, and they run the binders and drive the teams, though managing the heavy sheaves is yet rather difficult. It is said that women stand the heat better than men.

General G. W. Eustis Lee has presented to the Lee-Jackson camp of Confederate Veterans of Lexington a lantern used by his father, General Robert E. Lee, in his tent during the civil war. The lantern is large and substantial, the metal work being of brass, and it is in a good state of preservation. A candle was used to furnish light.

Governor Bradley of Kentucky, who, on his recent outing trip in the woods, shaved off his beard, was called back home before he had time to change his old camp clothes, and his office boy, who had always seen him with neat clothes and long beard, refused to let him in. It was several minutes before he could gain admission to his own office.

Miss Agnes Weston, known in England as "the mother of the British bluejackets," has done more for the uplifting of the English sailor than any other woman. She has established many "rests," and during the thirty years of her labor has done much for the cause of temperance among the tars. Her temperance magazine, Ashore and Afloat, has met with such flattering success that the United States authorities have especially requested her to mail the magazines to American warships.

The poet Rogers was afflicted with a cadaverous countenance, which, with all his intellectual power, was a mortification to him. To hide his annoyance he joked about his ugliness incessantly. He once turned to Sidney Smith, who was dining with him, and said: "Chantrey wants to perpetuate this miserable face of mine. What pose would you suggest that I should take?" "If you really wish to spare the world as much as possible," said the wit, "I would, if I were you, be taken at my prayers—my face buried in my hands."

Cora—College men seem very much inclined to take life easy.

Berkeley Improvement Clubs Will Look After the Water Supply.

TROUBLE IN SECURING BOOKS.

The Grammar School Pupils Must Now Wait Awhile.

THEY WERE WED ON THE SLY.

An Alameda Couple Who Joined Hands, But Kept Quiet.

BERKELEY, Aug. 12.—The North and South Berkeley Improvement Clubs have decided to see what can be done to overcome the threatened water famine. The North End Club has appointed a committee to investigate the advisability of sinking artesian wells. The South End Club listened to a lengthy communication from the Contra Costa Company in reply to their protest against the service, in which the company explained the causes of the poor supply. A return communication was ordered to be sent to the company asking for information as to the hours the supply is decreased, in order to give consumers a chance to make provision against a shortage.

The recorder at the State University estimates that the incoming class will number 500 if not more. There is a larger proportion of co-eds than ever before.

Lieutenant Sidney A. Cloman, the new commandant at the University of California, will be a strong friend of the college athletes. A number of students have already interviewed him and are overjoyed at the prospects for closing the old breach between the military department and the athletes, backed by the student body.

The most important step which has been taken in this direction is the changing of the drill hour. The announcement of courses says that drill will be held on Monday and Wednesday mornings at 11:15 o'clock, instead of Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3:45 o'clock. This leaves the football men, track athletes and baseballers free in the afternoon.

Professor E. W. Hilgard of the Agricultural College of the State University has received word from the United States Civil Service Commission that in view of the fact that no eligibles resulted from the examination which was held on July 28th to establish a register from which an appointment may be made to the position of assistant chief in the division of soils in the Department of Agriculture another examination will be held. The salary of the position is $1,800 per annum and only males are eligible.

The following reception committee for freshmen has been appointed by the College Young Men's Christian Association. Reno H. Hutchinson, Charles Pierce, F. R. Fairchild, E. C. Swan, L. H. Earle, G. A. Masse, F. R. Watson, Harry Waste, Carl Varner, A. Thayer, W. H. Spaulding, V. P. Drum, Harold Bradley, H. Davis, Noel H. Garrison, M. L. McCullough, A. C. Olney, C. W. Peck, L. S. Gear, James P. Grant, Daniel R. Curtis, Philip S. Cummings, Thomas Elston, James I. Graham, William A. Harkley, R. E. Hooper, J. Kennedy, R. B. Lloyd, L. Muer, R. Belcher and Melville Dozier.

More trouble has arisen in the Berkeley school department. The new books ordered by the Board of Education last week are not to be had. There are no copies in California and it will take some weeks to get them. Over 100 students have been unable to secure the new books and as a result the classes cannot go ahead.

Work has commenced on the new botanical building at the State University. It is situated between the Bacon Library and Strawberry Creek and will cost $6,200. The elevation is plain and simple, following in its main details the Greek style of architecture. The interior is arranged with a view to light and room. On the first floor will be two private laboratories and offices to be used by Professors Setchell and Osterhout. The remainder of the floor will be devoted to the general laboratory. On the second floor will be situated the herbarium and laboratories. The third floor will be used as a mounting department. The building is to be completed in November.

There will be a business and social meeting of the members of Oak Chapel Christian Endeavor Society at the residence of Mrs. O. J. Backus in Linda Vista Terrace, Friday night at 7:45 o'clock.

The management of Blair Park has a big vaudeville bill for next Sunday afternoon. Among the specialties will be Adgie the lion tamer and her den of lions.

Ed. Larkin will go to Calavaras on a camping trip with a party of friends.

Mr. Hawley is expected to return shortly from a camping trip to Trinity county.

Mrs. Catten and family have moved from their home in the Weston Tract to Berkeley.

SOMETHING ABOUT CHINS.

The chin, taken in connection with the rest of the face, is almost as good an index of character, as is the thumb. Slovens have wrinkles around their chins.

Drunkards usually have a circular line about their chins.

Square chins, with little flesh, denote firmness and good executive ability. The owners make good haters.

Broad chins signify nobleness and large dignity, unless vertically thin; when if thin, bloodless lips go with them, you will find cruelty.

Owners of long, thin chins are poetical, unstable and delicate in constitution.

Medium chins, with a suggestive bifurcation in the center on the order of a dimple, with small mounds of flesh on either side, characterize generosity, impulsiveness and a cheery nature. The same size chins, with a dab of flesh under the center of the lower lip, indicate meanness, selfishness and brutality.

A small, well rounded chin indicates a pleasure loving nature, and if dimpled, all the more so, for dimpled chins belong to coquettes. People with dimples love to be petted and liked and are fond of admiration and praise. They are generally fickle. Usually the owner of this chin is healthy, recuperative and long-lived.

A retreating chin shows lack of force—mentally, morally and physically; the owner is of the yielding kind, soon discouraged, needs protection and has small executive force. The development of other faculties usually make up for this lack.

Protruding chins characterize men and women of the get-there type. Successful people usually carry their chins thrust forward, with compressed lips. If this style of chin is heavy and swelling it denotes fighting blood.

THE DISGUISE.

Sweet Cupid sat on a mossy bank
With a tear in his round blue eye,
His wings were draggled with silver dew
And his quiver and bow flung by.
The butterflies came from the garden near
And perched on his dimpled toes,
And a honeybee sipped at his crimson lip
And thought it an opening rose.

"Not an arrow went to its mark today,
I wasted them all" he sighed.
"My wings and my curls too well they know,
So the men and the maidens hide.
My mother must clip my pinions close,
And must braid my locks of gold,
And I'll borrow the frock of a damsel fair
My roseate limbs to fold."

So now no more in the flowery field
Or the wood where the thrushes sing
Do we hear the patter of naked feet,
Or the sweep of an airy wing.
He has stolen the gown of a pretty girl,
And her hat with its drooping plume,
And a cluster of velvety violets blue
From his breast to shed perfume.

He has donned her veil with its broidered edge,
And her gloves of the palest gray,
And hides his brow in her fluffy fan
Before he goes out to play.
He has clipped his wings and braided his curls,
But beware of his roguish eyes,
For sly little Cupid is still the same
In spite of his new disguise.

PROFESSIONAL MEN SET ASIDE.

A Business Man Will Go to St. Petersburg From This Country.

The Choice Falls Upon Ethan Hitchcock of St. Louis.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12.—A special to the Globe Democrat from Washington says:

Ethan Allen Hitchcock of St. Louis, has accepted the Russian mission. He was, in no sense, a candidate. His name was not suggested to the President by anybody. The first mention of Mr. Hitchcock in connection with the appointment came from the President. When the offer was first made, Mr. Hitchcock was disinclined to accept. He was spending the summer in New Hampshire. Before finally deciding, Mr. Hitchcock communicated with the President at Lake Champlain. He soon learned that the tender had not been intended as a compliment, but because the President had a view the need of special qualifications for the post and felt that his St. Louis friend possessed them.

After full exchange of views with the President, Mr. Hitchcock decided to accept. Information to this effect reached Washington today. Mr. Hitchcock started on Monday for St. Louis to put his affairs in order to go to St. Petersburg. It may be several weeks before he is ready to quality and sail.

A close friendship between the President and Mr. Hitchcock has existed for many years. As one of the pioneer plate glass manufacturers of this country, Mr. Hitchcock has been in Washington a great deal during tariff legislation. These visits promoted the friendship Mr. Hitchcock has been a highly successful business man. For various reasons the President has desired that the new minister to St. Petersburg should be a business man. He ruled out of consideration several lawyers and professional men whose names were presented to him, explaining the qualifications the next minister must possess.

A month ago he confided to those nearest to him his intention too appoint Mr. Hitchcock, if he would accept, because of business ability.

Mr. Hitchcock takes the place of Clayton R. Breckenridge of Arkansas.

MINING ENGINEERING.

An Important Branch Added to the Course in Heald's College.

Heald's Business College of San Francisco, than which no similar institution in the United States ranks higher, has in characteristic fashion, just added to its many practical advantages a department of civil and mining engineering, including the study of geology, mineralogy, blow-pipe analysis, economic geology, surveying, milling and mining, chemistry and assaying. The recent unusual interest taken in mining throughout the coast has at once created a demand at the hands of young and ambitious men and women for a source of knowledge in the direction that both rapidly and effectually fits them to more intelligently handle the natural advantages from which their future must be shaped.

This department is placed in the efficient hands of A. H. Packer, for years in the employ of the government in these respective branches of science and one who has had a broad practical experience in nearly every State in the United States and Canada.

This course will require from six months to a year's study, depending upon the aptitude of the student for its completion and its value when acquired must be apparent to all. The Healds Business College has the most complete curriculum of any business college in the world, and has the honor of having graduated many of the most successful business men of the State.

All the Street Car Lines Have Their Figures Lowered.

A BUSY BOARD SESSION.

City Equalizers Adjust the Assessor's Various Estimates.

The second meeting of the Board of Equalization was not so long as the meeting of Monday evening, and there was not so much talking done. One weary soul went to see whatever fun might occur, and when the meeting was over he was found by nightwatchman Holland stretched out at full length upon one of the back benches, fast asleep. Still, there were several exciting scenes.

The Board met shortly after 8 o'clock last evening.

The Clerk said that the first thing in order would be the selection of a temporary chairman, and Mr. Rowe, seconded by Mr. Girard, nominated Mr. Heitmann for the position. There being no other nomination, Mr. Heitmann took the chair and called the meeting to order.

Clerk Tompkins then stated that he had received the subsequent assessment roll, which contained the assessments of the annexed district, from the City Assessor, and he was directed to advertise the fact and also to advertise the fact that the Board would not meet later than 12 o'clock midnight on August 18th.

The first business considered was the application of Leopold Lasar for a reduction of the assessment of his lot, 50x100 feet, on Delger street and Telegraph avenue. The lot was assessed at $2,000 and the improvements at $1,000.

Lasar claimed that the lot and improvements should not have been assessed for more than $2,000, and he asked for a reduction of $1,000. He said the building was a very old one, having been built twenty-five years ago.

On motion of Mr. Fibush, the assessment of the lot was allowed to remain at $2,000, but the assessment of the improvements was cut to $500.

The application of the East Oakland Street Railway Company was then taken up.

The first item was the assessment of the line from Eighth and Broadway, over Fifth avenue, East Eighteenth street, Fourteenth avenue, East Twenty-first street, to the eastern boundary of the city. The application was for a reduction from $16,875 to $9,977.

Mr. Cuvellier said he would like to ask Mr. Vandercook of the line some further questions.

"How many years," asked he, "has the road been in operation?"

"The greater portion of it since November, 1892," answered Mr. Vandercook.

"Does it, or has it ever paid expenses?" was asked.

"Never," was the answer.

"Then it has been losing right along?"

"Yes, sir."

"When you built the road was it at a time when electric roads first came into general use in this city, and dynamos, machinery, etc., were of more value than at present?"

"It was."

"Do you consider that the machinery and the road in general has deteriorated to the extent that you have asked for reduction?"

"I do; you could not sell the machinery at the figures to which we wish the assessment reduced."

"Do you think your creditors would take the road off your hands at the price to which you desire the assessments reduced?"

"That would be a difficult question to answer. We have been unable to sell the road, although we have striven to do so. Nobody wishes to buy at the present time. The mortgage on the road may be foreclosed Monday. An application similar to the one before you was presented to the County Board of Equalization, and the reductions asked for were granted after the matter had been thoroughly discussed."

"How does the Assessor arrive at a valuation of the property?"

"As I understood Mr. Dalton at the session of the County Board when the question was asked of him, he had in mind the original cost of the road, and he figured what he considered a liberal cost. That applied to the road. He was asked what method he used in regard to the franchises, and he was forced to admit that there was a great deal of guess work.

"The original issue of bonds was for $250,000, of which $90,000 went for the work of building the road."

"What price do you hold the road at?"

"We have tried to sell, but we have never set the figures. Like every one else, we want as much as we can get for the road."

Then Mr. Vandercook spoke of the feeling prevalent against corporations.

"I am here this evening," said he, "not so much as a representative of the road as an individual who believes that one of the best inducements we as a city could offer to those having capital to invest would be to lend a helping hand to struggling corporations. Capitalists will not build when they know they are going to be fought at the very outset. There are a number of corporations in the city today that have never made any money, but they are struggling along and have to borrow money on which to exist. You can never have a flourishing city when a corporation has to borrow money to pay its taxes.

"A friend of mine, an Eastern capitalist, some years ago bought a piece of land on the water front with the intention of building a manufactory. He was here lately and said that he would like to build, but he was actually afraid, owing to the feeling that exists in this city against corporations. On that account, Oakland has a bad name in the East."

Mr. Henneberry then moved that the application of the company be granted.

Mr. Rowe said he sympathized with the corporations or individuals that made investments which did not pay. He said he even sympathized with himself, for he had made an investment in real estate that was really a burden to him. Probably two-thirds of the citizens of the city were in the same boat. It was to be regretted. It was to be regretted that the country was not in such a flourishing condition that everybody was making money. But he believed that the Council could not allow that sympathy to bias its decision. There was a duty to perform. It was not a question of what property would be worth in the future nor of what it would bring under the hammer. It was a question of what the property was actually worth. He thought they should all bear their share of the burden till the hard times had passed.

"I would like to ask Mr. Snow," said Mr. Cuvellier, "on what basis we should go in establishing these valuations. Is it on what it is worth on the first Monday in March, or on what it will be worth in the future. I ask you, sir (addressing Mr. Snow), because I know you have had experience, that you are a fair minded man and that you are a competent official."

"You should ask the City Attorney that question," said Mr. Snow. "It is purely a question of law, but I think the City Attorney will bear me out when I say that the Assessor is directed to assess property at its full cash value."

City Attorney Dow then quoted the statute relating to assessing property at its full cash value.

MR. SNOW TALKS.

Mr. Snow then spoke of the manner in which Assessor Dalton had arrived at the valuation of the line. Taking as an example the poles, he said, since the basis for assessment should be the cost of any item, that the Assessor had probably counted the poles and found that there were 110 to the mile. Multiplying this by the cost of the poles, which was about $17, the cost arrived at would be about $1,870 a mile.

"You might cut that one-half," said he, "but see what it would leave you. Every item should be determined in this way.

"I am here under the law, gentlemen, to defend the Assessor's figures. These gentlemen have a right—every property owner has a right—to protest against the Assessor's figures, and it is for you to decide what is just and equitable, but when you come to attack the Assessor it is another matter. The law lays down certain rules and the Assessor is bound under it.

"You gentlemen are not here simply to hear applications for reductions. You are equalizers.

"When you reduce one man's assessment, you should reduce his neighbor's if it is in a similar condition."

"The neighbor has the privilege to ask for a reduction, has he not?" asked Mr. Cuvellier.

"He certainly has," answered Mr. Snow, "but you have no right to reduce a man's assessment simply because he comes to you. You are equalizers, and when you reduce one assessment you should reduce all similar assessments."

Then Mr. Vandercook called attention to the fact that the East Oakland road was a public necessity, and if sold it would simply be worth what it would bring as old junk.

Mr. Cuvellier said that while he did not wish to relieve a corporation of its just burdens, still he did not feel like many people against corporations. The belief that corporations were the embodiment of all that was cruel, heartless and corrupt was in many instances erroneous, he said.

He then moved that the assessment be reduced from $16,875 to $13,000.

Mr. Fibush moved an amendment to $10,000, but there was no second.

Mr. Upton said that every one should be made to put his shoulder to the wheel and stand his share of the municipal burden.

Mr. Henneberry said that, from the sworn statement of Mr. Vandercook, and he believed Mr. Vandercook had spoken the truth, the company was not paying, and yet it was a great, almost an indispensible convenience to the public. He did not believe in taxing a man to drive him out of business.

The assessment was reduced to $13,000 by the following vote:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—8.

Noes—Fibush, Henneberry—2.

Absent—Pringle—1.

The second item was the reduction of the assessment on the Eighth avenue branch of the line from $2,000 to $1,600.

It was denied unanimously.

The third item was the Trestle Glen branch, on which the company wished a reduction from $5,725 to $3,240.

Mr. Cuvellier asked if the Trestle Glen branch was not the best paying portion of the road, and Mr. Vandercook answered that it was for four months of the year, but for the other eight months it did not pay expenses.

Mr. Henneberry moved that the application be granted, but Mr. Rowe offered as a substitute that the reduction be made to $4,000.

The amendment was carried, the only dissenting vote being that of Mr. Henneberry.

The application for a reduction from $2,350 to $1,220 on the branch from Harrison and Eighth to Twelfth and Broadway was denied.

"They ought to have had better sense than to build that line," said Mr. Cuvellier. "It was done probably to keep out other roads."

MORE REDUCTIONS.

Mr. Henneberry then moved that the franchise of the main line of the road be reduced from $15,000 to $5,000.

Mr. Upton said he believed the franchise to be worth more than the road itself, and he would therefore vote to sustain the objection.

The application for reduction was denied by the following vote:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—8.

Noes—Fibush, Henneberry—2.

Absent—Pringle—1.

On the second franchise, assessed at $5,000, the vote to sustain the Assessor's figures was similar to the vote on the first franchise.

On the Trestle Glen branch of the road, the vote to deny the application for reduction resulted:

Ayes—Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—7.

Noes—Brosnahan, Fibush, Henneberry—3.

Absent—Pringle—1.

Mr. Rowe moved that the assessment on the line from Broadway to Twelfth, to Harrison and Eighth streets, be reduced from $5,000 to $4,000. The motion was unanimously carried.

The reduction from $9,000 to $3,500 on the machinery was granted by the following vote:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Cuvellier, Earl, Fibush, Henneberry, Watkinson, Heitmann—7.

Noes—Girard, Rowe, Upton—3.

Absent—Pringle—1.

Mr. Girard moved that the application to reduce the assessment on cars from $9,000 to $5,000 be denied.

Mr. Henneberry moved that it be granted.

Mr. Fibush offered as a substitute that it be made $2,000. The substitute carried.

The application of the Oakland Consolidated Railway Company was then taken up, but Rod W. Church, representing the company, asked that it go over till Friday, as Mr. Gier was unavoidably absent.

Mr. Upton moved that when the Board adjourn it do so till Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

The motion was carried.

Then Mr. Brosnahan moved that the application of the Oakland Consolidated go over till Friday, and the motion was carried.

APPLICATIONS DENIED.

The next application was that of the Alameda, Oakland and Piedmont Road for a reduction from $45,460 to $20,491 on the line from the center of the Webster street bridge to Water street, to Broadway, to Sixth street, to Jefferson street, to Eleventh, street, to East Eleventh street, to Eighth avenue, to East Twelfth street, to Twenty-third avenue, to the eastern boundary of the city.

The application was denied, with Henneberry's the only dissenting vote.

On the first franchise, from $7,500 to $2,500, the application was denied, Fibush and Henneberry voting "no."

The second franchise remained assessed at $2,500, the application to reduce to $1,000 being denied.

The third franchise was, on motion of Mr. Earl, reduced from $5,000 to $20,000.

The application to reduce the assessment of the fourth franchise from $1,000 to $500 was unanimously denied.

HIGHLAND PARK.

Then the application of the Highland Park and Fruitvale Road, from East Eleventh street and Thirteenth avenue to the eastern boundary of the city, was taken up, the application being to reduce from $10,250 to $6,800.

Mr. Brosnahan moved that the application be granted, saying that the traffic was not sufficient to keep the motorman awake.

Mr. Cuvellier asked Mr. Rudolph of the road if it were not a fact that the residents along the road had made frequent complaint against the road occupying the entire street.

Mr. Rudolph answered that he would complain about Mr. Cuvellier's questions. He said he would answer anything having a bearing on the case. He wanted Mr. Cuvellier to confine himself to the question under discussion.

Mr. Cuvellier said the company had a very valuable franchise and Mr. Rudolph said it had a very valuable assessment.

In answer to Mr. Upton, Mr. Rudolph said there were between three and one-half and four miles of track. It was a very poorly constructed road, he said, and would have to be torn up and reconstructed before anything could be made of it.

On motion of Mr. Brosnahan the application was granted.

The assessment of the cars remained at $5,000, the application to reduce to $3,840 being denied.

When it came to the franchise of the road, on which a reduction from $5,000 to $40 was asked, Mr. Rowe moved that the application be denied.

Mr. Cuvellier asked Mr. Rudolph if it were not a fact that the company's double tracks on the road impeded traffic. He said the people living along the line would not object if the company would take up one track. They could construct turn-outs for the passing of cars.

"I don't think you know what you are talking about," said Mr. Rudolph. "There are no double tracks on the road."

The application for reduction was denied.

The application to reduce the Central avenue line, running from Twelfth and Broadway to Pine street, from $10,000 to $8,500, was next considered.

Mr. Snow said that, at the risk of having Mr. Rudolph sit down on him, he would like to ask that gentleman some questions. He wanted to know if it would not cost $6,000 a mile to construct the road, and he was answered in the affirmative.

Mr. Henneberry moved that the assessment be reduced to $1,000. The vote on the motion resulted:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Earl, Fibush, Henneberry, Heitmann—5.

Noes—Cuvellier, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Heitmann—5.

Absent—Pringle—1.

Mr. Fibush moved that the assessment be reduced to $12,500. There was no second.

Mr. Girard moved that it be reduced to $18,000.

Mr. Earl offered as a substitute that it be reduced to $16,000.

The vote on the substitute resulted:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Earl, Fibush, Henneberry, Watkinson—5.

Noes—Cuvellier, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Heitmann—5.

Absent—Pringle—1.

On the motion to reduce to $18,000 the vote was 10 to 2, Fibush and Henneberry voting "no."

On the Eighth street branch of the road the assessment was reduced from $4,750 to $4,000, and on the branch from Pine and Twelfth streets to the Sixteenth street depot the assessment was reduced from $2,325 to $2,000.

The assessment of the cars was reduced from $5,000 to $5,000.

The application to reduce the assessment on the franchise from $10,000 to $10 was denied as follows:

Ayes—Cuvellier, Earl Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—7.

Noes—Brosnahan, Fibush, Henneberry—3.

Absent—Pringle—1.

WATER FRONT LAND.

P. H. Fisher of the California Improvement Company asked that the assessment on fifty-five acres of land in Sessions' Basin be reduced from $8,750 to $40,000.

Mr. Fibush asked if the land was assessed to Carpentier, and he was answered in the affirmative.

"Is Carpenter the man who took our water front away from us and now lives in New York?" asked Mr. Girard.

"You will find the records down stairs," said Mr. Heitmann.

Mr. Snow explained that the water front land was worth $1,000 an acre and that it cost $1,000 an acre to reclaim it.

The application was denied.

The improvements on the land, which were assessed at $300, were reduced to $1, it being explained that they consisted of a lot of boat houses which belonged to boat clubs.

WATER COMPANIES.

The application of the Oakland Water Company for a reduction of the assessment of its franchise from $75,000 to $1, was the next subject considered.

Mr. Fibush moved that the assessment be reduced to $5,000.

Mr. Cuvellier asked Assessor Snow what he would have assessed the franchises at had it been left to him.

"The same charter that fixes my salary," said Mr. Snow, "says that I shall take the figures of the County Assessor. I am not trying to have my salary raised, but your question is an awkward one to answer. The public is so apt to misconstrue what one says that one does not feel like spending out his thoughts.

"Twenty years ago the railroad company or any corporation could have almost anything it desired. Now the pendulum has swung to the other side. Instead of rushing to grant a request of the corporations, the public now goes to the other extreme.

"The people sowed to the wind, and it is true that they are reaping a whirlwind.

"It takes a good deal of backbone to say a thing about a corporation, because of public opinion.

"Now that I have said so much without very much exhaustion I will go on. I believe that the franchises of the two water companies are of very small value, and if I were compelled to assess them I should put the assessments at the highest sum the companies would pay without any fuss."

"You would have to assess them at nothing, then," interrupted Mr. Brosnahan.

"That has not been my experience," said Mr. Snow. "I think if I were assessing the franchises of the companies I would place a valuation of $35,000 on the Contra Costa Company and $25,000 on the Oakland Company. I think the companies could stand that much. I make a discrimination because I understand that the Oakland Company has not availed itself of the privilege of going into East Oakland.

Then Judge Frick, attorney for the Oakland Company, asked that the matter go over till Friday, when he would be able to offer testimony as to the probable value of the franchise, and his request was granted.

The assessment of the Contra Costa Company also went over till Friday, to which evening the Board then adjourned.

RUSHING NORTHWARD

A Score of Oaklanders to Go to the Clondyke Next Saturday.

RETURN OF REV. DR. KUMMER.

A Description of the Indians Who Helped the Mexico's Passengers.

TALK OF DEAD MEN'S BONES.

Latest News From Vancouver Says Wait Till the Spring.

In spite of the fact the reliable correspondents of the newspapers are sending back reports which would indicate that there is little hope of reaching the Clondyke this winter, thousands of people are still flocking northward.

It is reported that there are millions of dollars worth of gold dust on the way from the placers to San Francisco, but it is not coming in such large quanities as at first, although this fact seems to have no depressing effect upon those who would get rich fast.

Rev. Dr. Kummer returned from the north yesterday. On his summer holiday to Alaska he met many miners en route and some of them had very remarkable outfits. One man had nothing but tea which he said he intended to exchange for other provisions; another had a valise full of brass watches which he intended to sell to the Indians and miners at a handsome price. He had paid $5 a piece for them and Dr. Kummer says he does not think there will be a rush for them.

Dr. Kummer, who visited Dr. Duncan, the English missionary at New Metlakakla. It was at this island that the wrecked passengers of the steamer Mexico recently landed and they would certainly be hospitably treated. Regarding this interesting place, Dr. Kummer says:

"The island is under the control of Dr. Duncan, an English missionary, who went into that country thirty years ago and established a mission among the Indians. At that time they were ferocious, and he had many narrow escapes, but now he has fully a thousand of them with him that have professed Christianity and live together like one great family.

"Originally the colony was at what is now called the island of Old Metlakaktla, which is under British control, but the doctor had trouble with the English church because he refused to use wine in the sacrament, claiming that the use of intoxicants was the greatest curse to the Indian and that he did not want to instill in the Indians under his care a taste for alcoholic liquors. As the home church did not see it that way, and when the doctor refused point blank to allow any liquor to be landed on his island, the property belonging to him and his followers was confiscated.

"He opened negotiations with the United States government and was granted permission to occupy the island of New Metlakakla. He was appointed a magistrate and practically governor of the island and runs it to suit himself. When he moved to his new home his Indians followed him and erected a village and a large cannery, which put up 70,000 packages of salmon last year.

"The doctor maintains his temperance doctrines and the use of liquor and tobacco is forbidden on the island. No one is allowed to land on the island without having signed a pledge that they will not handle or drink intoxicating liquors or use tobacco or permit it to be sold or handled on their premises.

"As a result these Indians, known as the Thecheans, are the finest specimens in Alaska, and are entirely self reliant in their manner of living.

The Yukon Exploiting and Trading Company of San Francisco have secured the fast steamer Navarro, which will leave San Francisco on August 17th and is due at St. Michaels on September 1st. Passengers will go up the Yukon on the light river steamer Thomas Dunyee and land at Dawson September 20th. The fare is $300 with 150 pounds of baggage.

The steamer North Fork sails for St. Michaels next Saturday and many people from this county have engaged passages. Among them are J. L. Marks, Jim White, George Williams, C. M. Lambert, A. H. Bunerle, M. A. Thomas and P. J. Nicholas from Oakland, A. M. Volmer, R. B. Mott, from Alameda, A. Jones from Haywards, and A. Mack and party of six from Livermore.

A dispatch from Victoria says:

"Advise any one who may be looking toward Clondyke to wait until spring." Such is the message received from O. H. Van Milligen, who left here some weeks ago with hundreds of other treasure seekers. His words of caution are seconded and indorsed by all who have reached the Dyea or Skaguay gateways to the upper Yukon and find themselves brought to a halt with their supplies with the present inadequate facilities for packing.

"The road from here to Dawson will be marked with dead men's bones," writes another prospective millionaire who perhaps takes a somewhat exaggerated view of the situation, but whose note of warning is nevertheless not to be disregarded. All arrivals, by both the Islander and the Topeka, which arrived here yesterday, agree that not one-half of those who have already reached Dyea or Skaguay will be able to get through to the Clondyke this year, and it will be madness for others to attempt the passage until spring unlocks the rivers again.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The Times of this morning publishes a letter from Senator Stewart, who says: "The most conspicuous fact in the financial situation is the fall in the price of silver. If congress had not undertaken to make it the basis of money it would not have fallen. It is the duty of congress to correct the evil that has been produced by its own action. The time will be hastened by the determination of the people to have prosperity which is not only important in the street but that which is felt when asked what has brought about the change in this respect."

TYPOS MEET FOR WORK

The Annual Convention Opens in the City Council Chambers.

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

For Three Days the Delegates Will Continue In Session.

GRAND BALL FOR TONIGHT

Tomorrow Evening the Guests Will Be Royally Feasted.

The California State Typographical Union, No. 6, met in its seventh annual convention this morning in the Council chambers, at the City Hall.

All of the delegates are not present as yet, but there were enough on hand to make the meeting a lively one.

The morning session was necessarily devoted to routine work. The convention was slightly delayed in opening, as President A. D. Marshall made no opening address, but plunged at once into the business of the session. A. J. Read acted as secretary.

The delegates were as follows:

San Francisco, No. 21—S. H. Jenner, D. G. Poole, J. K. Phillips, S. L. Rollins, C. E. Hawkes.

Los Angeles, No. 174—Cyren E. Fisk, San Jose, No. 231—James Marr, John Cerrick.

Marysville, No. 223—C. E. Beckley.

Grass Valley, No. 282—Henry Argall, C. H. Pirsk.

Fresno, No. 144—Frank Tiernan John Chenoweth, A. D. Marshall.

Eureka, No. 207—C. W. Whittier.

Sacramento, No. 46—W. W. Cuthbert, L. E. Alvord.

Oakland, No. 36—A. J. Read and M. A. McInnis, with W. H. Stanley and F. S. Boggs as alternates.

Each delegate wore a badge which was not only an indication of his right to sit in the convention, but was also a very pretty souvenir. The badge was of lead colored satin ribbon, stamped in silver and blue, with the office of the delegate and also bearing a magnified type stamped with the union label.

J. K. Phillips of San Francisco, A. J. Read of Oakland and Cyren E. Fisk of Los Angeles were appointed a Committee on Credentials.

President Marshall appointed the following committees:

Finance—Tiernan, Marr, Robbins.

Subordinate Unions—Poole, Whitten, McInnis.

Constitution—Jenner, Marr Phillips.

Miscellaneous Business — Tiernan, Robbins, Poole.

Reports of Officers—Fisk, Whitten, McInnis.

Resolutions—Fiske, McInnis.

The officers' reports were then heard.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

The president's report was as follows:

"Gentlemen—During the year that has elapsed since the sixth annual session of the State union, many things have transpired which are of interest to the craft—some pleasant to remember while others may be termed unfortunate. Among the former, I refer to the blasted hopes of the proprietor of the Los Angeles Times, due to the administration's refusal to provide for him; also the set-back recently sustained by the Pacific Press of Oakland at the hands of the University Regents.

"Among the unfortunate things I may mention the State printing office trouble (which I leave to the careful consideration of the convention), the failure of the International body to grant State and district organizations increased power of legislation, and the introduction of a few additional linotype machines in this State. But you are all familiar with these matters, and it is unnecessary for me to discuss them further in this report.

"No doubt many matters of importance to the fraternity will be introduced at this session therefore I will offer but few suggestions.

"First of all I favor the perpetuation of the State organization. Since the regular session of the International Typographical Union have been discontinued it is my belief that State meetings will be of untold benefit, not only to the craft, but to other organizations composed of laboring men.

"It is my belief that the interest of all concerned would be best subserved by the thorough organization of State and district unions throughout the jurisdiction of the International Typographical Union, the International Typographical Union to hold regular sessions not more than two years apart, representation to be by State and district only.

"I would suggest that the State union request local unions to exercise more care in considering applications for membership. It can be of no possible benefit to an apprentice to be admitted to full membership and yet be incompetent, as it is impossible for even the most competent to secure employment at times. I recommend a revision of the constitution and by-laws of the State organization the same to be granted under the name of California State Typographical Union, No. 6.

"As to our greatest enemies in this State—the Pacific Press and Los Angeles Times,—I believe there are delegates present who have had dealings with these notorious institutions and who will be better able to suggest a mode of warfare against either or both of them than myself, then I leave them to the convention."

A. J. Read, secretary and treasurer of the State Union, made the following report:

"Gentlemen—In submitting the seventh annual report of the California State Typographical Union No. 6 for your consideration and approval, I desire to congratulate you on holding our own during the past trying year—not one typographical union in the State having surrendered its charter.

"It seems to me, from numerous reports at hand, that several small unions might be organized with a little effort, but an organizer must visit each place personally.

"The printers now employed in Berkeley and Alameda, several of them carrying traveling cards, should be induced to affiliate either with No. 21 or 36. Loyalty to union principles demands this, and those unions should legislate in that direction.

"The union label is now carried at the head of each daily newspaper issued in Oakland, as well as in several weeklies and monthlies, some job offices only using it during elections. A daily paper in Santa Rosa has also set the example in that pretty place. Los Angeles is also up to the times—in fact, is away ahead of the Times. San Francisco papers are likely soon to fly the label while the job offices are rapidly falling into line. Sacramento also makes fair use of our emblem. It seems to me desirable and I therefore recommend that a Label Committee be appointed. Attention should also be drawn to the cigarmakers' blue label.

"There are two black spots on the map of fair California that should be wiped off, one is the Los Angeles Times and the other the Oakland Pacific Press. They each have received some attention from the State union during the past year, and we are satisfied with the results as far as they go, but they do not go far enough. Surely the time has arrived when the I. T. U. should recognize the existence of these ulcers and come to our assistance with a liberal appropriation. This is one of those cases where a walking delegate, with some "get there" about him, could do very effective work. An appeal should be sent to the Executive Council of the I. T. U. forthwith, asking for a thousand dollars in each case.

"The nine-hour movement is agitating the minds of the printers of the nation. It seems to be a popular movement. Book and job printers don't like the practice of working ten hours while the machine operators only work eight. Some compromise, say at nine hours, should be brought about by conferences with employers.

"The unfortunate nominal closing of the State printing office will probably furnish matter for debate. In any event Sacramento union No. 46 will have the sympathy and good wishes of every delegate. There is no question about that. Besides, it is a State institution that is of special interest to us all. Let our only aim be to preserve it to the craft.

"The State unions of this country are building up and extending, but they require more consideration and more power from the I. T. U. In the language of an eminent authority, 'We have now, in my opinion, one of the best State wage-earners' organizations in existence—inexpensive in its workings. Yet doing in a quiet and unobtrusive way a vast amount of good and which has already gained a position of prominence and respect among the more important labor bodies of the country.' Therefore, let us carry on the good work till every printer in the State is enrolled, under our banner.

"After three years' humble service as secretary-treasurer, it is my opinion that a change is desirable, and I therefore retire and do not wish to be considered a candidate for re-election to that important office. Respectfully submitted.

"A. J. READ,
Secretary-Treasurer."

The finance report showed the receipts to be as follows: Cash on hand August 1, 1896, $151 10; Eureka Union, No. 207, $2; Marysville, No. 223, $1.40; Los Angeles, No. 174, $13.30; Santa Rosa, No. 31, $1.40; Fresno, No. 144, $3.70; San Jose No. 231, $1.10; Riverside, No. 254, $2; Eureka, No. 207, $2; San Francisco No. 21, $35; Oakland, No. 36, $5.40; total, $221.40; Expenditures $35.80.

Both reports were received and action temporarily postponed.

DOWN TO BUSINESS.

J. K. Phillips introduced a motion to do away with all the committees as the convention was a small one and any business that must necessarily be referred to a committee could be referred to a Committee of the Whole. The motion was carried by a unanimous vote and at the order of the chair, the committees were disbanded.

At the motion of C. E. Fish, the officers' reports were first considered and Mr. Fisk was called to the chair during the meeting of the committee of the whole.

S. P. James made a strong speech in behalf of State unions having power to select the State organizers and thought that the matter ought to be thoroughly aired in the subordinate unions.

Robbins spoke in the same strain and expressed a belief that the International Union would meet within the next two years and he urged that delegates be sent to the convention who would be pledged to exert their influence to have the State organizer appointed by the State Union. Poole also spoke on the same strain.

The secretary's recommendation that a label committee be appointed was adopted.

Jenner moved that the Executive Council of I. T. U. be asked for two appropriations of $1,500 for fighting the two big non-union firms, the Los Angeles Times and the Pacific Press. His motion was carried.

Poole then moved that the secretary and president of the State Union be instructed to draw up resolutions to be presented to the council asking for the appropriations.

The Committee of the Whole then adjourned and reported to the convention the adoption of the motion.

THE BALL TONIGHT.

Masonic Hall will be bright with variegated lights and fragrant flowers tonight when the printers have their grand ball. The affair will be under the auspices of Oakland Union and a very enjoyable evening is assured. The programme of dances includes all the latest variations of graceful movement, and the music, furnished by Bangs's orchestra.

The grand march commences at nine o'clock. The committee having the dance in charge are:

ANOTHER DELAY.

The Collins Trial Put Off Till the 31st of This Month.

WITNESS MORRISON VERY SICK

He Saw the Killing From the Start to the Close.

GARRITY FOR THE DEFENDANT

Stipulations In Former Will Not Be Agreed to by the Accused.

The trial of Michael Collins for the murder of Phillip Boogar was again continued by Judge Ogden in the Superior Court and now will not be heard until August 31st. The continuance was granted at the request of District Attorney Snook, Colonel Thomas Garrity who appeared for the accused assenting.

When the case was called, Mr. Snook said that he was sorry to inform the court that one of his most important witnesses, Morrison Winslow, was confined to his home by illness and that he could not possibly be present at the trial. Winslow had been subpoenaed and when he failed to appear when the case was called on Tuesday last, the speaker had Mr. Herbert go to Winslow's home in San Jose to ascertain what was the cause of his non-appearance was.

Herbert had found Winslow in bed and ascertained that he was to undergo a surgical operation today. Mr. Herbert had consulted with Winslow's physician and found that the patient would not be able to leave the house for about thirty days. During the preceding trials, Mr. Knight the then attorney for Collins, had stipulated that the testimony of any witness who could not attend might be read to the jury.

Judge Ogden said that the reading of the testimony of a witness would not have the effect upon a jury that it would have if it were delivered orally.

Mr. Snook said that he did not know whether Mr. Garrity would consent to the stipulation referred to.

Mr. Garrity said that he did not know what had been done in the premises, his knowledge being gleaned in a talk of ten minutes with Mr. Knight. He desired to have it understood, however, that he would agree to no stipulation which had been entered into between the counsel for the State and Mr. Knight.

Mr. Snook said he did not think it would be advisable to go to trial without the witness in question. The section in the code as regards the reading of deposition would not apply to this case, because Winslow's testimony was not in the form of a deposition.

The Judge wanted to know if Winslow was the only witness who was absent on the part of the State and Mr. Snook replied that he was the only important witness who was not in attendance.

Winslow, he continued, was the only witness who had seen the starting of the affray. Al Kland who was out of the State and whose deposition could be procured and Schlueter, had seen only the beginning of the fight. They had seen the flash of the pistol and what transpired after it. Winslow at the time of the murder was standing at Furst's store at the corner of Broadway and Eighth streets.

Mr. Snook then read an affidavit by Dr. George S. Farley of San Jose to the effect that Winslow would not be able to attend the trial for thirty days.

Judge Ogden wanted to know whether the empanelling of the jury could not be proceeded with.

Both Snook and Garrity said they would much prefer that the jury should be empanelled when they were ready to go ahead with the case.

Mr. Herbert was then placed on the stand. He told of his visit to Winslow in San Jose, the feeble condition of the patient and the procurement of Doctor Farley's affidavit.

The case was continued as above set forth.

The other criminal cases disposed of were as follows: People vs. De Mannis, continued till tomorrow; against Charles Reed till October 5th.

The case of Alameda City vs. Cohen was taken under advisement.

MRS. JENNIE SAUNFERS,
1016 West 7th st., Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin has cured me of that dreadful disease known as heart disease, and also of weak lungs. I do make this deposition for the especial benefit of those suffering similar ailments. I must say that I was treated by the best doctor in Chicago, and after I lost all hopes I concluded to come to San Francisco for a change of climate, and immediately I heard of the wonderful cures of Dr. Tom She Bin, so I consulted him, with such good luck that after one month and a half from the time he started to treat my case I felt entirely well.

MRS. E. FRENCK,
469 Thomas Street, Chicago Ill.

I, the undersigned, do recommend Dr Tom She Bin as one of the best doctors to cure rheumatism, having been suffering for three years, and also been under the treatment of six skillful doctors for four months without feeling any relief. I determined to set myself under the care of Dr. Tom She Bin, who gave me immediate relief, and in the course of five weeks I was enjoying good health.

PANFILO MURILLO,
Pomona, California.

My son, nine years of age, utterly prostrated with typhoid fever for six weeks, he was under the explicit care of hospital doctors, but without avail. All his body was declared incurable. I heard the name of Doctor Tom She Bin, and at once was induced to see him, and I left my son to his absolute care. Fifteen days after my son was able to play around the yard. I fully believe Doctor Tom She Bin saved my son's life.

I, John A. Pain, do hereby certify that I suffered with piles for over twelve years Dr. Tom She Bin cured me in very short time.

San Francisco, February 26th, 1897.

I have been suffering under the most dreadful disease for two years past and lost all hopes of recovering, being unable to move for four months. At last I concluded to take Dr. Tom She Bin's Wonderful Chinese herbs, and in six weeks after my health was completely restored.

J. J. MEDRAN,
766 Workmain St., East Los Angeles, Cal.

Montezuzu, Cal., March 1st, 1897.

I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble as I have been sick. About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and bloody looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus. The disease would make me very nervous and despondent. At different times during my ailment I would get some relief for a few months, then it would come back as bad or worse than ever. I doctored with several as good doctors as I could find in the East and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr. Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1892.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach. I commenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change for the time. I improved very fast and am now able to do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me. J. L. CARPENTER.

San Francisco, March 4, 1897.

I saw Dr. Tom She Bin advertisement. I first come up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble I had, was true. I had a pain over my body, and chilly. I put my case to him; first week I take Chinese Herb; one week I was great deal better. I been sick for six years. I go to white physician, cannot do me any good. I take Dr. Tom She Bin's Herbs six week; I was all well. I was cured about one year and never pain again.

MRS. . . SANGALL,

San Francisco, March 4th, 1897.

By these presents I do hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as a successful doctor to cure the dreadful disease styled consumption, so common among all classes. He has restored my health in the short term of twenty days, for the trifling amount of $1.50 per day.

I had gravel and kidney trouble four years. My friends sent me to Dr. Tom She Bin. He felt my pulse, and he told me what trouble I had. I put my case in his hands, and took he boxes twice a day. In four weeks my troubles were all cured. Now my flesh is all good. The last three or four years I went to white doctors, but never did me any good. Now I have got well and am in good health.

JENS J. JENSEN,

Geo. Osgoodby, author of the world-famous Murchison letter to Lord Sackville West, the English Embassador, in 1888, writes concerning Dr. Tom She Bin, now selling Chinese Teas and Herbs at the Sanitarium, 615 Kearny street, San Francisco, Cal., and says:

Pomona, Los Angeles Co., Cal., March 7, 1897.

For the benefit of those who are suffering with chronic diseases, I will say that many years of severe suffering and futile treatment ended in Bright's disease of the kidneys, of which Dr. Tom She Bin completely cured me, after correctly and minutely describing my malady from the pulse, without asking a question. He is a medical marvel, and without a peer in his profession. Respectfully,

GEO. OSGOODBY.

San Francisco, March 13th, 1897.

I wish to give my testimony in behalf of Dr. Tom She Bin. It is about two months ago that I fell sick with influenza, being unable to procure no other help than that of domestic remedies. I fell worse and worse, until I was totally paralyzed. I was induced to consult Tom She Bin, and he, by the aid of his wonderful Chinese herbs, I felt somewhat relieved in twenty-four hours, and he agreed to treat me for the sum of two hundred dollars, and now I feel grateful to the doctor for his efforts. Very truly,

HILARIO PRECIADO,
Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin cured me of kidney trouble and stricture. Was sick for some time but found no relief until I tried this doctor. He entirely cured me, and I have not been troubled since. ALEX L. DILLEY,

FRATERNAL NEWS

Native Sons and the Y. M. I. to Assemble at Santa Rosa.

ARRANGING FOR EACH EVENT.

Both of the Gatherings Are to Be on a Grand Scale.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT G. A. R.

A Unique Post of the Order Established at Notre Dame, Ind.

The most interesting events in the fraternal world of recent happening will be found below:

Rebekahs.

A relief board of Rebekahs has been established in San Francisco which will take charge of such cases as would come under its control. The board has sent the following notification to the various lodges:

"The secretary was instructed to communicate with your board informing you that it was with pleasure that we prepare to form an auxiliary, and will do all in our power to help you in your good work, also that we recommend that the full name should be used by the noble grand and the vice-grand of each Rebekah lodge, be required to form this auxiliary, and that it shall be so understood when they take their obligation. I am also instructed to inform you that we have learned that you have several cases of sickness on your list, and that we of the committee are ready and willing to attend to their immediate relief if necessary.

Native Sons.

Regarding the celebration of the fourth quarter anniversary of Admission Day, which will be observed in a general manner by the order of Native Sons of the Golden West, Grand President Clark has sent out the following circular letter to all the subordinate parlors of the order:

"It now becomes my pleasant duty to send to each native born fraternal greeting, and to remind you that the 9th of September of this year will be Native Sons' fifty-seventh anniversary.

"While to attend a parade by the wide-awake Native Sons of San Francisco will be undoubtedly a most enjoyable event, especially for the ladies that live a small distance from that city, we wish to participate in the general celebration. To such parties I would suggest that on the night before the parade they meet in their respective parlor rooms, and from there proceed in a body to the depot in time to join with us in our celebration.

"As the out-door sports and pastimes of the month of September will undoubtedly be most attractive, I would suggest that each parlor make up a basket picnic party and on that day repair to some suitable place and there enjoy themselves in spite of the cares incident to our country.

"A copy of the program of our organization is to be issued in due time, and all parlors contemplating the visit of some of the most noted speakers of the order to their parlor on the night before the parade should notify the grand secretary at once, so that he can provide for same.

"Hoping that you will all join with us in our celebration."

As the time draws near for the gathering of the hosts of the fraternity in the metropolis, the interest will increase day by day, for the matters upon each and every of the committees charged with making the celebration a credit to our Native Sons and Native Daughters are coming to a head.

Another meeting of the Santa Rosa committee of which the several committees are doing the main of the arrangements, will be held in Santa Rosa on next month. From this appears that the committee has not been idle, as it never does. Was Fortune favors the brave and the active. At night it will be Dudley's turn and I predict illumination and out-of-door sports will be most brilliant. There will be a grand concourse of automobiles of the Coast, and squadrons of bicycle riders will be in line. Then there will be a grand ball at the Auditorium, and the Native Sons' Quadrille band will be in attendance. Then there will be a grand ball at the Auditorium, and the Native Sons' Quadrille band will be in attendance.

Native Daughters.

Grand President Mrs. Conrad paid a visit to Alameda Parlor last Monday, and was most cordially welcomed.

Companions of the Forest.

Cedar No. 152 A. O. F. will celebrate its golden anniversary on Thursday night, August 19th. A fine programme will be rendered and a social time enjoyed after which refreshments will be distributed. The public is cordially invited.

Chosen Friends

Supreme Representative H. B. M. Miller of Emeryville has gone to the Klondyke to try his luck in the diggings of the north. He left on the steamer Walla Walla.

The Supreme Council will meet in Louisville, Ky., on the 20th of September. California will be represented in the council by seven representatives and two officers. The officers are Supreme Vice-Councilor Dr. S. L. Webster and Supreme Trustee W. F. Gibson. The representatives are H. W. Hutton, Thomas H. Brown, W. H. Lavaise, T. H. Scheggs, A. B. Sanborn, T. F. Wolfe and F. H. Keller, the last named being alternate for H. B. M. Miller.

Royal Arcanum.

Supreme Warden, R. A., Thomas A. Parish of Michigan is now in San Francisco and will probably institute the new council in Oakland which for some time has been in process of formation. During his stay in this state he will institute councils in places where the order is not now represented, particularly in Sacramento, San Jose and Santa Rosa. He is empowered by the supreme regent to institute councils and build up and increase the usefulness of the old ones.

Knights of Pythias.

The proceedings of the grand lodge of California at the twenty-ninth annual convention held at Hanford last May, have been received by the grand keeper of records and seal, H. Schaffner, and it is a most complete and carefully arranged report of the doings of the grand body. The frontispiece has a half-tone picture of the grand chancellor, W. H. Grant, and in addition to the report there is a carefully prepared index and the reports of the officers of the California brigade of the uniform rank which occupy twenty-five pages. The whole book comprises 174 pages.

Last Monday night, Amazon lodge, the active little star in the Pythian constellation, conferred ranks of Esquire and Knight in its usual progressive and up-to-date method.

PIEDMONT LODGE NO. 172.

Monday night Piedmont lodge conferred the rank of Esquire on Page Cohen in a manner for which the lodge and some of the visitors are to be commended.

At its next session, Monday, August 16th, Esquires Cohen and Uecklack will be elevated to Knighthood.

GRAND ORIENT.

Alameda Council, No. 1, of this order will meet tomorrow night at Pythian Castle, Twelfth and Franklin streets. Questions of deep importance and considerable moment will be brought before the council and several neophytes, aspirants for oriental honors will be initiated. A needa council, No. 2, of Berkeley is cordially invited to be present. The team will report for duty promptly at 9 o'clock. By order of Grand Padishah A. V. Oneill.

Rathbone Sisters.

Calanthe temple, No. 6, under its corps of new and efficient officers led by Mrs. A. Kaiser, M. E. C., is now holding large, enthusiastic, interesting and financial meetings.

At its session July 23d, one lodge candidate was escorted through the Sublime degree while at its convention of August 30, a prominent young member of Oakland lodge No. 102 saw fit to link his fraternal fate with this branch of the auxiliary to the order of Knights of Pythias.

The prosperity of the future of this temple is now an assured fact. Its experimental period is buried in the past.

United Workmen.

The principal event in A. O. U. W. circles this week is the initiation of a class of twenty-five candidates, which takes place this evening at Pacific Lodge, No. 7.

For this occasion the lodge will meet at Fraternal Hall, 1356½ Washington street instead of in A. O. U. W. Hall on Broadway.

There will be a large number of people present from all of the Oakland lodges. Among those who are expected to be in attendance may be mentioned Past Supreme Master W. H. Jordan, Past Grand Masters Barnes and Danforth, Grand Master Vistner, Grand Foreman Judge Bahrs, Grand Receiver Barth, Grand Recorded and Deputy Grand Master Poland. The initiatories work will be given by the celebrated Pacific Drill team.

Members of the order sojourning here are invited to be present.

OAK LEAF LODGE.

Several applications for membership were received at Oak Leaf Lodge No. 25 A. O. U. W. Monday evening and one new member was initiated into the workman degree.

The Drill Team under the able direction of Past Workman Cox is performing its duties excellently.

Past Master Morrison of Occidental Lodge, No. 1 as a committee on instruction to the order gave some excellent advice which was greatly appreciated, and at once acted upon.

An invitation was received from Pacific Lodge No. 7 inviting Oak Leaf Lodge to attend its meeting this evening and it was unanimously voted to attend in a body.

The Visitation Committee will visit Oakland Lodge No. 2 Friday evening. Master Workman Gartner requested all who can, to be there on this fraternal visit. Past Master Joseph Harris was given full power to act in the matter of purchasing a star reception and requested to report upon same by next meeting.

The chairman of the Entertainment Committee reported that the "smoker" of next Monday evening will eclipse all former attempts, the programme consisting some of the best musical and literary talent of Alameda County and the cigars are special importations for the occasion.

Invitations can be procured from members of the Lodge.

Catholic Ladies' Aid Society.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society will meet next Monday evening at Mrs. H. Coopman's residence, West and Forty-third streets.

Young Men's Institute.

Active preparations are now being made for the forthcoming grand council, Y. M. I., which is to be held in Santa Rosa, next week. There will be large delegations from all the councils of this city.

The sessions will be held in the Odd Fellows' Hall, where every facility will be afforded the visitors to conduct their business. The City Council has granted the local committees leave to construct two grand arches to span Fourth street, and under which the procession is to pass the day when the League of the Cross Cadets come here. The grand ball at the Athenaeum Opera House Wednesday evening will be the most pretentious social function during the week and it is expected that at least 300 couples will participate.

There will be a great bicycle race next Saturday, in which many of the California cracks will compete, and the same day will occur the grand parade. Assurances have been received from all over the State promising a large attendance of delegates and visitors. The citizens of Santa Rosa have seconded every effort of the local committees and have spared no pains nor expense in making the arrangements in every way worthy of the gathering expected. Among the notables expected to be present to address the delegates during the grand council are Archbishop Riordan, Chancellor P. C. Yorke and a number of other Catholic clergymen.

The Grand Army.

The delegates from California to the national encampment, which is to be held in Buffalo, N. Y., left yesterday for that place. They are N. P. Chipman, department commander; T. C. Masteller, A. A. G.; C. A. Woodruff, L. D. Burbeck, J. H. Garrett, A. K. Johnson, J. T. Boynton and Charles Edelman.

There is a strong feeling among the Eastern delegates and especially among the delegates from this State of bringing the next national encampment of the order to San Francisco.

A UNIQUE POST.

One of the most notable institutions of a post of the Grand Army of the Republic which has taken place in the history of the organization is that which has just been authorized by Department Commander Dodge of Indiana, the post being composed in the main of Catholic priests and lay brothers connected with the College of Notre Dame in South Bend, in that State.

Notre Dame was the home of General W. Tecumseh Sherman before the war. It was there his family resided during the great struggle and it was to that place the great commander returned when victory crowned the federal arms and the wreath of laurel was placed upon his brow as also upon the brows of the other great leaders in the fight.

On the day of his arrival in South Bend, the general was tendered a reception in the college, which still survives in the memory of those who were present as one of the grandest that ever took place in the noted institution.

The new post is composed of priests and brothers of the congregation of the Holy Cross who served as chaplains or who carried a musket. Many of the brothers of the community had been, before their entrance into the religious life, soldiers in the Union army. Though they now follow in the paths of peace they can show scars as marks of service.

One of the most enthusiastic organizers of the past was the famous chaplain of the Irish Brigade, Rev. William Corby. He was the central figure in one of the most striking incidents of the war. Father Corby served all through the war and participated in all the long years of campaigning. He is now the superior of the order of the Holy Cross in the United States. He is the author of the volume "Memoirs of Chaplain Life." He is also the chaplain of the Indiana Commandery of the Loyal Legion, to which position he was nominated by General Lew Wallace. Father Corby gave the undertaking his approval on the spot, and his name was written down as one of the charter members.

Brother Leander, who carried a musket in the ranks of the Fifteenth regiment of regular infantry through the whole period of the war, and in all the fighting that dashing regiment saw for several years after the war was ended, was the first to make a list of the eligibles at the University. He found enough priests and brothers to make a quorum and have six members to spare. Then he added the name of General Olmsted, who is now a member of the order at Notre Dame, and finished the roster with the name of a single layman. The only secular member who will be admitted is the dean of the law school, Colonel William Hoynes.

With the exception of Brother Sebastian, Colonel Haynes left more of his anatomy on Southern battlefields than any one at the University.

Rev. P. P. Cooney, C. S. A., is another member of the post. He has been at Notre Dame for many years. When the Thirty-fifth Indiana was mustered in he left his classes at the University to become its chaplain. When the war was ended he returned. He is an apostle of temperance and was famous during the war for his temperance work.

In all eight priests left Notre Dame to serve as chaplains during the war. The greater number of them have since passed away. These were Rev. Dr. Kilroy, Rev. J. M. Dillon, P. P. Cooney, Dr. E. B. Kilroy, J. C. Carrier, Paul E. Gillen, Joseph Leveque and Very Rev. William Corby. In addition there were sixty sisters of the order of the Holy Cross who went to serve as nurses under Mother Mary Angela, their superioress, who was a cousin of James G. Blaine.

Of the war veterans among the brothers of the order at Notre Dame all of them were soldiers and most of them fought as privates. Their admission to the congregation was after the close of the war. One of these who was distinguished for the number and character of his wounds, died recently.

Degree of Honor.

The report of the proceedings of the Supreme lodge has been received by the grand recorder, Mrs. Kate M. Poland, and the books are being sent out to those entitled to receive them.

The new ritual of the Degree of Honor, which embraces changes as to minor details only, will be ready for distribution by the 1st of next January.

Ivy Lodge, No. 4 Degree of Honor A. O. U. W., had its usual excellent attendance Wednesday evening.

The Drill Team initiated three new members in an admirable manner, not a mistake occurring to mar the impressive ceremony.

Past Chief of Honor Mrs. Sturrock eloquently advocated her pet subject—the "Beneficiary" and, upon a motion, proposed by her it was decided that the Visitation Committee pay a missionary visit to Pacific Lodge No. 7 A. O. U. W., Thursday evening August 19th and to Oak Leaf Lodge, No. 25 A. O. U. W. Monday evening, August 23d.

Keystone, Oakland, and Freemont Lodges will also be paid a like visit on evenings to be settled on at next meeting.

A communication was received from Monte Vista Lodge, Degree of Honor, Milpitas, inviting Ivy Lodge to a grand entertainment and dance which is to be given under the auspices of this energetic new lodge of the Degree of Honor on Friday evening.

The recorder was instructed to inform Monte Vista Lodge that the notice being so short it was impossible to accept the kind invitation. If the invitation had been received sooner many said that they would have been delighted to have gone to Milpitas.

Chief of Honor Mrs. Parkinson appointed on the new Attraction Committee for Monday evening August 26th, Sisters Donaldson, Frederickson, Garrison and Garrett.

Sister Marguerite Oakes, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, stated that the programme for the entertainment and ball which is to be given for the benefit of Ivy Lodge Drill Team next Wednesday evening at Chapman's Hall, will be one of the best ever presented in Oakland.

Sister Oakes announced the following committees for that occasion: Floor manager, Brother Charles L. Ingler; assistant floor committee Brothers Hall and Jordan; reception, Sisters Gartner and Gavin and Brothers Strasberg and Lissner; refreshment, Brothers Harris and Smith; door, Brothers Cogan and Mitchell.

Members of the Lodge desiring to donate flowers and vines for the decoration of the ball-room are requested to send the same to Brother Oakes' office 369 Twelfth street Wednesday morning.

Masonic.

Oak Leaf Lodge, No. 6, A. F. and A. M. confer the first degree tomorrow night.

For family use for the medicine closet, for those who use whiskey as a beverage, the famous Old Jesse Moore Whiskey is the best, because it is pure.

Dr. Luella Cool Back.

Dr. Luella Cool, formerly a resident of this city, returned yesterday from Guatemala, where she has been practicing dentistry for the last year. She was recently stricken with fever and has come north to recover her health.

THE BIG DEFEAT AT AGUACATE

Two Hundred Spaniards Go Down Before the Rebels.

PEOPLE FLOCKING TO TOWNS.

Great Dissatisfaction Over the Captain General's Blunders

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—A special to the Herald from Havana via Key West says:

Further details have been received of the battle near Aguacate, which is near the Matanzas line. The fighting, it was first reported, was in Matanzas province, but it was just on this side. There is no doubt of the result of the battle, however, and a conservative estimate places the number of Spanish killed at 200 while the rebel loss was comparatively trifling.

Preparations for General Weyler's arrival at the palace were made on Monday, but he has only just returned from the field. He left Matanzas on Sunday and reached Aguacate the next day. It was there that a rumor came that he was wounded in the big fight near there, but the statement proved to be false.

The excitement in Havana is intense. The uncertainty regarding the new ministry in Spain is partly to blame and on top of this there comes news of a big insurgent victory between Aguacate and Madruga and also of a pitched battle in the vicinity of Sagua la Grande, the advance guard of General Gomez has crossed over to Matanzas. Whether he is close can not be ascertained with certainty, but it is reported that he declined the fight at Sagua la Grande. The largest battle that has taken place in several months was the one fought at Aguacate. It is known that the battle was the result of an attempt to capture General Weyler or kill him.

The Captain-General had made preparations to return on horseback from Matanzas to Havana. Along the road, he had posted three columns of Spanish soldiers. General Castillo learned of his plans and gathered a force of fully 1,500 rebels. This force he hurled against the Spanish lines near Aguacate, where General Weyler was supposed to be. General Castillo commanded the insurgents in person and the Spanish were under General Militia. The colonel is reported dead, but later accounts are to the effect that both General Aldea and General Molina were wounded.

The battle began about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and continued until night set in. The Spanish were ranked along the open road and the rebels approached them from the rear, coming from the hills. A body of cavalry were stationed about a quarter of a mile down the road to cut off Weyler if he should be there and attempt to seek safety. The details of the actual fighting are meagre, but many reliable persons, who passed near the place, which is beside the railroad station, say that from the carriage windows they could see many dead soldiers along the road. The rebels used rapid firing guns.

When darkness came the Spaniards retired, to return the next morning with heavy re-inforcements, but the insurgents only opened fire for about half an hour and then disappeared. They divided into small bands and subsequent pursuit was futile.

Information has also been received of the big fight near Sagua la Grande. It is said the town was attacked and that a portion of it was burned. But this has not been verified. Correspondence from the field, however, proves that there has been a battle there, General Gomez in person, it is said, directing the insurgent operation.

After the fight at Aguacate, General Weyler fell back upon Guanabacoa, just across the bay from Havana. The rebel chiefs, Colonel Arnaguran and General Rodriguez, were in the district and General Weyler expected a raid.

General Weyler arrived at Guanabacoa with 4,000 men. Five miles from Guanabacoa, General Weyler was attacked by a rebel force under General Rodriguez. General Rodriguez's plan was to force General Weyler to give fight and pursue him into the hills, where the Captain-General stood a good chance of being either killed or captured. The rebels fired several volleys from the hills along the roadside, killing seventeen and wounding a large number of the Spanish, but General Weyler refused to give fight and kept on his march to Guanabacoa driving 300 head of cattle that he had collected along the line. General Rodriguez followed in Weyler's rear to within sight of the town. After the rebels withdrew, the Spanish troops commenced a heavy fire, the noise of which awakened and frightened the residents of Guanabacoa. There is great excitement in the meantime in Havana over General Weyler's inability to check the rebels and everybody who can manage it, is moving to the town from the outskirts as they nightly expect an attack. Hardly a night passes now that bands of insurgents do not enter one of the suburbs of Havana and receive from their friends supplies of medicine and clothing.

A train running from Marianno, in the Havana province, was fired upon recently. The American Vice-Consul, Mr. Springer, was on the train. Bullets struck near him, but he escaped unhurt.

CANADA CAN NOT RETALIATE.

Effect Across the Border of the Ten Per Cent Tariff Duty.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

MONTREAL, Aug. 12.—The decision of Attorney-General McKenna as to the interpretation of the clause of the new United States tariff which deals with the imposition of an extra 10 per cent for the duty on foreign goods entering the United States through a contiguous country will be watched with the greatest interest in Canada.

"If the clause is put into force," said Mr. G. M. Bosworth, freight traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific railroad, "its effect will be most serious. It will kill all our China and Japan business in exports intended for the United States and will also kill entirely the importation into the United States through Canadian ports. Montreal, in summer and St. Johns in winter, will suffer from the adverse legislation."

The same view was expressed by Mr. George B. Reeve, general traffic manager of the Grand Trunk railway.

"Both the great Canadian roads would suffer from the clause," said Mr. Reeve, "if it were put into effect and Canada would have no retaliatory recourse."

He was of the opinion, however, that such an interpretation as was indicated in the Washington dispatches would not be placed upon the clause. Mr. Reeve added that the competition of the Canadian roads had done much in the last thirty years to cheapen rates from Western States to the Atlantic seaboard, and he felt them deserving of much consideration in consequence.

TEMPERANCE FANATICS.

The Mayor of a Kansas Town Has Experience With Them.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 12.—A mob of 200 persons waited on Mayor Muir of Harper and demanded his immediate resignation because he refused to close a saloon that had opened on Sunday night. The Mayor climbed upon his desk and attempted to make a conciliatory speech. The temperance crowd passed him, and two or three got hold of him and attempted to throw him off, when the Mayor's friends came in by the back door and drove the crowd away with clubs.

The agitators then proceeded to the Council chambers, put out the lights and broke up the meeting in a general row. Violence and a revolution of the city government has been threatened.

The city officers are now under an armed guard.

THE FRENCH AND SIAMESE FIGHT.

A Number Killed on Territory Between the Two Countries.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—A special to the Herald from Bangkok says:

"News has arrived of severe fighting at Muang Locus, on the right bank of the Mekong, the neutral zone between the French and Siamese. Several were killed and wounded on both sides. The French captured Siamese officials. Details are wanting."

Alice Barrett's Will.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—It develops that Alice M. Barrett, the pretty typewriter, who committed suicide on July 24th under circumstances so peculiar that for two weeks the motive, embezzlement, was not discovered, made a will three days before killing herself. This will, found by her mother, at her home in Waltham, was offered for probate at once.

It is a peculiar document, couched in legal phraseology throughout, and much the same as a millionaire might make. It bequeaths her belongings and her bank deposit to the mother, dividing her interest in two small mortgages between her brothers and $150 each additional to "my younger beloved brother Charlie." It then disposes of pieces of bric-a-brac and jewelry among her young women friends and relatives, including her aunt, three cousins and several Waltham associates. She had an accident policy for $2,500, and personal property appraised at $1,375 by her mother.

A New Bike Record.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Aug. 12.—In spite of the heavy rains which were encountered last night, Antonio Evans of this city succeeded in establishing a new twenty-four-hour bicycle record. He added sixteen miles to the distance ridden by Edwards of New York last June, and with 356 miles to his credit finished at 6:11 this morning with eleven minutes to spare, having started at 6:22 in the morning.

He was paced by tandem teams over the entire distance. The course was between this city and Elizabeth, a distance of twenty-five miles.

She Favors Lynching.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

TYBEE, Ga., Aug. 12.—Mrs. W. H. Fellon, member of the women's executive committee of the Columbian Exposition and chairman of the women's committee on agriculture at that time, made a sensational address before the Georgia State Agricultural Society convention by invitation, declaring in favor of the quick lynching of negroes guilty of outrage on white girls.

Appointments.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The Daily Chronicle says it has been decided to appoint Gen. Sir Evelyn Wood adjutant-general and Sir George Stewart White quartermaster-general.

THE TRIBUNE'S TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE BRINGS THE NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE GLOBE

KNOWS NOT HIS FATE.

John Andrea Is Anxious to Get Well to Meet His Wife.

HAS BEEN DEAD FOUR DAYS.

The Sorrowful News Is Being Kept From Him by His Friends.

MIGHT PREVENT HIS RECOVERY.

Clara Fallmer Also Ignorant That She Is Charged With Murder.

There are two people in the county buildings whose chances of recovery depend greatly upon the condition of two other people. By a strange fate both of the latter two are dead, and not for some time will the two patients be informed of their death.

John Andrea, who is at the Receiving Hospital in a critical condition, wonders why his wife does not come to see him and has to be content with the information that she is unable to come. As she died last Sunday morning, this information is sadly too true.

Clara Fallmer, the girl who shot Charles Ladue, is at the County Jail, and it is feared that the shock to her, should she learn of his death, would probably prevent her recovery. She still believes that he is approaching recovery, and does not know that a warrant has been sworn to charging her with murder.

The case of Andrea is particularly pitiful. He is a man about 50 years of age, and a few days ago a steel beam fell on him and made it necessary to take off a leg above the knee. When the news of the accident reached his wife, she went to the hospital and spent a few hours with him but was so overcome that she had to be assisted to her home.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Andrea was taken with a fit of apoplexy and expired suddenly. The news has been kept from Andrea, and the children are being cared for by members of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Andrea was a member.

It is feared that the shock will probably prove fatal to Andrea, and the friends dare not undertake the responsibility of interring the body until the husband has taken a last look at it, and it is being preserved. It is impossible to take the husband to see it, as his condition will not permit of his being moved from the hospital. The situation is extremely delicate and pathetic, and friends admit that they cannot see a way out of the difficulty at present.

As soon as Andrea is ready to be moved he will naturally ask to be taken to his wife, and then the sorrowful news must be broken to him that he can never see her again in life. He will leave his sick bed only to see his wife in her coffin.

The case of Clara Fallmer is not so pathetic, as the bond that bound her to her dead lover was not of the kind that the world admires, but there seems to be little doubt that she will again attempt suicide should she learn that she has to stand trial for murder.

THE WEEK'S AMUSEMENTS.

"Mrs. Partington and Her Son Ike" Draw Large Houses at the Oakland.

"Mrs. Partington and Her Son Ike" is the attraction at the Oakland this week. The Elleford company in this, their last appearance on the local stage, will leave a wake of pleasant remembrances of this clever play. Mr. Elleford appears as Mrs. Partington and Jessie Norton as Ike. The incidents of the play are extremely funny, the acting is good, some of the scenery is splendid. On the whole, the performance is excellent.

BARTHOLOMEW'S HORSES.

Bartholomew's clever equine pupils are attracting crowded houses. The living pictures are greatly enjoyed by the audience. The soft music, the one square of light illuminating the beautiful horses in their portrayal of a great artist's picture, arouse the sympathy of the spectators.

The special features are unique and interesting—the see-saw, the performance of "Fibbey" on the twelve-inch plank, the ox team, the contortions of "Patchen" and many others.

The performances continue throughout the week.

MAIN'S CIRCUS.

The circus show will commence Tuesday, August 19th. The collection of animals in Main's celebrated shows is admitted to be one of the finest in the United States. The feats performed by the wonderfully well trained animals are remarkable. Jesse Howard's happy family of ferocious beasts in the steel den is one of the sensational features of the circus.

LOOSE METHODS OF HUNTING TUBERCULES.

Dr. Carpenter's Experience With One of the Government Meat Inspectors

Dr. Thomas Carpenter, Alameda's Milk Inspector, made a discovery yesterday that induces him to call the Government inspection of meat at Butchertown a farce.

"At Butchertown there are two, J. J. Borden and J. O'Reilly, and Borden was the man we met yesterday," said Dr. Carpenter. "One did not need to talk to this inspector long to see that this business of inspecting meats, for which the Government pays good salaries, is a prodigious farce. The inspection is not obligatory and the slaughter-houses may remove their inspectors at any time. Six were recently dismissed by slaughter-houses in San Francisco.

"At present there are four inspectors at Baden, and outside of that but three employed, two in one slaughter house and one in another. When an inspector loses a place he is given a furlough, his salary continuing until he secures another appointment. Borden says they hold the positions for life; that no knowledge of disease is required. He inspects steers by looking at the intestines, without any closer examination.

"While I was there five or six animals had just been killed and were hung up. Near by some livers were hanging, and I found two infected with tubercules. I called Inspector Borden over and showed them to him. He had not noticed them; 'didn't know what of the steers they came from.' That did not matter much, he said, as long as there were no bunches on the lungs. Dr. Baker always passed that kind. I never imagined such things possible. It seems the slaughter-houses only tolerate inspectors as an advertisement, as some people prefer to feel that their meat is inspected."

The report that Alameda has quarantined Oak and Main is untrue, as no such step has been taken.

A New Enterprise.

MAKES RED BLOOD ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT

There is no sadder sight than that of the orphan-child bereft of the loving care of a mother. If women would but learn the vital importance of taking proper care of their health, and always look after the health and vigor of the organs distinctly feminine, the pitiful Sabbath day procession of motherless children that goes to the cemetery to "put flowers on ma-ma's grave" would be materially reduced in numbers. Too many women bring a child into the world at the sacrifice of their own life. This sad tragedy may be avoided by any women who will resort to the right remedy.

The usual dangers of maternity are banished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly and only on the important and delicate organs that bear the burdens of motherhood. It makes the weak healthy and strong, vigorous and elastic. It does away with the discomforts of the expectant period, insures the health of the newcomer, and makes its advent free from danger and almost free from pain. Over 90,000 have testified to its virtues. Druggists who offer substitutes are untrustworthy.

Mrs. Wilson Vincent, of Saginaw, Houghton Co., Mich., (care Bingland's Camp, Box B) writes: "When I first began to take your 'Favorite Prescription,' four years ago, I was suffering with local weakness and heart trouble. At times I could hardly endure the pain in my sides quite low down, and had such a pain between my shoulders I could not get my breath. Was just as tired in the morning as at night. At times there was a very sharp pain around my heart. When I would stoop over there was a dull aching just under the heart. My head ached and was continually sore to the touch. I took ten bottles of the Favorite Prescription and one bottle of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I can most truly say that as a result I never felt better in my life. I was more like a young girl than a mother of a family. The pain all left me, so I know that your medicines will do all that medicine can do."

A headache is a symptom of constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, promptly and permanently. They do not gripe. Druggists sell them.

VOL. XXXXIV. OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 12, 1897. NO. 36.

ENJOINED BY LAW

A Sweeping Injunction Issued Against the Striking Miners.

CANNOT MARCH NEAR MINES.

Must Not Induce or Compel Any Employe to Leave His Work.

DOLAN EXPRESSES DEFIANCE.

Says That Nothing Can Prevent the Carrying Out of the Campaign.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 12.—The much talked of bill for an injunction against the United Mine Workers that was to have been filed in the United States Court was filed in the County Court about noon by counsel for the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company. The defendants named are the United Mine Workers of America, Patrick Dolan, president; Edward McKay, vice-president; Wm. Warner, secretary and treasurer and others.

The plaintiff company sets forth that it is a corporation under the laws of Pennsylvania with a capital of a million dollars invested in coal lands of Pennsylvania. Three of their mines, employing 1,200 men are Plum Creek, Turtle Creek and Sandy Creek. The bill then recites the conditions prevailing at their mines since the strike begun and allege that the strikers have paid no attention to the sheriff's warnings and that the lives of the miners and the property of the company are in danger.

Judge Collier granted a temporary injunction restraining the defendants from assembling, marching or encamping in proximity to the mines and houses of the miners for the purpose by intimidation, threats and approbrious words of preventing the miners of the plaintiff from working.

It further restrains the defendants from inducing or compelling any employe or miner to quit work.

A hearing was fixed for August 16th.

The injunction is regarded as the most sweeping yet issued.

President Dolan expressed surprise when informed that it had been granted, and added: "It will make no difference to us. We will not break camp and will go right along as usual until the matter is tested in the courts. We will stay there regardless of every Judge in Allegheny county and if they attempt to enforce the injunction they will have to build more jails to accommodate the men.

STRIKERS DECIDE TO TEST THE INJUNCTION.

Will March as Usual to the Mines and Will Thus Invite Arrest.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 12.—The striking miners at Canonsburg have determined to force the injunction issue by continuing the daily marches and meetings in the neighborhood of the McGovern and Canonsburg mines in spite of the order of Judge McIlwayne of Washington forbidding marches on the public roads leading to the mines.

The purpose is to have the men arrested in order to test the legality of the injunction. Patrick Dolan stated that it had been determined to keep up the marches, and as fast as one group is arrested another will take its place until there will be so many of them in jail that the public opinion will be aroused on the question of the alleged new form of injunction. In this movement the support of all the leading trades unions of the country is said to have been pledged at a secret meeting in Columbus during the last three days, presided over by Samuel Gompers.

Information has been received by the Pittsburg operators that the miners of the Bell, Lewis and Yates Company have struck in Reynolds, and the rest of the mines of the company are idle. The company is one of the heaviest tonnage producers in the northern field. About 8,000 men are employed. No information has been received from the Punxsutawney and Clearfield districts, but at East Brady it was reported that the miners at several pits in those districts are out, the grievances being of a local nature and independent of the national strike.

The usual march of the miners was made at Turtle Creek at 4 o'clock this morning, but more men went into the pit today than yesterday. Deputy Sheriff Richards was in charge of some men going to work at Unity this morning, and the strikers ran ahead, hooting and jeering them. Sheriff Richards ordered the strikers to move, but they refused. He then called on his other deputies to assist him, and the strikers, seeing that it meant trouble, moved off, still hooting the men going to work. When a report of the trouble was made at camp, many threats were made, but the excitement quieted down on the arrival of the leaders. There are now 122 deputies at Plum Creek, an increase of 40.

When T. B. De Armitt heard of the threatened trouble he drove over from Turtle Creek and spent all morning going from house to house to induce the men to go to work. At noon there were 103 in the mine, a decrease of fourteen. This is due to the tactics of the strikers in guarding the miners' houses.

A new move is to be made by the company. A number of the miners who are working will file a bill of equity asking that the strikers be restrained from marching past their houses. They say that the continued noise and excitement is endangering their health as well as jeopardizing the lives of members of their families who are sick.

At Sandy Creek there are twelve drivers, eight boys and twenty-two day men at work. This is an increase of eleven.

Firms from all sections of the Union are coming to the rescue of the strikers. A cereal company at Akron, Ohio, sent a dispatch offering to donate two tons of cornmeal. The offer was accepted, and the meal will be distributed among the homes of the miners.

The Fishermen's Protective Association of Astoria, Oregon, has started East by fast freight 100 cases of canned salmon for the miners.

There is no change in the price of coal from the figures of the last two days. The supply is said to have increased, and the West Virginians are selling down to prices which approach those in effect before the strike began.

WILL BRAVE THE COURT'S INJUNCTION

Fairmount Miners In end to Take a Very Decided Ltep.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 12.—A special to the Plain Dealer from Wheeling, W. Va., says:

"At 2:30 this morning 250 strikers from Ohio marched through Wheeling to the Riverside and Elm Grove mines, where they joined 500 Moundsville, Glendale and Boggs Run miners, who had been on guard all night.

It took only a few minutes' persuasion to close these two pits and the whole Panhandle is now idle except a few small peddling mines that supply purely household demand.

"This morning's reports show less strength in the Kanawha Valley strike. More men have gone to work on both sides of the river.

"At Fairmont there is more stillness than has been seen for several weeks. The local lieutenants are waiting for Gompers and the conference of national leaders at Monongah tomorrow. The leaders will brave the United States Court's injunction and if any are arrested all the labor unions in the country will take up the fight for them.

One Hundred Miners Start to Get More to Join the Strike.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 12.—With Old Glory flying at the head of their column and to music of fife and drum one hundred Springfield miners started today on their march to Decatur, Illinois. Vice President Archie Teal of Dawson is leader. The strikers enroute will pick up 250 more miners. At Niantic tonight they will hold a general conference, preparatory to entering Decatur tomorrow. The marching miners are orderly. They have a large commissary and say they will have no trouble getting the men out at Decatur.

Colonel B. B. Ray, Governor Tanner's special commissioner left here today for Niantic by train. There will be counsel with the miners, operators and authorities and then proceed to Decatur.

The men are straggling homeward, most of them having been obliged to walk the entire distance, over 120 miles. It is probable the the incident will be the subject of international correspondence and investigation.

MINERS THREATEN A SUPERINTENDENT'S LIFE.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITSBURG, Pa., Aug. 12.—A Leader Kingwood, W. Va., special says the miners at Corinth are in an ugly mood and threaten the property of the company and the life of Superintendent Anderson. The sheriff left this morning with Marshal Jackson for the scene of the trouble. If needed, deputies will be put on guard and order restored even if force of arms be necessary.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

The formation is the same as that of the Graves brothers, black iron and ochre and porphyry walls. The new strike was made on Saturday and caused renewed excitement. Miners and prospectors are leaving their claims to locate ground on Morrison Gulch, and the whole bed of the gulch will soon be located.

ASHORE ON A ROCKY ISLAND.

None but Experienced Pilots Ever Dare Venture in the Vicinity.

TUGS SENT TO THE RESCUE.

Disastrous End of the Pleasure Trip of Distinguished People.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Aug. 12.—The steam yacht Comanche, with Senator M. A. Hanna's party on board, is ashore somewhere in the Nipigon Straits on the north shore of Lake Superior. The boat seems to be in serious danger, as a telegram asked that two wrecking tugs and a lighter be sent at once. The telegram was sent from Nipigon station on the Canadian Pacific.

The Comanche left here Tuesday morning for a cruise along the north shore. Senator Hanna's party up to that time had had a delightful trip and had met with no mishaps. The place where the yacht came to disaster is of rocky formation, channels being dotted with many small islands. It is considered dangerous for any except experienced pilots.

The party on board the Comanche includes Senator and Mrs. Hanna and daughters Mabel and Ruth of Cleveland; Governor and Mrs. Merrian of Minnesota, who were taken on at Duluth; Mr. and Mrs. Gosline of Toledo, Miss Phelps and Miss McCurdy of Cleveland and Mr. Deer of Toledo.

Mark Hanna's yacht left Cleveland on the evening of July 31st for a cruise of the Great Lakes. The Comanche is a steel yacht, thoroughly seaworthy, and was used by Senator Hanna's brother last summer in his cruise of the West Indies.

Details regarding the mishap to the steam yacht Comanche are not expected to reach here until tonight.

When the yacht anchored here on Monday, Senator Mark Hanna did not come ashore.

MANY ANXIOUS TO FIGHT PRINCE HENRY.

General Albertone May Not Be the One to Resent Reflections.

A "Very High and Exalted Italian Personage" Claims the Honor.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PARIS, Aug. 12.—Prince Henry of Orleans, replying to the Duke of Aosta, eldest nephew of the King of Italy, who was sent to France by his Majesty with instructions to make an attempt to prevent the duel being fought between Prince Henry and General Albertone, as a result of the Prince's reflection upon the conduct of the Italian soldiers in Abyssinia, has informed the Duke that it is impossible for him to retreat. It is now thought others will intervene in the matter.

The following semi-official communication has been issued:

It is learned from a trustworthy source that the unexpected intervention of a very high Italian personage claiming for himself the honor of encountering Prince Henry of Orleans will in all probability modify the situation. Under these circumstances it is probable that General Albertone will have to give place to the exalted personage in question.

A telegram which was received by Prince Henry while traveling last night appraised him of the new intervention.

BURGLAR AND BUNCO MAN

Some of the Crimes for Which Alfred Burrohs Must Answer.

Detectives Shorey and Holland this morning arrested a confidence operator who for cunning and an ability to evade the officers of the law, is claimed to have no equal on the coast. In fact, the man is known by the police authorities of every city of the United States.

On the 14th of March last, L. H. Cohen of 116 Ellis street, San Francisco, secured a warrant from Judge Joachimsen for the arrest of A. B. Stanton, who he alleged had passed a worthless check for $33 upon him. The check was drawn on the Columbia Banking Company by John Croft and made payable to Edward McLaughlin.

Upon presenting the check at the bank, Cohen learned that McLaughlin was dead and that Croft was a fictitious person. He therefore swore out a warrant, but the police were unable to apprehend him.

Since March the Oakland police have been looking for the offender, but it was not till yesterday that they got any trace of him.

It was learned yesterday morning that Stanton, whose true name is said to be Alfred Burrohs, was in this city stopping at the Golden Eagle Hotel at Sixteenth street and San Pablo avenue. He was watched all day yesterday and sufficient evidence was secured to warrant his arrest. He was taken into custody this morning by Detective Shorey.

When arrested, Stanton was preparing another confidence scheme. He had had printed a lot of circulars which he was sending around to houses in envelopes marked:

"To any Married Lady, "(Private)."

The circulars contained an announcement that a book entitled, "A Guide to Happiness," would be mailed to any address post paid upon receipt of $1. They were signed "Professor J. A. Sawyer, Box 470, Oakland." The "Guide to Happiness" was represented to be a cure for all ills and would save the reader many dollars in bills.

The police claim that Burrohs has served time in the penitentiary three times.

Burrohs has been operating in most of the coast cities of late. In San Jose recently he was arrested for stealing a lot of jewelry from his landlady, a woman named Nightingale.

Burrohs, or Stanton, is known to the police also as Alfred Wyman. He is a middle-aged man and has a professional air.

Chief Crowley of San Francisco will send for the man this afternoon. The case against him is said to be an exceedingly strong one.

FELL WHILE WATCHING A FUNERAL PASS BY.

An Accident at Sacramento Which Injured Many People.

Twelve Persons Were Standing on a Porch When the Timbers Collapsed.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 12.—A serious accident occurred about 9 o'clock this morning at the residence of Captain A. Mendis, 1608 Second street, during the funeral ceremonies of his daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Tierney.

A dozen of people had gathered upon a porch twelve feet high in front of the building. The weight was too great for it, and the porch collapsed, throwing the people to the ground, injuring all of them. George H. Clark, the funeral director, had his head badly cut on the top, but his injury is not serious.

Mrs. E. O'Connor suffered a sprained ankle and had her head cut by a falling timber. George Vice was cut about the head. Mrs. Nellie McGraw and Mrs. M. F. Kent were quite seriously bruised about the body. Mrs. Therese Lombard had one of her legs broken, and Mrs. Builder had her cheek cut, the bone being exposed. The timbers of the porch had become rotten through age and the structure was not properly braced.

BRITISH NEWSPAPER'S IDEAS OF SHERMAN.

Would Be a Pity for Him to Rob Hanna of His Justly-Earned Honors.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The Westminster Gazette this afternoon publishes a long leading article in which the opinion is expressed that if Secretary Sherman should be forced to retire from the Cabinet he "will make Ohio too hot for Senator Hanna," adding: "It is awful to contemplate the results of Mr. Hanna being done out of price for making McKinley President.

"Some innocents may object that if Sherman is too senile to hold office he must be too senile for the Senate, but as a matter of fact no one has yet estimated how incompetent a man must be before the Senate is closed to him. In this he shares the advantage of the House of Lords.

"We are rather sorry if Secretary Sherman is to be superseded, as in his own rough way he expresses a phase of American feeling which it is important for us to know."

LOCKWOOD HAS A NEW PRINCIPAL.

Proposed Union High School Including Several Districts.

County Superintendent of Schools Garlick was notified this morning that the trustees of the Lockwood school district had elected J. C. Hammel to succeed A. F. Schulte as principal of the school.

Schulte thought there was more money to be found in picking up nuggets than planting ideas in the youthful mind, and accordingly sailed on the National City for Clondyke some time ago.

The people of the district are to hold a meeting soon, at which the question of issuing bonds for school purposes will be discussed.

There is a desire to establish a union High school in that section of the county, the idea has been suggested that such a scheme including the school districts of Melrose, Elmhurst, Olinda, Lockwood and Fruitvale would be successful.

WHEAT IS YET RISING

Pandemonium Reigned Today on Chicago's Board of Trade.

HIGHEST PRICES FOR YEARS.

Bears Fell All Over Each Other in Their Wild Rush to Cover.

SILVER STEADILY GOES DOWN.

Market Reports From the Leading Commercial Cities of the Country.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—The exciting scenes of 1891 were renewed on the Board of Trade today. The alarm among shorts which caused yesterday's 8-cent bulge was redoubled, and the farmer speculators were prominent figures on the floor of the 'Change and about the commission houses.

The foreign markets responded only in a half hearted manner to the advance yesterday. Liverpool and Paris advanced just about 1½ cents each, although the former soon made up the difference.

September wheat closed yesterday with sellers at 81¼. First trades were made this morning from 81⅝ to 81⅞. After a few moments' hesitation, pandemonium broke loose in the pit, and the bears fell over each other in their rush to cover. When September reached 84 cents, long stuff came out freely and the market sagged to 82⅝.

After some hesitation another advance set in which carried the price to the highest point for September reached in years, 84½. Sellers again turned the tide and a reaction followed to 83⅛ at the close.

Next to wheat, oats showed the best advance and closed ⅝ and ⅞ of a cent higher for September. Corn lagged and closed ⅜ of a cent higher for September.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Money on call nominally 1@1½ per cent. Primo mercantile paper, 3½@4¼. Sterling exchange weak with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85½ for demand and at $4.83@4.84 for sixty days. Posted rates $4.84¼@4.85 and $4.86½@4.87. Commercial bills $4.83, Silver certificates 56@57. Bar silver 55¾. Mexican dollars 42½.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The stock market opened with a clear show of strength, especially in the Grangers and high priced industrials. The international stocks were helped by higher prices in London. Tobacco moved up 1¼; Burlington and Northern Pacific about one point. Union Pacific opened with sales of 5,000 shares from 13 to 13½, against 12, last night's close. Sale of 8,000 shares quickly followed at prices from 13¾ to 14¼.

The advance received considerable impetus after the initial dealings owing to the execution of an accumulation of commission house orders over night, which included all of the leading properties and a sprinkling of the inactive specialties in which the gains were especially noteworthy. The low priced shares were heavily dealt in, with Union Pacific the feature. The Gould shares generally were particularly strong, with Western Union and Missouri Pacific in exceptional demand.

AMERICAN BISHOPS.

They Are Well Received and Treated by English Brethren.

AUTONOMY FOR THE CHURCH.

This Country Must Manage Its Own National Affairs.

NONCONFORMIST JOHN BUNYAN

A Memorial of Him Will Be Put in St. Saviors Church.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The Rt. Rev. Henry B. Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota, who has been one of the most prominent among the Bishops in attendance upon the Lambeth conference at the request of the Associated Press, has written the following views of the conference:

"The conference manifested a decided unanimity of feeling on all questions connected with work for missions and the social problems which at this time have so much interest for all thoughtful men. One of the most remarkable speeches of the conference was made by the Bishop of Washington, Dr. Satériee, on the social problems connected with the employer and employed, the keynote of which was that men do not need barbarity, but that they need what the gospel of Christ gives them, brotherhood as the children of one father. The Bishop of Albany occupied the foremost position in the conference, as one who always expressed himself with terse simplicity. Bishop Potter always has a hearing in England as well as at home for his wise and loving thoughtfulness.

"I think the American Bishops won the respect and love of their English brethren. There was a strong unanimity of feeling with all the American Bishops that while in fraternal love and brotherly sympathy our hearts are with the Church in England and the colonies, in defense of the faith and in the work of our Saviour, yet they stand and always will stand on the rights of the national church with its peculiar responsibilities to God and his children.

"The American Bishops have always maintained from the very first Lambeth conference that the American church must always stand upon its rights and maintain its autonomy as a national church and their English and colonial brethren all recognize that this is their position.

"They know that the American church does not desire to have any voice in internal affairs of the management of the missions of the church of England, nor does it desire to assume any of the responsibilities thereof. Neither does it (the English church) expect to take any share of the government or the burdens of the American church.

"There were signs throughout the conference that a power above men will be drawing Christians together. There was very much to cheer us in the story of the church's triumphs in mission fields, such as Uganda, where fifteen years ago there were five Christians and today there are 400 churches, 27,000 worshippers and 60,000 who can read the gospel.

"We have seldom been privileged to witness such gatherings as the missionary meetings held in connection with this conference. At Salisbury Cathedral 7,000 people celebrated the anniversary of the baptism of Ethelbert 1300 years ago. Ten thousand were present at a missionary meeting at Saint Saviour's Church and the Cathedrals of Southwell and Lichfield never had greater congregations than were drawn to the meetings there.

"It has been a pleasure to the Americans to meet some of the foremost men among the non-conformists who have shown the deepest interest in our deliberations. We were informed at a missionary gathering at the Church of St. Saviours that it is proposed to place in this beautiful church, one of the oldest in London and excelled in grandeur only by Westminster Abbey, a memorial to the non-conformist, John Bunyan. In St. Saviours John Rogers and other priests of the Church of England were condemned by their own kinsmen in Christ to die as martyrs, and that such memorial should be placed in this church is a marvelous sign of the times.

"The American Bishops take to their homes delightful memories of the open-hearted hospitality on every hand. But what impressed the American Bishops most was the new life which is stirring the Church of England to great ventures for God at home and abroad."

ELLSWORTH SCORES A DEFENDANT.

No Doubt That the Intention Was to Defraud the Plaintiff.

Judge Ellsworth non-suited the case of J. L. Hanley, a real estate agent of Alameda against J. L. Isaacs of Berkeley, and in doing so took occasion to score the defendant in a very lively manner.

Hanley sued to recover $50 which he claimed as commission in the matter of a sale of a piece of property on Park avenue near San Jose avenue, Alameda. He did not make the sale, but he was the instrument in the disposition of the property which was owned by a resident of that city. Isaacs was in love with the property and promised Hanley $50 if he (Hanley) would tell him from whom he could make the purchase. This promise was made in the presence of two witnesses and this testimony was produced on the stand. The none-suit was granted on a technicality.

In rendering his decision, Judge Ellsworth said that he had no doubt that the defendant had tried, and had tried deliberately to cheat the plaintiff out of his fee. While holding to that opinion he said he could not do otherwise than decide in favor of the defendant under the law.

KILLED A MAN BEFORE.

Mrs. Schofield's Former Mate Has Been a Murderer.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 11.—Mrs. Schofield has persistently denied all comers an interview for the last two days. When asked if her former husband, Mann, had been tried for murder in Santa Cruz county, she said it was true.

The affair occurred about ten or twelve years ago, she thought.

The man killed was an Italian with whom Mann had trouble. She says she does not remember his name, but Mann was acquitted.

NO LIVES WERE LOST

SEATTLE, Aug. 11.—The steamer Topeka from Alaska, arrived here early this morning, bringing the crew of the steamer Mexico, which was wrecked near Sitka.

When seen this morning Captain Thomas of the Mexico preferred to give out no extended statement concerning the loss of the Mexico pending the investigation to be made this afternoon by Inspector W. J. Bryant.

The captain was in bed when the accident occurred ,about 4:30 o'clock Thursday morning.

From the time the steamer struck the rock until she disappeared beneath the waves, about two hours elapsed.

Captain Thomas and Pilot Connell were the last to leave the sinking ship. The self-control of the passengers was commended by Captain Thomas, who said there was no unnecessary excitement, the passengers being aroused and put in boats with as many of their personal effects as possible.

THE CUMBERMERE CUTTING

John Walter Near Is Having His Preliminary Hearing Before Judge Allen.

The preliminary hearing of John Walter Near, which was commenced in the Police Court last evening, was resumed this morning. Near was arrested on a charge of assaulting Captain Burnard of the British ship Cumbermere, which was lying at Adams' Wharf. Near was one of the sailors of the vessel.

Deputy District Attorney Green continued the prosecution and Attorney Ned Ayres represented Near.

Captain Burnard was the first witness of the prosecution last night. He testified that he had refused permission to Near to go ashore and that he was going ashore himself when Near stabbed at him. He said Near was scuffling with the first mate and he had ordered Near to be put in irons, when Near grew violent and said he would not submit to being put in irons.

J. M. Thomas, a longshoreman, who had taken part in the affair identified the knife, which is a regular sailor's knife, with which the captain was cut.

This morning the witnesses were William Stevenson, the mate, John Smith, the ship carpenter, and Henry Jackson, a colored sailor.

Their testimony did not bring out anything new.

DUTY MUST BE PAID ON CANADIAN IMPORTS.

Important Case Decided Today in Regard to a Fortune in Diamonds.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The Attorney-General in an opinion to the Secretary of the Treasury rendered today decisions that goods and productions of a foreign country not contiguous to the United States which are regularly imported into Canada and afterwards exported to the United States are subjected to the discrimination of ten per cent provided for in section twenty-two of the new tariff act, and also that the method of conveyance whether by water, mail or otherwise, is not material.

The question whether goods transported through Canada to the United States under consular seal are subject to duty has not yet been determined. The case in point was that of ninety thousand dollars worth of diamonds, which were delayed at one of the frontier custom houses until this question was decided. The diamonds are subject to the 10 per cent duty.

ALMA WAS NEAR CLARA

The Younger Fallmer Was In the Park Hotel When Ladue Fell.

WHY DID SHE GO THERE?

Suspicion That She Knew of Her Sister's Intent to Kill.

THE WARRANT NOT YET READ.

News of Her Lover's Death Still Kept From the Girl.

Strange as it may seem, little Clara Fallmer, the murderess of Charles Ladue in Alameda, and who is now confined under the care of Dr. Fisher in the county jail, is of opinion that she has been removed thither solely because of wounding her lover, for she has not yet learned that her bullet has robbed him of his life, and that the remains of the young man were incinerated in San Francisco this afternoon.

Because of ignorance of these facts, the young woman maintains a remarkable degree of serenity and steadily makes a forward movement toward recovery.

The officers of the law say that they will not formally serve the warrant charging her with murder until the girl grows stronger, and, in this respect they will be guided by the instructions of Dr. Fisher, physician of the girl, who has now by virtue of the girl's change of location, come in charge of the case.

When the patient shall have attained sufficient strength to withstand the effect of a possible relapse which may be occasioned by the reading of the charge, is problematical. Dr. Fisher is as yet in the dark as to when to authorize the reading of the document, having only recently assumed the conduct of the case. He expects that in a day or two it may be necessary for him to perform an operation, the nature of which he does not yet know, for the purpose of accelerating improvement in the patient's condition. If the girl withstands the shock, then the chances are that the formal arrest will not long be delayed.

The ignorance which the girl labors under is maintained, notwithstanding that she is from time to time visited by officers of the jail in the discharge of their duty of nurses of the institution and of the patient's sister, a manicure, who has offices in the Kahn building.

The sister called last night twice. On the first visit, she remained an hour with her sister, and in the second one she remained only a few moments. She was to have called again this morning, but sent a note that she was sick.

EMOTIONS VARY.

There is no doubt entertained by the jail officials that when the news of Ladue's death shall be broached to the girl it will have a decided effect upon her feelings, because her emotions have been varying almost with the days which have passed over her since the murder.

When she was brought to the jail yesterday she was experiencing an elasticity of spirits, occasioned by a report that had reached her to the effect that Charlie Ladue had said that if he recovered from the shooting he would make her his wife.

The transport which the rumor occasioned was the antithesis of the feeling of resentment which only a few days previously she had given expression to with respect to Ladue, on which occasion she said that she then hated him as bitterly as she had tenderly loved him before.

Today there was still another change in the varying scale of the affections, and there was a suggestion of despair in some of her utterances, especially that in which she declared that if Ladue should die, she would certainly commit suicide.

The jail officials are aware of this fact and take no chances of allowing the young woman to escape a trial for her crime.

They never leave her alone, and have placed out of her reach anything with which she might be able to do injury to herself. More than that, they search the few relatives whom they allow to visit her. Thus far her mother has not put in an appearance at the jail, and indeed has not been to see the girl since the tragedy.

There are features in the case which are coming out slowly and which would seem to show more premeditation in the matter than was at first suspected. Certain male friends of the girl in Alameda are keeping shady and the police of that place have them under close surveillance lest they may be away when required to shed some light on the subject. Some people affect to believe that Clara was not alone in the crime and these are interested in knowing who was the accomplise, if there were any.

HER SISTER NEAR.

It has been ascertained that friends of hers were not far distant at the time of the shooting, and the most interesting discovery in this connection is the fact that at that time a younger sister Alma, was in the hall of the Park Hotel, and must have heard the shots of the murderess and would-be suicide. Whether or not Alma knew of the murderous intent of her sister is unknown, but it is certainly worthy of note that the sisters should have been so close together when the deed was done.

This Alma Fallmer, like the wounded girl, has had a varied career. She was the subject of some attention in Judge Greene's court this morning, the court nullifying all action taken by him to afford her the means for reformation guaranteed by the law.

In July of this year Alma was committed for incorrigibility to the Whittier Reform school. A brother of hers, R. H. Fallmer, stepped in and said that he would take the girl to his home and thus save her from a public institution. Judge Greene accordingly set the commitment aside and allowed the girl to go to her brother's home. The brother's wife, however, did not take kindly to the girl and declined to furnish her shelter and food. Accordingly a family named Edelstein on Sixth street agreed to care for the girl, and an order was made in their behalf in that respect. The Edelsteins and Alma became mutually tired of one another and then Green Majors stepped in, got Judge Ellsworth in Judge Greene's absence to set aside the order giving the Edelsteins custody of the girl. That left the girl free. She again went to her parents' home and her conduct was as objectionable as it had been before her commitment.

Today the matter came up before Judge Greene. It was shown that the girl had returned to her home, whereupon the court revoked all former orders in the case and thus the girl was as free as ever to do as she pleased.

The news that she was near by when her sister shot Ladue is being worked on by the police, and it is expected will lead to some interesting developments.

TWO HEARTS MADE ONE.

Miss Libbie Moffitt Becomes the Bride of Ernest Folger.

Father McSweeney Performed the Ceremony This Afternoon.

A pretty but rather quiet wedding took place yesterday at 3 o'clock at 568 Twenty-fourth street, the home of the bride, when Miss Libbie Moffitt and Ernest Folger were married.

Only the immediate relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Father McSweeney of St. Frances de Sales Church.

James Moffitt, an uncle of the bride gave her into the keeping of the groom. Miss Alice Moffitt was maid-of-honor and the groom was attended by his brother, Athearn Folger.

The pretty bride was exquisitely gowned in heavy white silk made very simply. She carried a shower bouquet of Nephetos buds.

Miss Alice Moffitt was gowned in pink organdie and carried a loose cluster of La France roses.

The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion. Pink was the prevailing color.

The ceremony was performed in an alcove of the parlor where amaryllis buds nodded against a background of green ferns. La France roses and pink sweet peas gave an exquisite fragrance to the air. The dining room, where a collation was served after the marriage service, was daintily decorated with La France roses.

Among the guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. James Moffitt, Misses Alice and Lucy Moffitt, Mrs. J. A. Folger, Mrs. George Cook, Mrs. Snook, Athearn Folger, Dr. Herbert Moffitt, James Moffitt Jr., Miss Beatrice Russell and Miss Marguerite Joliffe.

Miss Lucy Moffit wore a pretty gown of blue organdie and Miss Marguerite Joliffe was daintily clad in white organdie. Miss Russell wore a charming gown of dimity flowered with roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Folger will leave later on a wedding journey, its destination being kept a secret. On their return, they will reside in this city. Both are prominent and popular in society, here and across the bay. Mr. Folger is the youngest son of Mrs. J. A. Folger, and belongs to one of the wealthiest families in Oakland. The bride is also a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families on this side of the bay.

DEATH IN THE WRECK.

An Engineer Instantly Killed in a Collision at Sacramento.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

It is said the freight train had no right in the yard sat the time the accident occurred. No passengers were injured.

DROWNED IN THE ESTUARY.

There was a fatal accident aboard the British ship Yarana Monday afternoon, and as a result the body of William Stacey, an apprentice of the vessel, is believed to be crushed in the mud of the estuary beneath the Yarana's hull.

The ship arrived in port a month or six weeks ago and discharged a cargo of coal at the bunkers of the Oregon Improvement Company on the Adams wharf. After discharging she was towed over to the other side of the estuary to await a cargo of grain.

Monday the crew was put to work to paint the vessel's hull. A staging was rigged at the stern and a guy rope was attached to draw the staging close under the stern.

While five of the crew were at work Monday afternoon the guy rope broke, the staging swung out and all five were thrown into the water of the estuary.

Four of them swam around till a boat could be lowered and they were picked up but Stacey never rose.

All day yesterday and today the estuary has been dragged, but no trace of the missing body has been found.

The theory is that Stacey struck his head in falling and lodged under the vessel. When the tide went out the vessel settled into the mud driving the body with it. If such is the case it may be some time before it is recovered.

Stacey was a native of Dublin and shipped from Liverpool.

It Is Feared the Fearful Shock Will Rob Him of His Reason.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ARLINGTON, Or., Aug. 11.—The dwelling house of C. A. Shurte burned about midnight and Mrs. Shurte and her two sons perished.

They were overcome by smoke, and when taken out all were dead.

Shurte was awakened by fire in the sitting room, just below his bedroom, and ran down stairs immediately.

He found the flames spreading so rapidly as to cut off his return to the upper story. Heroic efforts were made to save his wife and children, but to no purpose.

Miss France, who was sleeping in the second story, jumped from a window and escaped.

There is great fear that Shurte will lose his reason. It is not known how the fire started.

A NOTED MAN DEAD.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 11.—James Crawford Embry, Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in South Carolina, died today.

During a recent visit to his district in the South he contracted a severe attack of malaria. He returned home, but grew rapidly worse.

Bishop Embry was born in Knox County, Indiana, November 2, 1834. From 1862 until the fall of Vicksburg he served on a supply boat carrying provisions for the army under General Grant. In August 1863, he entered the ministry and in 1876 was elected by the General Conference, Secretary of Education. In 1878 he was appointed secretary of finance and Treasurer of the church fund. He came to this city in 1884 and in May last was elected Bishop of the South Carolina District.

TRUE MERIT.

Successful Sale of Clothing at the Novelty.

Last week Chas. J. Heeseman, the genial proprietor of the Novelty Clothing Store at Broadway and Eleventh street, finding himself overstocked, having bought very heavily of fall goods previous to the passage of the Dingley bill, concluded to unload to make room for new goods arriving daily from Eastern fashion centers. He started a big sacrifice sale, the reductions throughout his stock being big and genuine. He announced this fact in the Tribune. The result was a crowded store filled with delighted bargain seekers, proving conclusively that a genuine reduction sale of first class seasonable goods, properly advertised, always proves successful. This intelligent community know genuine bargains when they are offered to them by a legitimate concern like the Novelty—hence the phenomenal success of their present great sale now running at full blast. The Novelty is the best clothing store in all Oakland to get a square up and up honest 100 cents' worth of merchandise for every dollar.

Chicago Markets.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—September wheat advanced 3 cents today and closed strong at 81½, the highest point touched by September wheat since 1891. Fifty-seven cents was the ruling price one year ago today.

The opening strength in the foreign markets started a scare among shorts, and their covering operations were carried out on an extensive scale throughout the session. Foreigners accepted freely of cash offers at 5 and 10 cents premium over Saturday. They were credited with selling distant futures, and some evidence of this may be found in the fact that the December premium entirely disappeared today.

Crop news from the Northwest and the decline in condition shown by the Government crop report were the chief factors which combined to stir up the shorts.

ARRESTED A MAN AND LET HIM GO.

Now a District Attorney and a Sheriff Are In Trouble.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Jacob N. Sampson, a former assistant District Attorney of Lenawee county, Mich., who was indicted in this county for allowing a prisoner to escape, was arraigned before Judge Fitzgerald in the Court of General Sessions today.

Sampson and Sheriff Ferguson of the same county, came to this city some months ago to get an embezzler named Anton Christiansen, but let him go. For this the two men were indicted.

Ferguson went back to Michigan and Governor Pingree refused to give him up, to the New York authorities. Sampson was arrested and gave bail. Today his case was placed on the September calendar.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The Union Iron Works of San Francisco has telegraphed the Navy Department asking permission to supply the armor for the battleship Wisconsin which they are building just as the Cramps have done in the case of the Alabama.

In reply the firm has been notified that the department will enter into a correspondence with them on the subject. The offer will be accepted if it is made on the same terms of Cramps offer.

Her Pocket Picked.

Mrs. Fisher C. Worley of Colusa county, who is visiting at 548 William street, has reported to the police that her pocket was picked on either Broadway or Washington street yesterday afternoon.

The lady was out shopping, and went to several stores. When she was ready to return to her home, she found that she was minus a purse containing a diamond ring, a tortoise ring, a silver pin, $5 in gold and several dollars in silver.

CLEVELAND THE TOOL OF PLUTOCRACY.

So Declared Before Virginia's State Democratic Convention.

HOT SHOT FOR DINGLEY'S BILL.

It Is Called "Deep Damnation" Which Is Loudly Cheered.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ROANOKE, Va., Aug. 11.—The Democratic State Convention was called to order at noon today. The duty of calling the convention to order devolved upon General George J. Hundley as chairman. Hon. J. Taylor Ellison is a candidate for Governor. Nearly all of the 1,548 delegates were present.

The platform will hardly be submitted today. Its declaration on free silver and other Chicago planks will be unequivocal. A most determined fight will take place over the proposition to adopt a plan for nominating United States Senators by primary. Developments indicate that the most conspicuous party leaders in the State will antagonize it. The best informed leaders predict the defeat of the primary idea.

G. D. Letcher of Lexington, the temporary chairman of the convention, was introduced by General Hundley as the representative of the "Young Democracy" of Virginia. Every reference by the temporary chairman to Bryan and the Chicago platform was heartily cheered.

The speaker made a vigorous and earnest defense of the Chicago platform, especially the planks favoring a Federal income tax and denouncing government by injunction. His arraignment of the "deep damnation" of the Dingley tariff law was received with cheers.

With reference to the plank in the Chicago platform touching the interference of the Federal Government with local affairs, the temporary chairman said this was intended for President Cleveland. If he sent troops to Chicago without the request of the Illinois Governor and simply used the interference with the mails as an excuse, then it applied to him.

"But it is my opinion," said Mr. Letcher, "that Cleveland was the tool of plutocracy in this as in other things, and that the movement of the mails was simply an excuse for the use of troops."

The indications today are that the ticket will be: Tyler for Governor, Edward E. Chols of Staunton for Lieutenant Governor, and for Attorney General either ex-United States Attorney Montague of Danville or ex-United States District Attorney F. R. Lassiter of Petersburg.

At 1 o'clock the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.

There was an informal conference this morning in the District Attorney's office between Mr. Snook and the Board of Supervisors, all the members of which were present.

It was called to determine what steps should be taken to secure plans for the proposed bridge over the harbor at Webster street.

A general discussion took place, but the meeting ended without any conclusion having been arrived at.

Hides Dutiable.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Assistant Secretary Howell has decided that hides of American cattle slaughtered abroad are dutiable on being returned to the United States at the rate of 15 per cent ad valorem, under section 437 of the new tariff.

It is held that taking the hides from cattle, salting and drying them, materially changes and improves their condition as an article of commerce so that the article imported is entirely different from that exported.

Insane From Infancy.

Emma Wilder was taken to the Receiving Hospital this morning violently insane. The woman is a spinster, 30 years of age, and has recently been residing with Mrs. Flood at Fourteenth and West streets. She has been insane ever since she was 7 years of age, and although the physicians warned her relatives that she might become dangerous at any moment, she showed no violent symptoms until a day or two ago, when she attempted to choke Mrs. Flood.

After this frenzy, she was taken to the Gospel Healing Home to be treated, and as she showed no signs of being cured, she was removed to the Receiving Hospital this morning.

A Clerical Error.

He has forwarded a reply setting forth that they comprised both, and that an amended roll would be forwarded to the Board. The omissions are the result of a clerical error.

THURSDAY.....AUGUST 12, 1897.

Chilcoot is an appropriate name for the icy Alaska pass. Everything seems to have a chill connected with it up there.

Co-education is growing. There are 598 female students enrolled at Berkeley this term, the pupils being gathered from all parts of the State.

They are so patriotic at Auburn that even the children there are generally born with Auburn hair, judging by the congratulatory notices in the News of that city.

What a fine opportunity for confidence operators to sell gold bricks from Alaska. With a confederate disguised as a gulleless Chilcoot Indian, the game ought to be an easy one just now.

The Czar of Russia is said to draw a salary of $2,500,000. As he already owns the whole country, it seems useless to be on the pay-roll, for it savors of taking the money from one pocket and putting it in the other.

The Colusa Sun tells its readers how Mr. Vance gives daily entertainment to the guests of Cook Springs by teaching his daughter how to swim. Mr. Vance must be a very poor instructor, otherwise the entertainment would very quickly play out.

Our last opportunity to get the Wilmerding school has gone. Despite the earnest and well-timed plea of Regent Martin to locate it on this side of the bay, decisive action has been taken, the Regents having selected the Potrero in San Francisco as a site.

Joaquin Miller's Mazatlan sausage is evidently not what he cracked it up to be. The dispatches from the north state that he played out almost in the first lap and had to hire somebody to carry the pack that he announced he was going to haul on his back to Clondyke.

Few will believe it, but it is a fact nevertheless, that a public drinking fountain is being constructed at Louisville, Kentucky. It is to be charged with real water, too, so it looks as if all the traditions and sentiments of the once famous State are being swept away by one one of the whirlwinds of temperance.

Senator McEnerney of Louisiana can well afford to laugh at the Democratic Southern papers that are roasting him for having voted for the tariff bill. The wages of the sugar operators in his State have already been advanced 15 per cent since the passage of the protective measure.

The Alaskan rush has resulted in big orders for almost every California industry. Thousands of sacks of flour have been demanded and the woolen mills are all running at top pressure. In addition to this, all the dry goods and supply stores are doing a big business in furnishing the special outfits required for the north.

We won't have occasion to ship much of our good American gold to Europe this year to pay debts contracted by us on the other side. Items like the one that recently appeared in the dispatches to the effect that forty steamers were chartered in New York in a single day to carry American wheat to foreign ports mean the turning of the tide in our direction.

The man who stays out all night at Clondyke in the winter time has plenty of opportunity to see the town. On December 21st the day is but three hours and thirty-four minutes in length, the sun rising at 10:13 A. M. and setting at 1:47 P. M. By the way, those who are making agreements to work by the day in the mining season had better be a little careful. In June the day is over twenty hours long.

If it be true that Andree's balloon has been seen floating in the Northern Seas then indeed is all hope gone for the professor and his two daring companions. When it was learned that he had started without drag-ropes other aeronauts called attention to the extreme danger thus entailed, for it meant additional hazards in attempting to effect a landing. But where are the pigeons? They surely could have flown safely away.

The State Lunacy Commission has issued an order that will be generally endorsed. It instructs superintendents of State hospitals that they must adhere strictly to the law which provides that State institutions must give preference to goods manufactured or produced in this State when contracting for or purchasing other property. This means the encouragement of home industry and will be another check on the indiscriminate purchase of foreign goods that unfortunately prevails to a large extent in California.

THE VISITING TYPOS.

Oakland extends a hearty welcome to the delegates to the Typographical Convention. The Union includes as fine a set of men as belong to any other labor organization in the country, and that they are above the average in intelligence is proved by the nature of the work they do, and the satisfactory manner in which they accomplish it.

The Typographical Union has for many years past been one of the most powerful unions in the world. It has had the good fortune to be officered by energetic, capable men and as the members of the craft are always loyal to its principles and to one another, they have been able to accomplish practically everything they have started out to do. The system as arranged in the national rules is a perfect one, and there are never any of those internal dissensions that mar the effective work of other trade organizations.

There are many who have an idea that since the introduction of the linotype, the Printers' Union has been tottering. Such is not the case. It is as strong as it ever was, for the operatives of the machines are all members of the Union, and are sure to stick to it for they know it means the protection of their calling. Furthermore, the printers are by no means dependent on the newspapers, for there are innumerable job offices all over the country in which there is a steady demand for good men. The Union, too, prides itself and justly so, on the efficiency of its members. No one can get a card until he has served a long and arduous apprenticeship, during which he is initiated into every branch of the business. When a Union man presents himself for employment, therefore, the hirer always knows that if the engagement is closed he is getting a man thoroughly competent to perform all his duties.

Oaklanders will do well to entertain the delegates royally. Their homes are in all parts of the State, and as they have been chosen to represent bodies of intelligent men, it stands to reason they are pre-eminently worthy of consideration. Their newspaper training has made them close observers and good judges of their surroundings, and we want them when they return to their homes to be able to say words of praise for our town and to commend the hospitality and enterprise of our citizens.

PROOFS OF PROSPERITY.

No one can now question the fact that prosperity is fast returning to the country. There are indications on every side, and convincing proof is being daily added by the releases of mortgages and the turning of money into channels that have long been dry. In order to make sure that the improvement in business is not sporadic "The Chicago Grocer," the leading journal in its line, recently sent circular letters all over the country asking for comparisons of business between this year and last and also for comments on the general situation.

The replies show that nearly 50 per cent have an increase in the volume of business for the first half of 1897, as compared with the first half of 1896. Thirty per cent report business about the same and 20 per cent show a decrease. In the West 70 per cent give an increase, 15 per cent no change and 15 per cent a decrease. Seventy per cent of the entire country say that they recognize signs of definite improvement, which is, of course, the most encouraging deduction obtained from the reports. The calamity howlers will therefore have to cease their wails, for the stimulation of business is one of the best indications possible of the restoration of confidence and the circulation of money.

The Ventura Press discourages the intending Clondykers of its town as follows: "Even the chill snows of the Chilcoot Pass do not cool the brow of the man stricken with Clondyke fever when he hears of them at this distance. However, it may be different when he sinks twelve or fifteen feet into a snowdrift and is hauled out to clasp hands with the icy chill of a wind from the glaciers with a temperature of 70 or 80 degrees below zero."

It has at last been discovered why champion pugilists are such windy talkers. A deaf mute in Iowa in a boxing match, received a violent blow on the ear and instanly obtained his hearing and the power of speech. Now, if being struck on the ear will give a dumb man speech, what must be the effect on those who are already able to talk?

The Visalia Times bursts forth into eulogy as follows: "Visalia has a history. It has a reputation. It is known as the center of an exceedingly rich district. It is known as a producer of fine fruits." We can justly add to the last sentence—"and bandits." Evans and Sontag have not yet passed out of memory.

The Schofield tragedy is giving the detective reporters another fine opportunity to use their wits. The Pacific Coast is remarkably prolific in mysterious murders and the papers don't fail to make lots of capital out of them.

Famine has stationed itself this side of the Chilcoot, and is already waving its bony finger at the gold-crazed treasure hunters and warning them to turn back. The more sensible are, it is pleasing to see, taking the advice.

A gentleman named W. Cooler has just started a paper at San Jacinto and calls it The Sun. He is evidently going to temper its rays in case they shine too warmly where they are not wanted.

Bryan is going to Mexico. As the silver dollar is only worth 43 cents there, he will have a hard time trying to convince the natives that it is the natural medium of the country.

WHEN WOMAN VOTES.

Hush, my babe, lie still and slumber,
Father's watching at thy bed,
Mother's off electioneering
With a halo round her head.
Soft and easy'll be her cradle
When she's at the Nation's head,
While with kitchen work I wrestle,
Coarse and hard is father's bed.
Hush, my dear, thy food and raiment,
House and home thy ma provides;
She's a stunner, babby darling;
Gracefully her bike she rides.
Hush, my babe, lie still and slumber,
Father wants to go to bed;
Mother won't be home till morning,
Going to make a speech, she said.
So we'll lay us down and slumber,
Slumber sweet till morning breaks,
Father then must be a-humping,
Mother wants hot griddle cakes.

FASHION'S FANCIES.

A short puffed sleeve, frills of lace or embroidery are now seen in the long time sleeveless corset cover. The necks are more often cut square than round and finished with bands of needlework and rows of insertion.

The Spanish flounce is a favorite mode for trimming the dress skirt, as well as the silk petticoat. On the latter it forms a foundation for an elaborate garniture and is enhanced by rows of black or shaded velvets, set on in clusters of threes and fives, leaving the intervening spaces the depth of the ribbon groups. The flounce is headed with lace or silk quillings.

Women who have discarded kid gloves for the sultry season and still have a tender regard for the whiteness of their hands are wearing silk gloves and silk mitts in black and shades of gray.

A pretty conceit is a new sash of black moire ribbon finished along the ends and lengthwise edges with a double ruffle of black and white lace, the black over the white.

A veil of white tulle almost invisible protects the summer girl's hair from the July breezes encountered on the cable cars.

White parasols are undergoing a midsummer freshening, which is effected by colored coverings of silk tissue. The length required is twice that of the distance around the outside rim of the parasol, shirred close and gathered full in the center. A flued ruffle of ribbon corresponding in color with the tissue, or double frills of the tissue, make a graceful finish.

A Kansas City woman who owns a handsome cream lace bolero lines it with cloth of gold when she wears it with a black grenadine gown. When her dress is to be something light and fleecy for evening wear, that same bolero is faced over delicate green, pink or lavender with ribbons to match.

The tailor made gown of the fall season is to be of black and white check. In its simplicity of finish and perfection of fit it is all that its name implies. The close jacket, remarkably long waisted, is fastened with inconspicuous buttons. A medium turn down collar rests over the high linen collar and black satin tie. The sleeves are made on the bias of the check, almost molded to the arm with a "held in" fullness at the shoulder, but no visible gathers or pleats. The style is one particularly becoming to a good form.

Monogram fans are engaging the attention of young collegians home for vacation. The fan itself is of paper, in delicate tones, and its decorative feature is the array of monograms cut from letter heads. Many of these are in gold, silver, shades of purple and glowing reds. The letters are cut out, leaving as little of the surrounding paper as possible, the larger ranged in the upper half circle of the fan, where the blades are widest. After the surface is well filled, the fan is enhanced by a coat of transparent picture varnish. As the monograms are those of school friends, the fan becomes, in time, a memory album of special interest.

PEOPLE AND THINGS.

Near Elgin, Oregon, is a young woman who daily hauls to town a load of ties and unloads them herself.

There is a 15-year-old widow at Covington, Ky. The girl was married a year ago to a 19-year-old boy, all the parents consenting. Her husband died a few days ago.

At Shelbyville, Ind., a constable who attempted to eject a woman in default for rent was chased from the premises by the irate female, who threw boiling water at him. The constable was badly crippled with rheumatism, and his rheumatism has left him.

After the three Cornell victories a professor of that institution noticed a tipsy freshman in a horse car. "Been on a drunk?" he inquired. A gleam of fellowship sparkled in the eye of the freshman as he replied, after giving the college yell: "So have I."

In Cowley, Sumner, and other counties in Kansas girls and young women are hiring themselves as regular farm hands. They get $2 and $3 a day, and they run the binders and drive the teams, though managing the heavy sheaves is yet rather difficult. It is said that women stand the heat better than men.

General G. W. Eustis Lee has presented to the Lee-Jackson camp of Confederate Veterans of Lexington a lantern used by his father, General Robert E. Lee, in his tent during the civil war. The lantern is large and substantial, the metal work being of brass, and it is in a good state of preservation. A candle was used to furnish light.

Governor Bradley of Kentucky, who, on his recent outing trip in the woods, shaved off his beard, was called back home before he had time to change his old camp clothes, and his office boy, who had always seen him with neat clothes and long beard, refused to let him in. It was several minutes before he could gain admission to his own office.

Miss Agnes Weston, known in England as "the mother of the British bluejackets," has done more for the uplifting of the English sailor than any other woman. She has established many "rests," and during the thirty years of her labor has done much for the cause of temperance among the tars. Her temperance magazine, Ashore and Afloat, has met with such flattering success that the United States authorities have especially requested her to mail the magazines to American warships.

The poet Rogers was afflicted with a cadaverous countenance, which, with all his intellectual power, was a mortification to him. To hide his annoyance he joked about his ugliness incessantly. He once turned to Sidney Smith, who was dining with him, and said: "Chantrey wants to perpetuate this miserable face of mine. What pose would you suggest that I should take?" "If you really wish to spare the world as much as possible," said the wit, "I would, if I were you, be taken at my prayers—my face buried in my hands."

Cora—College men seem very much inclined to take life easy.

Dora—Yes; even when they graduate they do it by degrees.—Brooklyn Life.

IN THE SUBURBS.

Berkeley Improvement Clubs Will Look After the Water Supply.

TROUBLE IN SECURING BOOKS.

The Grammar School Pupils Must Now Wait Awhile.

THEY WERE WED ON THE SLY.

An Alameda Couple Who Joined Hands, But Kept Quiet.

BERKELEY, Aug. 12.—The North and South Berkeley Improvement Clubs have decided to see what can be done to overcome the threatened water famine. The North End Club has appointed a committee to investigate the advisability of sinking artesian wells. The South End Club listened to a lengthy communication from the Contra Costa Company in reply to their protest against the service, in which the company explained the causes of the poor supply. A return communication was ordered to be sent to the company asking for information as to the hours the supply is decreased, in order to give consumers a chance to make provision against a shortage.

The recorder at the State University estimates that the incoming class will number 500 if not more. There is a larger proportion of co-eds than ever before.

Lieutenant Sidney A. Cloman, the new commandant at the University of California, will be a strong friend of the college athletes. A number of students have already interviewed him and are overjoyed at the prospects for closing the old breach between the military department and the athletes, backed by the student body.

The most important step which has been taken in this direction is the changing of the drill hour. The announcement of courses says that drill will be held on Monday and Wednesday mornings at 11:15 o'clock, instead of Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3:45 o'clock. This leaves the foothall men, track athletes and baseballers free in the afternoon.

Professor E. W. Hilgard of the Agricultural College of the State University has received word from the United States Civil Service Commission that in view of the fact that no eligibles resulted from the examination which was held on July 28th to establish a register from which an appointment may be made to the position of assistant chief in the division of soils in the Department of Agriculture, another examination will be held. The salary of the position is $1,800 per annum and only males are eligible.

The following reception committee for freshmen has been appointed by the College Young Men's Christian Association: Reno H. Hutchinson, Charles Pierce, F. R. Fairchild, E. C. Swan, L. H. Earle, G. A. Mayse, F. R. Watson, Harry Waste, Carl Warner, A. Thayer, W. H. Spaulding, W. P. Drum, Harold Bradley, H. Davis, Noel H. Garrison, M. L. McCullough, A. C. Ciney, C. W. Peck, L. S. Gear, James P. Grant, Daniel R. Curtis, Philip S. Cummings, Thomas Elston, James M. Graham, William A. Harkley, B. E. Hooper, J. Kennedy, R. B. Lloyd, L. Muller, R. Belcher and Melville Dozier.

More trouble has arisen in the Berkeley school department. The new books ordered by the Board of Education last week are not to be had. There are no copies in California and it will take some weeks to get them. Over 100 students have been unable to secure the new books and as a result the classes cannot go ahead.

Work has commenced on the new botanical building at the State University. It is situated between the Bacon Library and Strawberry Creek and will cost $6,200. The elevation is plain and simple, following in its main details the Greek style of architecture. The interior is arranged with a view to light and room. On the first floor will be two private laboratories and offices to be used by Professors Setchell and Ousterhout. The remainder of the floor will be devoted to the general laboratory. On the second floor will be situated the herbarium and laboratories. The third floor will be used as a mounting department. The building is to be completed in November.

There will be a business and social meeting of the members of Oak Chapel Christian Endeavor Society at the residence of Mrs. O. J. Backus in Linda Vista Terrace, Friday night at 7:45 o'clock.

The management of Blair Park has a big vaudeville bill for next Sunday afternoon. Among the specialties will be Adgie the lion tamer and her den of lions.

Ed. Larkin will go to Calavaras on a camping trip with a party of friends.

Mr. Hawley is expected to return shortly from a camping trip to Trinity county.

Mrs. Catton and family have moved from their home in the Weston Tract to Berkeley.

SOMETHING ABOUT CHINS.

The chin, taken in connection with the rest of the face, is almost as good an index of character as is the thumb. Slovens have wrinkles around their chins.

Drunkards usually have a circular line about their chins.

Square chins, with little flesh, denote firmness and good executive ability. The owners make good haters.

Broad chins signify nobleness and large dignity, unless vertically thin; when if thin, bloodless lips go with them, you will find cruelty.

Owners of long, thin chins are poetical, unstable and delicate in constitution.

Medium chins, with a suggestive bifurcation in the center on the order of a dimple, with small mounds of flesh on either side, characterize generosity, impulsiveness and a cheery nature. The same size chins, with a dab of flesh under the center of the lower lip, indicate meanness, selfishness and brutality.

A small, well rounded chin indicates a pleasure loving nature, and if dimpled, all the more so, for dimpled chins belong to coquettes. People with dimples love to be petted and liked and are fond of admiration and praise. They are generally fickle. Usually the owner of this chin is healthy, recuperative and long-lived.

A retreating chin shows lack of force—mentally, morally and physically; the owner is of the yielding kind, soon discouraged, needs protection and has small executive force. The development of other faculties usually make up for this lack.

Protruding chins characterize men and women of the get-there type. Successful people usually carry their chins thrust forward, with compressed lips. If this style of chin is heavy and swelling it denotes fighting blood.

THE DISGUISE.

Sweet Cupid sat on a mossy bank
With a tear in his round blue eye,
His wings were draggled with silver dew
And his quiver and bow flung by.
The butterflies came from the garden near
And perched on his dimpled toes,
And a honeybee sipped at his crimson lip
And thought it an opening rose.

"Not an arrow went to its mark today,
I wasted them all," he sighed.
"My wings and my curls too well they know,
So the men and the maidens hide.
My mother must clip my pinions close,
And must braid my locks of gold,
And I'll borrow the frock of a damsel fair
My roseate limbs to fold."

So now no more in the flowery field
Or the wood where the thrushes sing
Do we hear the patter of naked feet,
Or the sweep of an airy wing.
He has stolen the gown of a pretty girl,
And her hat with its drooping plume,
And a cluster of velvety violets blue
From his breast to shed perfume.

He has donned her veil with its broidered edge,
And her gloves of the palest gray,
And hides his brow in her fluffy fan
Before he goes out to slay.
He has clipped his wings and braided his curls,
But beware of his roguish eyes,
For sly little Cupid is still the same
In spite of his new disguise.

PROFESSIONAL MEN SET ASIDE.

A Business Man Will Go to St. Petersburg From This Country.

The Choice Falls Upon Ethan Hitchcock of St. Louis.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12.—A special to the Globe Democrat from Washington says:

Ethan Allen Hitchcock of St. Louis has accepted the Russian mission. He was, in no sense, a candidate. His name was not suggested to the President by anybody. The first mention of Mr. Hitchcock in connection with the appointment came from the President. When the offer was first made, Mr. Hitchcock was disinclined to accept. He was spending the summer in New Hampshire. Before finally deciding, Mr. Hitchcock communicated with the President at Lake Champlain. He soon learned that the tender had not been intended as a compliment, but because the President had in view the need of special qualifications for the post and felt that his St. Louis friend possessed them.

After full exchange of views with the President, Mr. Hitchcock decided to accept. Information to this effect reached Washington today. Mr. Hitchcock started on Monday for St. Louis to put his affairs in order to go to St. Petersburg. It may be several weeks before he is ready to qualify and sail.

A close friendship between the President and Mr. Hitchcock has existed for many years. As one of the pioneer plate glass manufacturers of this country, Mr. Hitchcock has been in Washington a great deal during tariff legislation. These visits promoted the friendship. Mr. Hitchcock has been a highly successful business man. For various reasons the President has desired that the new minister to St. Petersburg should be a business man. He ruled out of consideration several lawyers and professional men whose names were presented to him, explaining the qualifications the next minister must possess.

A month ago he confided to those nearest to him his intention too appoint Mr. Hitchcock, if he would accept, because of business ability.

Mr. Hitchcock takes the place of Clayton R. Breckenridge of Arkansas.

MINING ENGINEERING.

An Important Branch Added to the Course in Heald's College.

Heald's Business College of San Francisco, than which no similar institution in the United States ranks higher, has in characteristic fashion, just added to its many practical advantages a department of civic and mining engineering, including the study of geology, mineralogy, blow-pipe analysis, economic geology, surveying, milling and mining, chemistry and assaying. The recent unusual interest taken in mining throughout the coast has at once created a demand at the hands of young and ambitious men and women for a source of knowledge in the direction that both rapidly and effectually fits them to more intelligently handle the natural advantages from which their future must be shaped.

This department is placed in the efficient hands of A. H. Packer, for years in the employ of the government in these respective branches of science and one who has had a broad practical experience in nearly every State in the United States and Canada.

This course will require from six months to a year's study, depending upon the aptitude of the student for its completion and its value when acquired must be apparent to all. The Healds Business College has the most complete curriculum of any business college in the world, and has the honor of having graduated many of the most successful business men of the State.

A BUSY BOARD SESSION.

City Equalizers Adjust the Assessor's Various Estimates.

The second meeting of the Board of Equalization was not so long as the meeting of Monday evening, and there was not so much talking done. One weary soul went to see whatever fun might occur, and when the meeting was over he was found by nightwatchman Holland stretched out at full length upon one of the back benches, fast asleep. Still, there were several exciting scenes.

The Board met shortly after 8 o'clock last evening.

The Clerk said that the first thing in order would be the selection of a temporary chairman, and Mr. Rowe, seconded by Mr. Girard, nominated Mr. Heitmann for the position. There being no other nomination, Mr. Heitmann took the chair and called the meeting to order.

Clerk Tompkins then stated that he had received the subsequent assessment roll, which contained the assessments of the annexed district, from the City Assessor, and he was directed to advertise the fact and also to advertise the fact that the Board would not meet later than 12 o'clock midnight on August 18th.

The first business considered was the application of Leopold Lusar for a reduction of the assessment of his lot, 50x100 feet, on Delger street and Telegraph avenue. The lot was assessed at $2,000 and the improvements at $1,000.

Lasar claimed that the lot and improvements should not have been assessed for more than $2,000, and he asked for a reduction of $1,000. He said the building was a very old one, having been built twenty-five years ago.

On motion of Mr. Fibush, the assessment of the lot was allowed to remain at $2,000, but the assessment of the improvements was cut to $500.

The application of the East Oakland Street Railway Company was then taken up.

The first item was the assessment of the line from Eighth and Broadway, over Fifth avenue, East Eighteenth street, Fourteenth avenue, East Twenty-first street, to the eastern boundary of the city. The application was for a reduction from $16,815 to $8,577.

Mr. Cuvellier said he would like to ask Mr. Vandercook of the line some further questions.

"How many years," asked he, "has the road been in operation?"

"The greater portion of it since November, 1892," answered Mr. Vandercook.

"Does it, or has it ever paid expenses?" was asked.

"Never," was the answer.

"Then it has been losing right along?"

"Yes, sir."

"When you built the road was it at a time when electric roads first came into general use in this city, and dynamos, machinery, etc., were of more value than at present?"

"It was."

"Do you consider that the machinery and the road in general has deteriorated to the extent that you have asked for reduction?"

"I do; you could not sell the machinery at the figures to which we wish the assessment reduced."

"Do you think your creditors would take the road off your hands at the price to which you desire the assessments reduced?"

"That would be a difficult question to answer. We have been unable to sell the road, although we have striven to do so. Nobody wishes to buy at the present time. The mortgage on the road may be foreclosed Monday. An application similar to the one before you was presented to the County Board of Equalization, and the reductions asked for were granted after the matter had been thoroughly discussed."

"How does the Assessor arrive at a valuation of the property?"

"As I understood Mr. Dalton at the session of the County Board, when the question was asked of him, he had in mind the original cost of the road, and he figured what he considered a liberal cost. That applied to the road. He was asked what method he used in regard to the franchises, and he was forced to admit that there was a great deal of guess work.

"The original issue of bonds was for $250,000, of which $90,000 went for the work of building the road."

"What price do you hold the road at?"

"We have tried to sell, but we have never set the figures. Like every one else, we want as much as we can get for the road."

Then Mr. Vandercook spoke of the feeling prevalent against corporations.

"I am here this evening," said he, "not so much as a representative of the road as an individual who believes that one of the best inducements we as a city could offer to those having capital to invest would be to lend a helping hand to struggling corporations. Capitalists will not build when they know they are going to be fought at the very outset. There are a number of corporations in the city today that have never made any money, but they are struggling along and have to borrow money on which to exist. You can never have a flourishing city when a corporation has to borrow money to pay its taxes.

"A friend of mine, an Eastern capitalist, some years ago bought a piece of land on the water front with the intention of building a manufactory. He was here lately and said that he would like to build, but he was actually afraid, owing to the feeling that exists in this city against corporations. On that account, Oakland has a bad name in the East."

Mr. Henneberry then moved that the application of the company be granted.

Mr. Rowe said he sympathized with the corporations or individuals that made investments which did not pay. He said he even sympathized with himself, for he had made an investment in real estate that was really a burden to him. Probably two-thirds of the citizens of the city were in the same boat. It was to be regretted. It was to be regretted that the country was not in such a flourishing condition that everybody was making money. But he believed that the Council could not allow that sympathy to bias its decision. There was a duty to perform. It was not a question of what property would be worth in the future nor of what it would bring under the hammer. It was a question of what the property was actually worth. He thought they should all bear their share of the burden till the hard times had passed.

"I would like to ask Mr. Snow," said Mr. Cuvellier, "on what basis we should go in establishing these valuations. Is it on what it is worth on the first Monday in March, or on what it will be worth in the future. I ask you, sir (addressing Mr. Snow), because I know you have had experience, that you are a fair minded man and that you are a competent official."

"You should ask the City Attorney that question," said Mr. Snow. "It is purely a question of law, but I think the City Attorney will bear me out when I say that the Assessor is directed to assess property at its full cash value."

City Attorney Dow then quoted the statute relating to assessing property at its full cash value.

MR. SNOW TALKS.

Mr. Snow then spoke of the manner in which Assessor Dalton had arrived at the valuation of the line. Taking as an example the poles, he said, since the basis for assessment should be the cost of any item, that the Assessor had probably counted the poles and found that there were 110 to the mile. Multiplying this by the cost of the poles, which was about $17, the cost arrived at would be about $1,870 a mile.

"You might cut that one-half," said he, "but see what it would leave you. Every item should be determined in this way.

"I am here under the law, gentlemen, to defend the Assessor's figures. These gentlemen have a right—every property owner has a right—to protest against the Assessor's figures, and it is for you to decide what is just and equitable, but when you come to attack the Assessor it is another matter. The law lays down certain rules and the Assessor is bound under it.

"You gentlemen are not here simply to hear applications for reductions. You are equalizers.

"When you reduce one man's assessment, you should reduce his neighbor's if it is in a similar condition."

"The neighbor has the privilege to ask for a reduction, has he not?" asked Mr. Cuvellier.

"He certainly has," answered Mr. Snow, "but you have no right to reduce a man's assessment simply because he comes to you. You are equalizers, and when you reduce one assessment you should reduce all similar assessments."

Then Mr. Vandercook called attention to the fact that the East Oakland road was a public necessity, and if sold it would simply be worth what it would bring as old junk.

Mr. Cuvellier said that while he did not wish to relieve a corporation of its just burdens, still he did not feel like many people against corporations. The belief that corporations were the embodiment of all that was cruel, heartless and corrupt was in many instances erroneous, he said.

He then moved that the assessment be reduced from $16,875 to $13,000.

Mr. Fibush moved an amendment to $10,000, but there was no second.

Mr. Upton said that every one should be made to put his shoulder to the wheel and stand his share of the municipal burden.

Mr. Henneberry said that, from the sworn statement of Mr. Vandercook, and he believed Mr. Vandercook had spoken the truth, the company was not paying, and yet it was a great, almost an indispensible convenience to the public. He did not believe in taxing a man to drive him out of business.

The assessment was reduced to $13,000 by the following vote:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—8.

Noes—Fibush, Henneberry—2.

Absent—Pringle—1.

The second item was the reduction of the assessment on the Eighth avenue branch of the line from $2,000 to $1,000.

It was denied unanimously.

The third item was the Trestle Glen branch, on which the company wished a reduction from $5,725 to $3,200.

Mr. Cuvellier asked if the Trestle Glen branch was not the best paying portion of the road, and Mr. Vandercook answered that it was for four months of the year, but for the other eight months it did not pay expenses.

Mr. Henneberry moved that the application be granted, but Mr. Rowe offered as a substitute that the reduction be made to $4,000.

The amendment was carried, the only dissenting vote being that of Mr. Henneberry.

The application for a reduction from $2,350 to $1,220 on the branch from Harrison and Eighth to Twelfth and Broadway was denied.

"They ought to have had better sense than to build that line," said Mr. Cuvellier. "It was done probably to keep out other roads."

MORE REDUCTIONS.

Mr. Henneberry then moved that the franchise of the main line of the road be reduced from $15,000 to $5,000.

Mr. Upton said he believed the franchise to be worth more than the road itself, and he would therefore vote to sustain the objection.

The application for reduction was denied by the following vote:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—8.

Noes—Fibush, Henneberry—2.

Absent—Pringle—1.

On the second franchise, assessed at $5,000, the vote to sustain the Assessor's figures was similar to the vote on the first franchise.

On the Trestle Glen branch of the road, the vote to deny the application for reduction resulted:

Ayes—Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—7.

Noes—Brosnahan, Fibush, Henneberry—3.

Absent—Pringle—1.

Mr. Rowe moved that the assessment on the line from Broadway to Twelfth, to Harrison and Eighth streets, be reduced from $5,000 to $4,000. The motion was unanimously carried.

The reduction from $9,000 to $3,500 on the machinery was granted by the following vote:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Cuvellier, Earl, Fibush, Henneberry, Watkinson, Heitmann—7.

Noes—Girard, Rowe, Upton—3.

Absent—Pringle—1.

Mr. Girard moved that the application to reduce the assessment on cars from $9,000 to $5,000 be denied.

Mr. Henneberry moved that it be granted.

Mr. Fibush offered as a substitute that it be made $2,000. The substitute carried.

The application of the Oakland Consolidated Railway Company was then taken up, but Rod W. Church, representing the company, asked that it go over till Friday, as Mr. Gier was unavoidably absent.

Mr. Upton moved that when the Board adjourn it do so till Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

The motion was carried.

Then Mr. Brosnahan moved that the application of the Oakland Consolidated go over till Friday, and the motion was carried.

APPLICATIONS DENIED.

The next application was that of the Alameda, Oakland and Piedmont Road for a reduction from $45,450 to $20,481 on the line from the center of the Webster street bridge to Water street, to Broadway, to Sixth street, to Jefferson street, to Eleventh, street, to East Eleventh street, to Eighth avenue, to East Twelfth street, to Twenty-third avenue, to the eastern boundary of the city.

The application was denied, with Henneberry's the only dissenting vote.

On the first franchise, from $7,500 to $2,500, the application was denied, Fibush and Henneberry voting "no."

The second franchise remained assessed at $2,500, the application to reduce to $1,000 being denied.

The third franchise was, on motion of Mr. Earl, reduced from $25,000 to $20,000.

The application to reduce the assessment of the fourth franchise from $1,000 to $500 was unanimously denied.

HIGHLAND PARK.

Then the application of the Highland Park and Fruitvale Road, from East Eleventh street and Thirteenth avenue to the eastern boundary of the city, was taken up, the application being to reduce from $10,250 to $6,800.

Mr. Brosnahan moved that the application be granted, saying that the traffic was not sufficient to keep the motorman awake.

Mr. Cuvellier asked Mr. Rudolph of the road if it were not a fact that the residents along the road had made frequent complaint against the road occupying the entire street.

Mr. Rudolph answered that he would complain about Mr. Cuvellier's questions. He said he would answer anything having a bearing on the case. He wanted Mr. Cuvellier to confine himself to the question under discussion.

Mr. Cuvellier said the company had a very valuable franchise, and Mr. Rudolph said it had a very valuable assessment.

In answer to Mr. Upton, Mr. Rudolph said there were between three and one-half and four miles of track. It was a very poorly constructed road, he said, and would have to be torn up and reconstructed before anything could be made of it.

On motion of Mr. Brosnahan the application was granted.

The assessment of the cars remained at $5,500, the application to reduce to $3,840 being denied.

When it came to the franchise of the road, on which a reduction from $5,000 to $10 was asked, Mr. Rowe moved that the application be denied.

Mr. Cuvellier asked Mr. Rudolph if it were not a fact that the company's double tracks on the road impeded traffic. He said the people living along the line would not object if the company would take up one track. They could construct turn-outs for the passing of cars.

"I don't think you know what you are talking about," said Mr. Rudolph. "There are no double tracks on the road."

The application for reduction was denied.

The application to reduce the Central avenue line, running from Twelfth and Broadway to Pine street, from $10,000 to $8,500, was next considered.

Mr. Snow said that, at the risk of having Mr. Rudolph sit down on him, he would like to ask that gentleman some questions. He wanted to know if it would not cost $6,000 a mile to construct the road, and he was answered in the affirmative.

Mr. Henneberry moved that the assessment be reduced to $15,000. The vote on the motion resulted:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Earl, Fibush, Henneberry, Heitmann—5.

Noes—Cuvellier, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Heitmann—5.

Absent—Pringle—1.

Mr. Fibush moved that the assessment be reduced to $12,500. There was no second.

Mr. Girard moved that it be reduced to $13,000.

Mr. Earl offered as a substitute that it be reduced to $10,000.

The vote on the substitute resulted:

Ayes—Brosnahan, Earl, Fibush, Henneberry, Watkinson—5.

Noes—Cuvellier, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Heitmann—5.

Absent—Pringle—1.

On the motion to reduce to $13,000 the vote was 10 to 2, Fibush and Henneberry voting "no."

On the Eighth street branch of the road the assessment was reduced from $4,350 to $4,000, and on the branch from Pine and Twelfth streets to the Sixteenth street depot the assessment was reduced from $2,325 to $2,000.

The assessment of the cars was reduced from $5,500 to $5,000.

The application to reduce the assessment on the franchise from $10,000 to $10 was denied as follows:

Ayes—Cuvellier, Earl, Girard, Rowe, Upton, Watkinson, Heitmann—7.

Noes—Brosnahan, Fibush, Henneberry—3.

Absent—Pringle—1.

WATER FRONT LAND.

P. H. Fisher of the California Improvement Company asked that the assessment on fifty-five acres of land in Sessions basin be reduced from $68,750 to $46,600.

Mr. Fibush asked if the land was assessed to Carpentier, and he was answered in the affirmative.

"Is Carpentier the man who took our water front away from us and now lives in New York?" asked Mr. Girard.

"You will find the records down stairs," said Mr. Heitmann.

Mr. Snow explained that the water front land was worth $1,000 an acre and that it cost $1,000 an acre to reclaim it.

The application was denied.

The improvements on the land, which were assessed at $300, were reduced to $1, it being explained that they consisted of a lot of boat houses which belonged to boat clubs.

WATER COMPANIES.

The application of the Oakland Water Company for a reduction of the assessment of its franchise from $75,000 to $1, was the next subject considered.

Mr. Fibush moved that the assessment be reduced to $5,000.

Mr. Cuvellier asked Assessor Snow what he would have assessed the franchises at had it been left to him.

"The same charter that fixes my salary," said Mr. Snow, "says that I shall take the figures of the County Assessor. I am not trying to have my salary raised, but your question is an awkward one to answer. The public is so apt to misconstrue what one says that one does not feel like speaking out his thoughts.

"Twenty years ago the railroad company or any corporation could have almost anything it desired. Now the pendulum has swung to the other side. Instead of rushing to grant a request of the corporations, the public now goes to the other extreme.

"The people sowed to the wind, and it is true that they are reaping a whirlwind.

"It takes a good deal of backbone to say a thing about a corporation, because of public opinion.

"Now that I have said so much without very much exhaustion, I will go on. I believe that the franchises of the two water companies are of very small value, and if I were compelled to assess them I should put the assessments at the highest sum the companies would pay without any fuss."

"You would have to assess them at nothing, then," interrupted Mr. Brosnahan.

"That has not been my experience," said Mr. Snow. "I think if I were assessing the franchises of the companies I would place a valuation of $35,000 on the Contra Costa Company and $25,000 on the Oakland Company. I think the companies could stand that much. I make a discrimination because I understand that the Oakland Company has not availed itself of the privilege of going into East Oakland.

Then Judge Frick, attorney for the Oakland Company, asked that the matter go over till Friday, when he would be able to offer testimony as to the probable value of the franchise, and his request was granted.

The assessment of the Contra Costa Company also went over till Friday, to which evening the Board then adjourned.

RUSHING NORTHWARD

A Score of Oaklanders to Go to the Clondyke Next Saturday.

RETURN OF REV. DR. KUMMER.

A Description of the Indians Who Helped the Mexico's Passengers.

TALK OF DEAD MEN'S BONES.

Latest News From Vancouver Says Wait Till the Spring.

In spite of the fact the reliable correspondents of the newspapers are sending back reports which would indicate that there is little hope of reaching the Clondyke this winter, thousands of people are still flocking northward.

It is reported that there are millions of dollars worth of gold dust on the way from the placers to San Francisco, but it is not coming in such large quanities as at first, although this fact seems to have no depressing effect upon those who would get rich fast.

Rev. Dr. Kummer returned from the north yesterday. On his summer holiday to Alaska he met many miners en route and some of them had very remarkable outfits. One man had nothing but tea which he said he intended to exchange for other provisions; another had a valise full of brass watches which he intended to sell to the Indians and miners at a handsome price. He had paid $5 a piece for them and Dr. Kummer says he does not think there will be a rush for them.

Dr. Kummer, who visited Dr. Duncan, the English missionary at New Metlakakla. It was at this island that the wrecked passengers of the steamer Mexico recently landed and they would certainly be hospitably treated. Regarding this interesting place, Dr. Kummer says:

"The island is under the control of Dr. Duncan, an English missionary, who went into that country thirty years ago and established a mission among the Indians. At that time they were ferocious, and he had many narrow escapes, but now he has fully a thousand of them with him that have professed Christianity and live together like one great family.

"Originally the colony was at what is now called the island of Old Metlakaktla, which is under British control, but the doctor had trouble with the English church because he refused to use wine in the sacrament, claiming that the use of intoxicants was the greatest curse to the Indian and that he did not want to instill in the Indians under his care a taste for alcoholic liquors. As the home church did not see it that way, and when the doctor refused point blank to allow any liquor to be landed on his island, the property belonging to him and his followers was confiscated.

"He opened negotiations with the United States government and was granted permission to occupy the island of New Metlakakla. He was appointed a magistrate and practically governor of the island and runs it to suit himself. When he moved to his new home his Indians followed him and erected a village and a large cannery, which put up 70,000 packages of salmon last year.

"The doctor maintains his temperance doctrines and the use of liquor and tobacco is forbidden on the island. No one is allowed to land on the island without having signed a pledge that they will not handle or drink intoxicating liquors or use tobacco or permit it to be sold or handled on their premises.

"As a result these Indians, known as the Thecheans, are the finest specimens in Alaska, and are entirely self reliant in their manner of living.

The Yukon Exploiting and Trading Company of San Francisco have secured the fast steamer Navarro, which will leave San Francisco on August 17th and is due at St. Michaels on September 1st. Passengers will go up the Yukon on the light river steamer Thomas Dunyer and land at Dawson September 20th. The fare is $300 with 150 pounds of baggage.

The steamer North Fork sails for St. Michaels next Saturday and many people from this county have engaged passages. Among them are J. L. Marks, Jim White, George Williams, C. M. Lambert, A. H. Bunerle, M. A. Thomas and P. J. Nicholas from Oakland, A. M. Volmer, R. E. Mott, from Alameda, A. Jones from Haywards, and A. Mack and party of six from Livermore.

A dispatch from Victoria says:

"Advise any one who may be looking toward Clondyke to wait until spring." Such is the message received from O. H. Van Milligen, who left here some weeks ago with hundreds of other treasure seekers. His words of caution are seconded and indorsed by all who have reached the Dyea or Skaguay gateways to the upper Yukon and find themselves brought to a halt with their supplies with the present inadequate facilities for packing.

"The road from here to Dawson will be marked with dead men's bones," writes another prospective millionaire who perhaps takes a somewhat exaggerated view of the situation, but whose note of warning is nevertheless not to be disregarded. All arrivals, by both the Islander and the Topeka, which arrived here yesterday, agree that not one-half of those who have already reached Dyea ar Skagnay will be able to get through to the Clondyke this year, and it will be madness for others to attempt the passage until spring unlocks the rivers again.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

STEWART HEDGES

The Silver Senator Admits That Good Times Have Returned.

MAKES MONEY WHILE HE MAY.

His Forecasts of Evil Fail to Arrive on Schedule Time.

PROSPERITY OF THE WEST.

Senator Jones Finds Excuse for the Drop in the White Metal.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The Times today publishes the following.

Senator Stewart is one of the latest converts to commercial optimism. He is a bull on everything except silver. He is engaged in a vigorous campaign in Wall street and he said yesterday that he had heard so much about better times that he had determined to gather in a part of the prosperity which is not only rampant in the street, but throughout the land. When asked what had brought about the change in his views he said:

"There is no room for pessimism in this country. No one can be a bear in the face of the wheat famine in Argentina, Russia, Hungary and India In view of these conditions abroad, I should not be surprised to see silver sell for 25 cents and wheat as high as a dollar.

"There is nothing in talking silver at the present time and my advice to my friends in the West is to fall in line with the forces of prosperity and progress and receive their due share of the reward.

"The time has passed for the old issues. We must turn to face new issues and new conditions. I frequently hear it said that this security market is a duplicate of the market of 1873. It is not. It is more of a bull market. All America has to do is to get into it, go to sleep and get rich. The wheat situation in the West will make every railway not only a dividend earner, but a dividend payer. Railroads that have been moribund for years are now taxed to their fullest capacity and are still unable to accommodate their traffic I am told that there is imminent danger of a car famine on many of the most important lines traversing this country."

"Are the people in the West alive to this new situation?"

"The people in the West," he replied, "are wide-awake. They know a good thing when they see it. Most of them are hanging on to their cereals with confidence born of hope and actual knowledge of what is going on around them With their immense crops, they will be able not only to liquidate their indebtedness to the money sharks of the East, but will inaugurate a buying movement that will surprise the people in this part of the country I think that by the late fall, the truth of what I said and reiterated during the campaign will be generally recognized and this is that there can be no general prosperity in this country that is not born and sustained in the West"

Senator John P. Jones of Nevada, who is spending a vacation in this city, said yesterday that the continued fall in the price of silver ought not to surprise any one.

"Silver is falling in the common price," he said, "because of a falling off of the demands for it as money. Japan has gone into a gold basis and so lessened the demand for silver Besides, there has been, because of universal hard times, a great falling off in purchases in the East. The Oriental countries use silver money and our purchases are paid for in that metal. The demand has been cut off by reason of the hard times."

Of the increasing gold production in Alaska Mr. Jones said: "I am not opposed to prosperity through any increase in gold The Republicans are very lucky and I congratulate them on the fact that this great discovery falls within their administration. I believe a great deal of gold will be found in Alaska, and it is certain to restore prosperity, for which the Republicans will claim and receive the credit. I shall welcome its return, whether through gold or silver Much glorification and congratulation is heard over the fact that our western wheat is going up to a dollar because of a famine in Argentine, Russia, India and other countries. I do not like to think that our prosperity is founded upon destitution and starvation in foreign nations I want a flood of money to turn the idle mill-wheels and irrigate the waste plains of our land.

"Another result that will follow from an abundance of money, be it silver or gold, will be abeyance of this hatred of the trusts. The people hate trusts and only prosperity will drive monopolies out of their minds. Plenty of money will crush out the trusts. They flourish only in hard times."

Each delegate wore a badge which was not only an indication of his right to sit in the convention, but was also a very pretty souvenir. The badge was of lead colored satin ribbon, stamped in silver and blue, with the office of the delegate and also bearing a magnified type stamped with the union label.

J. K. Phillips of San Francisco, A. J. Read of Oakland and Cyren E. Fisk of Los Angeles were appointed a Committee on Credentials.

President Marshall appointed the following committees:

Finance—Tiernan, Marr, Robbins.

Subordinate Unions—Poole, Whitten, McInnis.

Constitution—Jenner, Marr, Phillips.

Miscellaneous Business — Tiernan, Robbins, Poole.

Reports of Officers—Fiske, Whitten, McInnis.

Resolutions—Fiske, McInnis.

The officer's reports were then heard.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

The president's report was as follows:

"Gentlemen—During the year that has elapsed since the sixth annual session of the State union, many things have transpired which are of interest to the craft—some pleasant to remember while others may be termed unfortunate. Among the former, I refer to the blasted hopes of the proprietor of the Los Angeles Times, due to the administration's refusal to provide for him; also the set-back recently sustained by the Pacific Press of Oakland at the hands of the University Regents.

"Among the unfortunate things I may mention the State printing office trouble (which I leave to the careful consideration of the convention), this failure of the international body to grant State and district organizations increased power of legislation, and the introduction of a few additional linotype machines in this State. But you are all familiar with these matters, and it is unnecessary for me to discuss them further in this report.

"No doubt many matters of importance to the fraternity will be introduced at this session, therefore I will offer but few suggestions.

"First of all I favor the perpetuation of the State organization. Since the regular session of the International Typographical Union have been discontinued it is my belief that State meetings will be of untold benefit, not only to the craft, but to other organizations composed of laboring men.

"It is my belief that the interest of all concerned would be best subserved by the thorough organization of State and district unions throughout the jurisdiction of the International Typographical Union, the International Typographical Union to hold regular sessions not more than two years apart, representation to be by State and district only.

"I would suggest that the State union request local unions to exercise more care in considering applications for membership. It can be of no possible benefit to an apprentice to be admitted to full membership and yet be incompetent, as it is impossible for even the most competent to secure employment at times. I recommend a revision of the constitution and by-laws of the State organization, the same to be printed under the name of California State Typographical Union, No. 6.

"As to our greatest enemies in this State—the Pacific Press and Los Angeles Times—I believe there are delegates present who have had dealings with these notorious institutions, and who will be better able to suggest a mode of warfare against either or both of them than myself, then I leave them to the convention."

A. J. Read, secretary and treasurer of the State Union, made the following report:

"Gentlemen:—In submitting the seventh annual report of the California State Typographical Union No. 6 for your consideration and approval, I desire to congratulate you on holding our own during the past trying year—not one typographical union in the State having surrendered its charter.

"It seems to me, from numerous reports at hand, that several small unions might be organized with a little effort, but an organizer must visit each place personally.

"The printers now employed in Berkeley and Alameda, several of them carrying traveling cards, should be induced to affiliate either with No. 21 or 36. Loyalty to union principles demands this, and those unions should legislate in that direction.

"The union label is now carried at the head of each daily newspaper issued in Oakland, as well as in several weeklies and monthlies, some job offices only using it during elections. A daily paper in Santa Rosa has also set the example in that pretty place. Los Angeles is also up to the times—in fact, is away ahead of the Times. San Francisco papers are likely soon to fly the label while the job offices are rapidly falling into line. Sacramento also makes fair use of our emblem. It seems to me desirable and I therefore recommend that a Label Committee be appointed. Attention should also be drawn to the cigarmakers' blue label.

"There are two black spots on the map of fair California that should be wiped off, one is the Los Angeles Times and the other the Oakland Pacific Press. They each have received some attention from the State union during the past year, and we are satisfied with the results as far as they go, but they do not go far enough. Surely the time has arrived when the I. T. U. should recognize the existence of these ulcers and come to our assistance with a liberal appropriation. This is one of those cases where a walking delegate, with some "get there" about him, could do very effective work. An appeal should be sent to the Executive Council of the I. T. U. forthwith, asking for a thousand dollars in each case.

"The nine-hour movement is agitating the minds of the printers of the nation. It seems to be a popular movement. Book and job printers don't like the practice of working ten hours while the machine operators only work eight. Some compromise, say at nine hours, should be brought about by conferences with employers.

"The unfortunate nominal closing of the State printing office will probably furnish matter for debate. In any event Sacramento union No. 46 will have the sympathy and good wishes of every delegate. There is no question about that. Besides, it is a State institution that is of special interest to us all. Let our only aim be to preserve it to the craft.

"The State unions of this country are building up and extending, but they require more consideration and more power from the I. T. U. In the language of an eminent authority, "We have now, in my opinion, one of the best State wage-earners' organizations in existence—inexpensive in its workings, yet doing in a quiet and unobtrusive way a vast amount of good, and which has already gained a position of prominence and respect among the more important labor bodies of the country." Therefore, let us carry on the good work till every printer in the State is enrolled under our banner.

After three years' humble service as secretary-treasurer, it is my opinion that a change is desirable, and I therefore retire and do not wish to be considered a candidate for re-election to that important office. Respectfully submitted,

"A. J. READ,
Secretary-Treasurer."

The finance report showed the receipts to be as follows: Cash on hand August 1, 1896, $154.10; Eureka Union, No. 207, $2; Marysville, No. 223, $1.40; Los Angeles, No. 174, $13.30; Santa Rosa, No. 31, $1.40; Fresno, No. 144, $3.70; San Jose, No. 23, $4.10; Riverside, No. 254, $2; Eureka, No. 207, $2; San Francisco No. 21, $35; Oakland, No. 36, $5.40; total, $224.40; Expenditures $95.80.

Both reports were received and action temporarily postponed.

DOWN TO BUSINESS.

J. K. Phillips introduced a motion to do away with all the committees as the convention was a small one and any business that must necessarily be referred to a committee could be referred to a Committee of the Whole. The motion was carried by a unanimous vote and at the order of the chair, the committees were disbanded.

At the motion of C. E. Fish, the officers' reports were first considered and Mr. Fisk was called to the chair during the meeting of the committee of the whole.

S. H. Jones made a strong speech in behalf of State unions having power to select the State organizers and thought that the matter ought to be thoroughly afred in the subordinate unions.

Robbins spoke in the same strain and expressed a belief that the International Union would meet within the next two years and he urged that delegates be sent to the convention who would be pledged to exert their influence to have the State Organizer appointed by the State Union. Poole also spoke on the same strain.

The secretary's recommendation that a label committee be appointed was adopted.

Jenner moved that the Executive Council of I. T. U. be asked for two appropriations of $1,500 for fighting the two big non-union firms, the Los Angeles Times and the Pacific Press. His motion was carried.

Poole then moved that the secretary and president of the State Union be instructed to draw up resolutions to be presented to the council asking for the appropriations.

The Committee of the Whole then adjourned and reported to the convention the adoption of the motion.

THE BALL TONIGHT.

Masonic Hall will be bright with varicolored lights and fragrant flowers tonight when the printers have their grand ball. The affair will be under the auspices of Oakland Union and a very enjoyable evening is assured. The programme of dances includes all the latest variations of graceful movement, and the music, furnished by Bangle's orchestra.

The grand march commences at nine o'clock. The committees having the dance in charge are:

Committee of Arrangements: A. J. Read, chairman; W. H. Stanley, treasurer; Herman Bernett, secretary; M. A. McInnis, August Koster, C. L. Frank, S. N. Darr.

Reception Committee: John F. Hintermeyer, chairman; Alex Doig, H. L. Hubbell, D. A. Jones, W. P. Richmond.

Tomorrow evening the scene of festivities will be shifted to the banquet room of the Galindo Hotel, where Oakland Union No. 36 will entertain the visitors. Over one hundred invitations have been issued. The toast master will be Hon. John P. Irish.

The toast will be responded to as follows:

ANOTHER DELAY.

The Collins Trial Put Off Till the 31st of This Month.

WITNESS MORRISON VERY SICK

He Saw the Killing From the Start to the Close.

GARRITY FOR THE DEFENDANT

Stipulations in Former Will Not Be Agreed to by the Accused.

The trial of Michael Collins for the murder of Phillip Boogar was again continued by Judge Ogden in the Superior Court and now will not be heard until August 31st. The continuance was granted at the request of District Attorney Snook, Colonel Thomas Garrity who appeared for the accused assenting.

When the case was called, Mr. Snook said that he was sorry to inform the court that one of his most important witnesses, Morrison Winslow, was confined to his home by illness and that he could not possibly be present at the trial. Winslow had been subpoenaed and when he failed to appear when the case was called on Tuesday last, the speaker had Mr. Herbert go to Winslow's home in San Jose to ascertain what was the cause of his non-appearance was.

Herbert had found Winslow in bed and ascertained that he was to undergo a surgical operation today. Mr. Herbert had consulted with Winslow's physician and found that the patient would not be able to leave the house for about thirty days. During the preceding trials, Mr. Knight the then attorney for Collins, had stipulated that the testimony of any witness who could not attend might be read to the jury.

Judge Ogden said that the reading of the testimony of a witness would not have the effect upon a jury that it would have if it were delivered orally.

Mr. Snook said that he did not know whether Mr. Garrity would consent to the stipulation referred to.

Mr. Garrity said that he did not know what had been done in the premises, his knowledge being gleaned in a talk of ten minutes with Mr. Knight. He desired to have it undersood, however, that he would agree to no stipulation which had been entered into between the counsel for the State and Mr. Knight.

Mr. Snook said he did not think it would be advisable to go to trial without the witness in question. The section in the code as regards the reading of deposition would not apply to this case, because Winslow's testimony was not in the form of a deposition.

The Judge wanted to know if Winslow was the only witness who was absent on the part of the State and Mr. Snook replied that he was the only important witness who was not in attendance.

Winslow, he continued, was the only witness who had seen the starting of the affray. Al Kland who was out of the State and whose deposition could be procured and Schlueter, had seen only the beginning of the fight. They had seen the flash of the pistol and what transpired after it. Winslow at the time of the murder was standing at Furst's store at the corner of Broadday and Eighth streets.

Mr. Snook then read an affidavit by Dr. George S. Farley of San Jose to the effect that Winslow would not be able to attend the trial for thirty days.

Judge Ogden wanted to know whether the empanelling of the jury could not be proceeded with.

Both Snook and Garrity said they would much prefer that the jury should be empanelled when they were ready to go ahead with the case.

Mr. Herbert was then placed on the stand. He told of his visit to Winslow in San Jose, the feeble condition of the patient and the procurement of Doctor Farley's affidavit.

The case was continued as above set forth.

The other criminal cases disposed of were as follows: People vs. De Mannis, continued till tomorrow; against Charles Reed till October 5th.

The case of Alameda City vs. Cohen was taken under advisement.

MRS. JENNIE SAUNFERS,
1016 West 7th st., Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin has cured me of that dreadful disease known as heart disease, and also of weak lungs. I do make this deposition for the especial benefit of those suffering similar ailments. I must say that I was treated by the best doctor in Chicago, and after I lost all hopes I concluded to come to San Francisco for a change of climate, and immediately I heard of the wonderful cures of Dr. Tom She Bin, so I consulted him, with such good luck, that after one month and a half from the time he started to treat my case, I felt entirely well.

MRS. E. FRENCK,
409 Thomas Street, Chicago, Ill.

I, the undersigned, do recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as one of the best doctors to cure rheumatism, having been suffering for three years, and also been under the treatment of six skillful doctors for four months without feeling any relief. I determined to set myself under the care of Dr. Tom She Bin, who gave me immediate relief, and in the course of five weeks I was enjoying good health.

FANFILO MURILLO,
Pomona, California.

My son, nine years of age, utterly prostrated with typhoid fever for six weeks, he was under the explicit care of hospital doctors, but without avail. All his body was declared incurable. I heard the name of Doctor Tom She Bin, and at once was induced to see him, and I left my son to his absolute care. Fifteen days after my son was able to play around the yard. I fully believe Doctor Tom She Bin saved my son's life.

The undersigned does hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as the only competent doctor, as he has cured me entirely from throat disease, which many doctors declared incurable. J. A. OWENS,

San Francisco, January 31st, 1897.

I, John A. Fain, do hereby certify that I suffered with piles for over twelve years. Dr. Tom She Bin cured me in very short time.

San Francisco, February 26th, 1897.

I have been suffering under the most dreadful disease for two years past and lost all hopes of recovering, being unable to move for four months. At last I concluded to take Dr. Tom She Bin's Wonderful Chinese herbs, and in six weeks after my health was completely restored.

J. E. MORAN,
756 Workmain St., East Los Angeles, Cal.
Montenzou, Cal., March 1st, 1897.

I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble, as I have been. About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and bloody looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus. The disease would make me very nervous and despondent. At different times during my ailment I would get some relief for a few months, then it would come back as bad or worse than before. I doctored with several as good doctors as I could find in the East and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr. Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1892.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach. I commenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change. After that time I improved very fast and am now able to do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me. J. L. CARPENTER.
San Francisco, March 2, 1897.

I saw Dr. Tom She Bin's advertisement. I first come up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble, I had, was true. I had a pain over my body, and chilly. I put my case to him; first week I take Chinese Herb; one week I was great deal better. I been sick for six years. I go to white physician, cannot do me any good. I take Dr. Tom She Bin's Herbs six week; I was all well. Was cured about one year and never pain again.

MRS. J. SANGALL,

San Francisco, March 4th, 1897.

By these presents I do hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as a successful doctor to cure the dreadful disease styled consumption, so common among all classes. He has restored my health in the short term of twenty days, for the trifling amount of $7.50 per day.

In four weeks my troubles were all cured. Now my flesh is all good. The last three or four years I went to white doctors, but never did me any good. Now I have got well and am in good health.

JENS J. JENSEN,

Geo. Osgoodby, author of the world-famous Murchison letter to Lord Sackville West, the English Embassador, in 1888, writes concerning Dr. Tom She Bin, now selling Chinese Teas and Herbs at the Sanitarium, 615 Kearny street, San Francisco, Cal.; and says:

Pomona, Los Angeles Co., Cal.,
March 7, 1897.

For the benefit of those who are suffering with chronic diseases, I will say that many years of severe suffering and futile treatment ended in Bright's disease of the kidneys, of which Dr. Tom She Bin completely cured me, after correctly and minutely describing my malady from the pulse, without asking a question. He is a medical marvel, and without a peer in his profession. Respectfully,

GEO. OSGOODBY.
San Francisco, March 13th, 1897.

I wish to give my testimony in behalf of Dr. Tom She Bin. It is about two months ago that I fell sick with influenza, being unable to procure no other help than that of domestic remedies. I fell worse and worse, until I was totally paralyzed. I was induced to consult Tom She Bin, and he, by the aid of his wonderful Chinese herbs. I felt somewhat relieved in twenty-four hours, and he agreed to treat me for the sum of two hundred dollars, and now I feel grateful to the doctor for his efforts. Very truly,

HILARIO PRECIADO.
Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin cured me of kidney trouble and stricture. Was sick for some time, but found no relief until I tried this doctor. He entirely cured me, and I have not been troubled since.

FRATERNAL NEWS

Native Sons and the Y. M. I. to Assemble at Santa Rosa.

ARRANGING FOR EACH EVENT.

Both of the Gatherings Are to Be on a Grand Scale.

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT G. A. R.

A Unique Post of the Order Established at Notre Dame, Ind.

The most interesting events in the fraternal world of recent happening will be found below:

Rebekahs.

A relief board of Rebekahs has been established in San Francisco which will take charge of such cases as would come under its control. The board has sent the following notification to the various lodges:

"The secretary was instructed to communicate with your board informing you that it is with pleasure that we prepare to form an auxiliary, and will do all in our power to help you in your good work; also that we recommend that the ruling should be that the noble grand and the vice-grand of each Rebekah lodge be required to form this auxiliary, and that it shall be so understood when they take their obligation. I am also instructed to inform you that we have learned that you have several cases of sisters on your list, and that we of the committee are ready and willing to attend to their immediate relief if necessary.

Native Sons.

Regarding the celebration of the forthcoming anniversary of Admission Day, which will be observed in a general manner by the order of Native Sons of the Golden West, Grand President Clark has sent out the following circular letter to all the subordinate parlors of the order:

"It now becomes my pleasant duty to send to each parlor my official greeting, and to remind all brothers that the 9th of September, the day which we as Native Sons celebrate, is near at hand.

"While the grand parlor in its wisdom chose Santa Rosa in which to hold the general celebration, there are many parlors that by reason of their distance from that city will not be able to participate in the general celebration. To such parlors I would suggest local or district celebrations, and to those parlors which by reason of their isolated situation are unable to join with others in joint celebrations, I would urge the holding of open meetings, and during the day the display over their meeting-places of the chosen standard of our country.

"As one of the purposes of our organization is 'to perpetuate in the minds of all native Californians the memory of one of the most wonderful epochs in the world's history—the days of '49,' let us not forget the men that made this page in history—the pioneers. So far as possible have them join with us in our celebrations.

"As the outside world is apt to judge of the merits of our fraternity by the interest manifested in our public display, let me impress upon each and every brother the importance of making the celebration a credit to ourselves, our beloved order and our native State."

A letter received from Santa Rosa gives some idea of what the several committees are doing in the matter of arranging for the celebration on the 9th of next month. From this it appears that the city will be decorated as it never before was with bunting, flags, flowers and evergreens. At night it will be brilliantly illuminated; the illumination around the Courthouse will be most brilliant. There will be electric fountains at each corner of the Courthouse square.

There is some talk of damming the river, so as to form a lake on which to have a grand night carnival. Forty of the parlors have already secured quarters in the city and many individuals have secured rooms in private houses. Arrangements are being made for a bicycle meet, then there will be a baseball match and a balloon ascension. The night parade will take place on the evening of the 8th, immediately upon the arrival of the trains from San Francisco. C. O. Dunbar, marshal of the parades in that city, promises some novel features that will add to the attractiveness of the affair.

Native Daughters.

Grand President Mrs. Conrad paid a visit to Alameda Parlor last Monday, and was most cordially welcomed.

Companions of the Forest.

Circle No. 122 A. O. F. will celebrate its wooden anniversary Friday evening, August 13th. A fine programme will include dancing and a guessing contest, after which wooden souvenirs will be distributed. The public is cordially invited.

Chosen Friends.

Supreme Representative H. B. M. Miller of Emeryville has gone to the Clondyke to try his luck in the diggings of the north. He left on the steamer Walla Walla.

The Supreme Council will meet in Louisville, Ky., on the 20th of September. California will be represented in the council by seven representatives and two officers. The officers are Supreme Vice-Councilor Dr. R. L. Webster and Supreme Trustee W. F. Gibson. The representatives are H. W. Hutton, Thomas H. O'Brien, W. H. Savage, T. H. Selvege, A. B. Sanborn, E. I. Wolfe and F. H. Kaefer, the last named being alternate for H. B. M. Miller.

Royal Arcanum.

Supreme Warden, R. A., Thomas A. Parish of Michigan is now in San Francisco and will probably institute the new council in Oakland which for some time has been in process of formation. During his stay in this State he will institute councils in places where the order is not now represented, particularly in Sacramento, San Jose and Canta Rosa. He is empowered by the supreme regent to institute councils and build up and increase the usefulness of the old ones.

Knights of Pythias.

The proceedings of the grand lodge of California at the twenty-ninth annual convention held at Hanford last May, have been received by the grand keeper of records and seal, H. Schaffner, and it is a most complete and carefully arranged report of the doing of the grand body. The frontispiece has a half-tone picture of the grand chancellor, W. H. Grant, and in addition to the report there is a carefully prepared index and the reports of the officers of the California brigade of the uniform rank, which occupy twenty-five pages. The whole book comprises 254 pages.

Last Monday night, Amazon lodge, the active little star in the Pythian constellation, conferred ranks of Esquire and Knight in its usual progressive and up-to-date method.

PIEDMONT LODGE, NO. 172.

Monday night Piedmont lodge conferred the rank of Esquire on Page Cohen in a manner for which the lodge and some of the visitors are to be commended.

At its next session, Monday, August 16th, Esquires Cohen and Cleclack will be elevated to Knighthood.

GRAND ORIENT.

Alameda Council, No. 1, of this order will meet tomorrow night at Pythian Castle, Twelfth and Franklin streets. Questions of deep importance and considerable moment will be brought before the council and several neophytes, aspirants for oriental honors, will be initiated. Alameda council, No. 2, of Berkeley is cordially invited to be present. The team will report for duty promptly at 9 o'clock. By order of Grand Padishah A. V. Oneill.

Rathbone Sisters.

Calanthe temple, No. 6, under its corps of new and efficient officers led by Mrs. A. Keiser, M. E. C., is now holding large, enthusiastic, interesting and financial meetings.

At its session July 23d, one lodge candidate was escorted through its Sublime degree white at its convention of August 3d, a prominent young member of Oakland lodge, No. 103, saw fit to link his fraternal fate with this branch of the auxiliary to the order of Knights of Pythias.

The prosperity of the future of this temple is now an assured fact. Its experimental period is buried in the past.

United Workmen.

The principal event in A. O. U. W. circles this week is the initiation of a class of twenty-five candidates, which takes place this evening at Pacific lodge, No. 7.

For this occasion the lodge will meet at Fraternal Hall, 1156½ Washington street instead of in A. O. U. W. Hall on Broadway.

There will be a large number of people present from all of the Oakland lodges. Among those who are expected to be in attendance may be mentioned Past Supreme Master W. H. Jordan, Past Grand Masters Barnes and Danforth, Grand Master Vintner, Grand Foreman Judge Bahrs, Grand Receiver Booth, Grand Recorded and Deputy Grand Master Poland. The initiating work will be given by the celebrated Pacific drill team.

Members of the order sojourning here are invited to be present.

OAK LEAF LODGE.

Several applications for membership were received at Oak Leaf Lodge No. 35 A. O. U. W. Monday evening and one new member, was initiated into the workman degree.

The Drill Team under the able direction of Past Workman Cogan performing its duties excellently.

Past Master Morrison of Occidental Lodge, No. 6, as a committee on matters pertinent to the order gave some excellent advice which was greatly appreciated and at once acted upon.

An invitation was received from Pacific Lodge No. 7 inviting Oak Leaf Lodge to attend its meeting this evening and it was unanimously voted to attend in a body.

The Visitation Committee will visit Oakland Lodge No. 2 Friday evening. Master Workman Gartner requested all who can, to be there on this fraternal visit. Past Master Joseph Harris was given full power to act in the matter of purchasing a stereopticon and requested to report upon same by next meeting.

The chairman of the Entertainment Committee reported that the "smoker" of next Monday evening will eclipse all former attempts, the programme comprising some of the best musical and literary talent of Alameda County and the cigars are special importations for the occasion.

Invitations can be procured from members of the Lodge.

Catholic Ladies' Aid Society.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society will meet next Monday evening at Mrs. H. Coleman's residence, West and Forty-third streets.

Young Men's Institute.

Active preparations are now being made for the forthcoming grand council, Y. M. I., which is to be held in Santa Rosa, next week. There will be large delegations from all the councils of this city.

The sessions will be held in the Odd Fellows' Hall, where every facility will be afforded the visitors to conduct their business. The City Council has granted the local committees leave to construct two grand arches to span Fourth street, and under which the procession is to pass the day when the League of the Cross Cadets come here. The grand ball at the Athenaeum Opera House Wednesday evening will be the most pretentious social function during the week and it is expected that at least 300 couples will participate.

There will be a great bicycle race meet Saturday, in which many of the California cracks will compete, and the same day will occur the grand parade. Assurances have been received from all over the State promising a large attendance of delegates and visitors. The citizens of Santa Rosa have seconded every effort of the local committees and have spared no pains nor expense in making the arrangements in every way worthy of the gathering expected. Among the notables expected to be present to address the delegates during the grand council are Archbishop Riordan, Chancellor P. C. Yorke and a number of other Catholic clergymen.

The Grand Army.

The delegates from California to the national encampment, which is to be held in Buffalo, N. Y., left yesterday for that place. They are N. P. Chipman, department commander; T. C. Mastellar, A. A. G.; C. A. Woodruff, L. D. Burbeck, J. H. Garrett, A. K. Johnson, J. T. Boynton and Charles Edelman.

There is a strong feeling among the Eastern delegates and especially among the delegates from this State of bringing the next national encampment of the order to San Francisco.

A UNIQUE POST.

One of the most notable institutions of a post of the Grand Army of the Republic which has taken place in the history of the organization is that which has just been authorized by Department Commander Dodge of Indiana, the post being composed in the main of Catholic priests and lay brothers connected with the College of Notre Dame in South Bend, in that State.

Notre Dame was the home of General W. Tecumseh Sherman before the war. It was there his family resided during the great struggle and it was to that place the great commander returned when victory crowned the federal arms and the wreath of laurel was placed upon his brow as also upon the brows of the other great leaders in the fight.

On the day of his arrival in South Bend, the general was tendered a reception in the college, which still survives in the memory of those who were present as one of the grandest that ever took place in the noted institution.

The new post is composed of priests and brothers of the congregation of the Holy Cross who served as chaplains or who carried a musket. Many of the brothers of the community had been, before their entrance into the religious life, soldiers in the Union army. Though they now follow in the paths of peace they can show scars as marks of service.

One of the most enthusiastic organizers of the past was the famous chaplain of the Irish Brigade, Rev. William Corby. He was the central figure in one of the most striking incidents of the war. Father Corby served all through the war and participated in all the long years of campaigning. He is now the superior of the order of the Holy Cross in the United States. He is the author of the volume "Memoirs of Chaplain Life." He is also the chaplain of the Indiana Commandery of the Loyal Legion, to which position he was nominated by General Lew Wallace. Father Corby gave the undertaking his approval on the spot, and his name was written down as one of the charter members.

Brother Leander, who carried a musket in the ranks of the Fifteenth regiment of regular infantry through the whole period of the war, and in all the fighting that dashing regiment saw for several years after the war was ended, was the first to make a list of the eligibles at the University. He found enough priests and brothers to make a quorum and have six members to spare. Then he added the name of General Olmsted, who is now a member of the order at Notre Dame, and finished the roster with the name of a single layman. The only secular member who will be admitted is the dean of the law school, Colonel William Hoynes.

With the exception of Brother Sebastian, Colonel Haynes left more of his anatomy on Southern battlefields than any one at the University.

Rev. P. P. Cooney, C. S. A., is another member of the post. He has been at Notre Dame for many years. When the Thirty-fifth Indiana was mustered in he left his classes at the University to become its chaplain. When the war was ended he returned. He is an apostle of temperance and was famous during the war for his temperance work.

In all eight priests left Notre Dame to serve as chaplains during the war. The greater number of them have since passed away. These were Rev. Dr. Kilroy, Rev. J. M. Dillon, P. P. Cooney, Dr. E. B. Kilroy, J. C. Carrier, Paul E. Gillen, Joseph Levesque and Very Rev. William Corby. In addition there were sixty sisters of the order of the Hold Cross who went to serve as nurses under Mother Mary Angela, their superioress, who was a cousin of James G. Blaine.

Of the war veterans among the brothers of the order at Notre Dame all of them were soldiers and most of them fought as privates. Their admission to the congregation was after the close of the war. One of those who was distinguished for the number and character of his wounds, died recently.

Degree of Honor.

The report of the proceedings of the Superior lodge has been received by the grand recorder, Mrs. Kate M. Poland, and the books are being sent out to those entitled to receive them.

The new ritual of the Degree of Honor, which embraces changes as to minor details only, will be ready for distribution by the 1st of next January.

Ivy Lodge, No. 4 Degree of Honor A. O. U. W., had its usual excellent attendance Wednesday evening.

The Drill Team initiated three new members in an admirable manner, not a mistake occurring to mar the impressive ceremony.

Past Chief of Honor Mrs. Sturrock eloquently advocated her pet subject—the "Beneficiary" and, upon a motion, proposed by her, it was decided that the Visitation Committee pay a missionary visit to Pacific Lodge No. 7 A. O. U. W., Thursday evening, August 19th and to Oak Leaf Lodge, No. 35 A. O. U. W. Monday evening, August 23d.

Keystone, Oakland, and Freemont Lodges will also be paid a like visit on evenings to be settled on at next meeting.

A communication was received from Monte Vista Lodge, Degree of Honor, Milpitas, inviting Ivy Lodge to a grand entertainment and dance which is to be given under the auspices of this energetic new lodge of the Degree of Honor on Friday evening.

The recorder was instructed to inform Monte Vista Lodge that the notice being so short it was impossible to accept the kind invitation. If the invitation had been received sooner many said that they would have been delighted to have gone to Milpitas.

Chief of Honor Mrs. Parkinson appointed on the new Attraction Committee for Monday evening, August 23th, Sisters Donaldson, Frederickson, Garrison and Garrett.

Sister Marguerite Oakes, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, stated that the programme for the entertainment and ball which is to be given for the benefit of Ivy Lodge Drill Team next Wednesday evening at Chapman's Hall, will be one of the best ever presented in Oakland.

Sister Oakes announced the following committees for that occasion: Floor manager, Brother Charles L. Ingler; assistant floor committee Brothers Hall and Jordan; reception, Sisters Gartner and Gavin and Brothers Strasberg and Lissner; refreshment, Brothers Harris and Smith; door, Brothers Cogan and Mitchell.

Members of the Lodge desiring to donate flowers and vines for the decoration of the ball-room are requested to send the same to Brother Oakes' office 369 Twelfth street Wednesday morning.

THE BIG DEFEAT AT AGUACATE

Two Hundred Spaniards Go Down Before the Rebels.

PEOPLE FLOCKING TO TOWNS.

Great Dissatisfaction Over the Captain General's Blunders.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—A special to the Herald from Havana via Key West says:

Further details have been received of the battle near Aguacate, which is near the Matanzas line. The fighting, it was first reported, was in Matanzas province, but it was just on this side. There is no doubt of the result of the battle, however, and a conservative estimate places the number of Spanish killed at 200 while the rebel loss was comparatively trifling.

Preparations for General Weyler's arrival at the palace were made on Monday, but he has only just returned from the field. He left Matanzas on Sunday and reached Aguacate the next day. It was there that a rumor came that he was wounded in the big fight near there, but the statement proved to be false.

The excitement in Havana is intense. The uncertainty regarding the new ministry in Spain is partly to blame and on top of this there comes news of a big insurgent victory between Aguacate and Madruga and also of a pitched battle in the vicinity of Sagua la Grande, the advance guard of General Gomez has crossed into Matanzas. Whether he is close cannot be ascertained with certainty, but it is reported that he declined the fight at Sagua la Grande. The largest battle that has taken place in several months was the one fought at Aguacate. It is known that the battle was the result of an attempt to capture General Weyler or kill him.

The Captain-General had made preparations to return on horse back from Matanzas to Havana. Along the road, he had posted three columns of Spanish soldiers. General Castillo learned of his plans and gathered a force of fully 1,500 rebels. This force he hurled against the Spanish lines near Aguacate, where General Weyler was supposed to be. General Castillo commanded the insurgents in person and the Spanish were under General Militia. The colonel is reported dead, but later accounts are to the effect that both General Aldea and General Molina were wounded.

The battle began about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and continued until night set in. The Spanish were ranked along the open road and the rebels approached them from the rear, coming from the hills. A body of cavalry were stationed about a quarter of a mile down the road to cut off Weyler if he should be there and attempt to seek safety. The details of the actual fighting are meagre, but many reliable persons, who passed near the place, which is beside the railroad station, say that from the carriage windows they could see many dead soldiers along the road. The rebels used rapid firing guns.

When darkness came the Spaniards retired, to return the next morning with heavy re-inforcements, but the insurgents only opened fire for about half an hour and then disappeared. They divided into small bands and subsequent pursuit was futile.

Information has also been received of the big fight near Sagua la Grande. It is said the town was attacked and that a portion of it was burned. But this has not been verified. Correspondence from the field, however, proves that there has been a battle there, General Gomez in person, it is said, directing the insurgent operations.

After the fight at Aguacate, General Weyler fell back upon Guanabacoa, just across the bay from Havana. The rebel chiefs, Colonel Arnaguran and General Rodriguez, were in the district and General Weyler expected a raid.

General Weyler arrived at Guanabacoa with 4,000 men. Five miles from Guanabacoa, General Weyler was attacked by a rebel force under General Rodriguez. General Rodriguez's plan was to force General Weyler to give fight and pursue him into the hills, where the Captain-General stood a good chance of being either killed or captured. The rebels fired several volleys from the hills along the roadside, killing seventeen and wounding a large number of the Spanish, but General Weyler refused to give fight and kept on his march to Guanabacoa driving 800 head of cattle that he had collected along the line. General Rodriguez followed in Weyler's rear to within sight of the town. After the rebels withdrew, the Spanish troops commenced a heavy fire, the noise of which awakened and frightened the residents of Guanabacoa. There is great excitement in the meantime in Havana over General Weyler's inability to check the rebels and everybody who can manage it, is moving to the town from the outskirts as they nightly expect an attack. Hardly a night passes now that bands of insurgents do not enter one of the suburbs of Havana and receive from their friends supplies of medicine and clothing.

A train running from Marianne, in the Havana province, was fired upon recently. The American Vice-Consul, Mr. Springer, was on the train. Bullets struck near him, but he escaped unhurt.

CANADA CAN NOT RETALIATE.

Effect Across the Border of the Ten Per Cent Tariff Duty.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

MONTREAL, Aug. 12.—The decision of Attorney-General McKenna as to the interpretation of the clause of the new United States tariff which deals with the imposition of an extra 10 per cent for the duty on foreign goods entering the United States through a contiguous country will be watched with the greatest interest in Canada.

"If the clause is put into force," said Mr. G. M. Bosworth, freight traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific railroad, "its effect will be most serious. It will kill all our China and Japan business in exports intended for the United States and will also kill entirely the importation into the United States through Canadian ports. Montreal, in summer and St. Johns in winter, will suffer from the adverse legislation."

The same view was expressed by Mr. George B. Reeve, general traffic manager of the Grand Trunk railway.

"Both the great Canadian roads would suffer from the clause," said Mr. Reeve, "if it were put into effect and Canada would have no retaliatory recourse."

He was of the opinion, however, that such an interpretation as was indicated in the Washington dispatches would not be placed upon the clause. Mr. Reeve added that the competition of the Canadian roads had done much in the last thirty years to cheapen rates from Western States to the Atlantic seaboard, and he felt them deserving of much consideration in consequence.

TEMPERANCE FANATICS.

The Mayor of a Kansas Town Has Experience With Them.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 12.—A mob of 200 persons waited on Mayor Muir of Harper and demanded his immediate resignation because he refused to close a saloon that had opened on Sunday night. The Mayor climbed upon his desk and attempted to make a conciliatory speech. The temperance crowd passed him, and two or three got hold of him and attempted to throw him off, when the Mayor's friends came in by the back door and drove the crowd away with clubs.

The agitators then proceeded to the Council chambers, put out the lights and broke up the meeting in a general row. Violence and a revolution of the city government has been threatened.

The city officers are now under an armed guard.

THE FRENCH AND SIAMESE FIGHT.

A Number Killed on Territory Between the Two Countries.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—A special to the Herald from Bangkok says:

"News has arrived of severe fighting at Muang Locus, on the right bank of the Mekong, the neutral zone between the French and Siamese. Several were killed and wounded on both sides. The French captured Siamese officials. Details are wanting."

Alice Barrett's Will.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—It develops that Alice M. Barrett, the pretty typewriter, who committed suicide on July 24th under circumstances so peculiar that for two weeks the motive, embezzlement, was not discovered, made a will three days before killing herself. This will, found by her mother, at her home in Waltham, was offered for probate at once.

It is a peculiar document, couched in legal phraseology throughout, and much the same as a millionaire might make. It bequeaths her belongings and her bank deposit to the mother, dividing her interest in two small mortgages between her brothers and $150 each additional to "my younger beloved brother Charlie." It then disposes of pieces of bric-a-brac and jewelry among her young women friends and relatives, including her aunt, three cousins and several Waltham associates. She had an accident policy for $2,500, and personal property appraised at $1,375 by her mother.

A New Bike Record.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Aug. 12.—In spite of the heavy rains which were encountered last night, Antonio Evans of this city succeeded in establishing a new twenty-four-hour bicycle record. He added sixteen miles to the distance ridden by Edwards of New York last June, and with 356 miles to his credit finished at 5:11 this morning with eleven minutes to spare, having started at 6:22 in the morning.

He was paced by tandem teams over the entire distance. The course was between this city and Elizabeth, a distance of twenty-five miles.

She Favors Lynching.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

TYBEE, Ga., Aug. 12.—Mrs. W. H. Fellon, member of the women's executive committee of the Columbian Exposition and chairman of the women's committee on agriculture at that time, made a sensational address before the Georgia State Agricultural Society convention by invitation, declaring in favor of the quick lynching of negroes guilty of outrage on white girls.

THE TRIBUNE'S TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE BRINGS THE NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE GLOBE

KNOWS NOT HIS FATE.

John Andrea Is Anxious to Get Well to Meet His Wife.

HAS BEEN DEAD FOUR DAYS.

The Sorrowful News Is Being Kept From Him by His Friends.

MIGHT PREVENT HIS RECOVERY.

Clara Fallmer Also Ignorant That She Is Charged With Murder.

There are two people in the county buildings whose chances of recovery depend greatly upon the condition of two other people. By a strange fate both of the latter two are dead, and not for some time will the two patients be informed of their death.

John Andrea, who is at the Receiving Hospital in a critical condition, wonders why his wife does not come to see him and has to be content with the information that she is unable to come. As she died last Sunday morning, this information is sadly too true.

Clara Fallmer, the girl who shot Charles Ladue, is at the County Jail, and it is feared that the shock to her, should she learn of his death, would probably prevent her recovery. She still believes that he is approaching recovery, and does not know that a warrant has been sworn to charging her with murder.

The case of Andrea is particularly pitiful. He is a man about 50 years of age, and a few days ago a steel beam fell on him and made it necessary to take off a leg above the knee. When the news of the accident reached his wife, she went to the hospital and spent a few hours with him, but was so overcome that she had to be assisted to her home.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Andrea was taken with a fit of apoplexy and expired suddenly. The news has been kept from Andrea, and the children are being cared for by members of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Andrea was a member.

It is feared that the shock will probably prove fatal to Andrea, and the friends dare not undertake the responsibility of interring the body until the husband has taken a last look at it, and it is being preserved. It is impossible to take the husband to see it, as his condition will not permit of his being moved from the hospital. The situation is extremely delicate and pathetic, and friends admit that they cannot see a way out of the difficulty at present.

As soon as Andrea is ready to be moved he will naturally ask to be taken to his wife, and then the sorrowful news must be broken to him that he can never see her again in life. He will leave his sick bed only to see his wife in her coffin.

The case of Clara Fallmer is not so pathetic, as the bond that bound her to her dead lover was not of the kind that the world admires, but there seems to be little doubt that she will again attempt suicide should she learn that she has to stand trial for murder.

THE WEEK'S AMUSEMENTS.

"Mrs. Partington and Her Son Ike" Draw Large Houses at the Oakland.

"Mrs. Partington and Her Son Ike" is the attraction at the Oakland this week. The Elleford company in this, their last appearance on the local stage, will leave a wake of pleasant remembrances of this clever play. Mr. Elleford appears as Mrs. Partington and Jessie Norton as Ike. The incidents of the play are extremely funny, the acting is good, some of the scenery is splendid. On the whole, the performance is excellent.

BARTHOLOMEW'S HORSES.

Bartholomew's clever equine pupils are attracting crowded houses. The living pictures are greatly enjoyed by the audience. The soft music, the one square of light illuminating the beautiful horses in their portrayal of a great artist's picture, arouse the sympathy of the spectators.

The special features are unique and interesting—the see-saw, the performance of "Filicy" on the twelve-inch plank, the ox team, the contortions of "Patchen" and many others.

The performances continue throughout the week.

MAIN'S CIRCUS.

The circus show will commence Tuesday, August 19th. The collection of animals in Main's celebrated shows is admitted to be one of the finest in the United States. The feats performed by the wonderfully well trained animals are remarkable. Jesse Howard's happy family of ferocious beasts in the steel den is one of the sensational features of the circus.

LOOSE METHODS OF HUNTING TUBERCULES.

Dr. Carpenter's Experience With One of the Government Meat Inspectors

Dr. Thomas Carpenter, Alameda's Milk Inspector, made a discovery yesterday that induces him to call the Government inspection of meat at Butchertown a farce.

"At Butchertown there are two, J. J. Borden and J. O'Reilly, and Borden was the man we met yesterday," said Dr. Carpenter. "One did not need to talk to this inspector long to see that this business of inspecting meats, for which the Government pays good salaries, is a prodigious farce. The inspection is not obligatory and the slaughter-houses may remove their inspectors at any time. Six were recently dismissed by slaughter-houses in San Francisco.

"At present there are four inspectors at Baden, and outside of that but three employed, two in one slaughter house and one in another. When an inspector loses a place he is given a furlough, his salary continuing until he secures another appointment. Borden says they hold the positions for life; that no knowledge of disease is required. He inspects steers by looking at the intestines, without any closer examination.

"While I was there five or six animals had just been killed and were hung up. Near by some livers were hanging, and I found two infected with tubercules. I called Inspector Borden over and showed them to him. He had not noticed them; 'didn't know which of the steers they came from.' That did not matter much, he said, as long as there were no bunches on the lungs. Dr. Baker always passed that kind. I never imagined such things possible. It seems the slaughter-houses only tolerate inspectors as an advertisement, as some people prefer to feel that their meat is inspected."

The report that Alameda has quarantined Oakland meat is untrue, as no such step has been taken.

There is no sadder sight than that of the orphan-child bereft of the loving care of a mother. If women would but learn the vital importance of taking proper care of their health, and always look after the health and vigor of the organs distinctly feminine, the pitiful Sabbath day procession of motherless children that goes to the cemetery to "put flowers on ma-ma's grave" would be materially reduced in numbers. Too many women bring a child into the world at the sacrifice of their own life. This sad tragedy may be avoided by any women who will resort to the right remedy.

The usual dangers of maternity are banished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly and only on the important and delicate organs that bear the burdens of motherhood. It makes them healthy and strong, vigorous and elastic. It does away with the discomforts of the expectant period, insures the health of the newcomer, and makes its advent free from danger and almost free from pain. Over 90,000 have testified to its virtues. Druggists who offer substitutes are untrustworthy.

Mrs. William Vincent, of Sidnaw, Houghton Co., Mich., (care Birgland's Camp. Box B), writes: "When I first began to take your 'Favorite Prescription,' four years ago, I was suffering with local weakness and heart trouble. At times I could hardly endure the pain in my sides, quite low down, and had such a pain between my shoulders I could not sleep at night. Was just as tired in the morning as at night. At times there was a very sharp pain around my heart. When I would stoop over there was a dull aching just under the heart. My head ached and was continually sore to the touch. I took ten bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and one bottle of the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I can most truly say that as a result I never felt better in my life. I was more like a young girl than a mother of a family. The pain all left me, so I know that your medicines will do all that medicine can do."

A New Enterprise.

Articles of incorporation of the Metallic Warehouse Storage Company, were filed in San Francisco Tuesday. The capital stock is $10,000, of which $5,000 has been subscribed. The principal place of business is in San Francisco, though one of the warehouses is located in Oakland. Charles F. Pugh is a director and general manager of the new concern. The company does a general storage business.

Starts Out Well.

The enterprise of Rose P. Bromley in the line of real estate and insurance, has become apparent during the past few weeks, when he has made several important sales. He recently embarked in the business for himself and has had much work to attend to in his offices in the Macdonough building. Mr. Bromley is a rustler and will set the pace for his brethren in the trade.

Christian Congregations Unite.

The congregations of the First and Central Christian Churches worshipped together last night in Hamilton Hall. Rev. Edwards Davis and Rev. Glen McWilliams led the services, which were held to strengthen the bond of union between the two congregations. The matter of final union will come up next Sunday morning and the vote will be decisive.
